HAWAIIAN COUPLE TO GIVE CONCERT

The Vincent entertainers will present one of their sacred American-Hawaiian concerts at the South Methodist church tomorrow night. The pastor of the Portland Sunnyside Methodist church says of them: "On two successive Sunday nights, the Vincents rendered inspiring programs at the Sunnyside church. They are rare entertainers! They know how to inspire an audience. They can return any time and a packed house will greet them. Seldom have we met two people who are so finely gifted as to be able to combine their gifts both as to entertainment and inspiration. Spellbound the people sat and alternately laughed and wept." They play the steel Hawaiian guitars and banjo, sing and illustrate their melodies with crayon drawings.

C. W. Morgan of Santa Barbara, California, has leased the building, now occupied by the E. and F. garage and blacksmith shop at 118 South Bartlett street, where he expects to be located in the glass business by June 1.

The Screen

"Excuse Me," at Craterian.

A solid hour of hilarity—and then some—is promised Hunt's Craterian audience for tomorrow and Monday, when they attend the showing of "Excuse Me," the Rupert Hughes laughing hit, which has Norma Shearer, Conrad Nagel and Walter Hiers as its stars. Hughes wrote "Excuse Me" a decade ago. After a great vogue in book form it was presented on the stage and proved one of the most popular farces ever sent on tour. Willa Sweatnam, in the role of the Pullman porter, was the first star of the piece. His part, in the new film version, is played by Walter Hiers.

"Checkers" Coming Tomorrow.

Another great stage play has reached the screen and, as a film, bids fair to eclipse all its previous records. This time it is the famous Henry Blossom play, "Checkers," the race-horse drama in which Thomas W. Ross won so much fame. Under the title of "Gold Heels," it is coming to the Rialto theater tomorrow, as a William Fox special photodramatic release with Robert Agnew in the Ross part and Peggy Shaw as the heroine. According to advance reports the racing scenes in which the unforgettable equine speed king, "Remorse," wins spectacularly, are the most thrilling bits of action ever shown on the screen.

Rex Beach's story of the Alaskan wilds, "The Iron Trail," closes tonight.

Charlie's Aunt! Proves Hit.

"Charlie's Aunt," the comedy sensation of the year, adapted from the internationally famous Brandon Thomas farce, which has been playing on the speaking stage for the last thirty-three years, is now in its final day at the Hunt's Craterian theater where it has been a riotous success.

It is doubtful if any comedian, even Syd Chaplin's famous brother, Charlie, has ever so completely captured the true comedy spirit and succeeded in retaining it through the entire length of the film. Syd grasps the comedy reins firmly in his hands and not so much as even slackens them until the last shot has faded off the screen.

The theme of the plot is a fine wholesome story of youth with no problems, no struggles against social conditions, no psychological furors, but merely a simple story of a young college man who is forced by his classmates to don the clothes which

UNEXPECTED STORM HITS THE VALLEY

Entirely unexpected, and also unpredicted by the weather bureau, quite a storm broke in the city and vicinity yesterday afternoon, during which there was much wind from the east and rain. The wind blew from 4:17 to 4:35 P. M., ranging in velocity from 20 to 30 miles an hour. During the night and early today more rain fell at times, and unsettled weather with showers is predicted for tonight and Sunday. From the time the storm broke yesterday afternoon until 8 A. M. today, the rain amounted to .09 of an inch.

While this rain is of much benefit to the grain, vegetable and fruit crops, yet it in connection with the wind did some harm, as considerable hay was down. The wind also blew over much wheat and tall alfalfa.
