Mayor O. H. Johnson, acting in his official capacity, receives many queer requests, but the queerest of all came in today from a lady residing on Terrace street, who declares she must be given protection against deer which have been ruining her garden and trees during the past few weeks. Ashland prides herself upon being a metropolitan little city, but this latest request gives evidence of a trend backward into the pioneer days. Mayor Johnson is at a loss to cope with the situation, for he cannot have the deer killed, neither can he legislate against them.—Ashland Tidings.

Our work stands every test. If you are in doubt come and give us a trial. Mrs. Trowbridge, 305 West 10th.

News this week that excited the interest of the people interested in mining in this part of the west was brought to town by P. H. Andrews, who reported that he has struck it rich two miles from Applegate postoffice and about 15 miles from here. It is reported that after their last clean up they deposited $5000 in a bank in Grants Pass in gold taken from the ore of a ledge that was sold to be the other concentrate. It is also reported that Mr. Andrews has one on the dump for the mill valued at about $10,000.—Gold Hill News.
