SAMMY MANDELL IS ELIMINATED IN N. Y. TOURNNEY

NEW YORK, May 19.—A rugged two fisted fighter and a nimble footed boxer will carry America's hopes into the semi-final round of the light-weight champion elimination tournament June 15.

Jimmy Goodrich, Buffalo, and Benny Valger, New York, won second round victories last night. Their rivals in the international mill for the title made vacant by the retirement of Benny Leonard will be Stanislaus Loayza of Chile and Cirilin Olan of Cuba.

Finishing punches decided three of last night's matches before the ten round limit. Sammy Mandell of Rockford, Ill., favorite in the competition eliminated himself by fouling Goodrich in the sixth. Loayza floored Tommy White of Mexico after seven gory rounds while Clony Tait of Canada failed to last out the fifth against Olan after having been punched sproggy for four and a half rounds.

Will Mandell rated as best of a pack who have given little indication of producing a champion of Leonard's caliber, fans were stunned by the low blow which sent Goodrich to the floor groaning. Mandell had been cautioned previously. He had proved himself by far the superior up to the sixth.

Huskies to Play Montana
 SEATTLE, May 19.—Where Washington is to place in the northwest baseball conference depends upon the outcome of games with the University of Montana today, with the University of Oregon tomorrow and with Oregon Agricultural college Friday.

So far the Huskies have lost two games. The O. A. C. team is undefeated but has not played any road games and has a tough schedule ahead of them. At present Washington and O. A. C. are the only teams which are above the .500 in the percentage column.

Shuler or Garner will probably pitch for Washington and Walby is slated for the receiving position. O'Connor is slated to pitch for the Grizzlies and Kelley is to catch.

Boston Girl Is Beaten
 TROON, May 19.—(By the Associated Press.) Mrs. K. C. Allen, of Winnipeg, Canada, today defeated Miss H. R. Ellison of Boston, two up and one to play in the British ladies' open golf championship. Both played poor golf, turning in cards filled with sixes and sevens.

The Screen

Dante's "Inferno" at Rialto.

The use of trick photography, so-called, in motion picture comedies has been employed for many years. In fact, it will be remembered that our very earliest films were made up almost entirely of such devices. Very rarely has it ever been used in any picture except for comic effect. However, several bits of unique camera work used in shooting of "Dante's Inferno," produced by William Fox from the allegory, to be shown here three days beginning today at the Rialto theater, may be classed as trick photography, yet, with one exception they certainly have no suggestion of comedy.

Dramatic modern story of a millionaire tyrant who becomes the victim of a curse has been threaded into the scenes depicting his journey through the abode of the dead, making the picture one of the more stirring fantastical productions ever attempted.

I got some FOLEY PILLS and after a few treatments I felt better and could work. With more ease, became stronger and could sleep better." Former Medford Mayor and Jackson County Solon Visits

J. J. Howser

Among the many prominent citizens who have visited Medford this week was J. J. Howser, ex-mayor of Medford. Mr. Howser's visit to Medford recalls many of the old political battles and campaigns that were waged on the floor of many a political campaign during our convention system days. Mr. Howser was elected to serve a term in the Oregon legislature from Jackson county, being a member of the famous holdup session of '97. He was the youngest member in the house. That was the session that caused the defeat of United States Senator John H. Mitchell, and also of Senator George W. McBride. And that brought about the long drawn out W. H. Corbett contest for the seat which is all history now. Two years later at a special session Joseph Simon captured the plum.

Mr. Howser was elected mayor of Medford in January 1909, defeating D. T. Lawton for the office. It was one of the hottest municipal elections that had ever been fought out in Medford up to that time. The file of the Medford Mail reads, "that on the evening of the election and after the ballots were counted, an opera troupe was playing in the old Angle Opera House and about 9:00 p. m. the manager of the show came out on the stage and announced the election returns as follows:

Messrs. Howser and Lawton ran a race for mayor.
 And Lawton ran like a rabbit and got almost there.
 But his ruin slipped the track and he got mixed up into a wreck
 And Howser got in by the knap of his neck.
 The judges and clerk and night watch agree
 That Howser is elected by a majority of three.

All the councilmen on the Howser ticket were elected. Namely, Carl Jones, George Lindley, N. J. Bradbury, and Herford. The ages of these men were around 55 and 60 while Mr. Howser was in his early twenties. J. W. Lawton, brother of D. T. Lawton, the defeated candidate, was elected recorder to succeed himself, W. I. Vawter, city attorney. It was during Mr. Howser's administration that Medford took its first big step forward and toward becoming a city. Water mains were laid across Bear creek to East Medford. A trunk sewer laid north to Bear creek through the Phillips place. A steel bridge across Bear creek. The Southern Pacific depot was moved out of the center of Seventh street, now Main street, and the start was made to bring in water to Medford from Fish lake or some other feasible stream and a general improving of the streets. In an interview with Mr. Howser he said, "It does my soul good to return to Medford and to see and know what a beautiful little city Medford has grown to be. I certainly have a warm spot in my heart for the citizens of Medford and Jackson county and I never let an opportunity go by that gives me a chance to speak a good word for Medford but what I say something good for the city. I have been the cause directly and indirectly, of sending many a man and family to Medford and Jackson county during the past twenty-five years. I have received a number of letters from the people whom I sent here, thanking me for directing them to Jackson county. Also telling me how happy and contented they are and how well they are doing. I am certainly glad to see your beautiful valley so prosperous and I hope it will continue to grow.

"There is one thing that pains my heart and that is when I learn of the deaths of so many of Medford's prominent citizens who were my personal friends. I certainly miss their smiling faces."

Mr. Howser is attending the grand lodge of Odd Fellows at Ashland, being a delegate of Haswell lodge No. 11 of Portland. He brought a load of Rebekah delegates from Utopia Rebekah lodge. He will return to Portland Saturday where he is engaged in general contracting business and reports business fine.

GRAND FLEET IS STILL CARRYING ON SHAM BATTLE

ABOARD THE U. S. S. SEATTLE AT SEA OFF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS, May 19.—(By Associated Press.) Speeding in a general westerly direction from Lahaina roadstead, the United States battle fleet continued to play at the war game at sea tonight. The maneuvers were resumed today when the fleet left Lahaina Island of Maui after undergoing "repairs" required after the recent "conflict."

The fleet today was able to execute various maneuvers at greatly increased speed because it was not handicapped by the accompanying auxiliary supply train which was left at Lahaina. The supply vessels, many of whom have a speed of nine knots an hour, have been retarding the movements of the main fleet.

Darting from the Lahaina roadstead today it was assumed the channel in that waterway had been turned into a theoretical mine field through which the fleet passed after sweepers had gathered up "enemy mines," permitting the fleet to speed out to sea at eighteen knots an hour.

BENES ELECTED PRESIDENT OF LABOR CONGRESS

GENEVA, May 19.—Eduard Benes, foreign minister of Czechoslovakia was today unanimously elected president of the seventh international labor congress at its opening session here.

The delegates at the opening session of the labor conference applauded and eulogized the youthful Czechoslovakian foreign minister as one of the great peace-makers of Europe, who, they said, is sincerely attempting to put Europe's house in order.

M. Benes addressing labor delegates from 42 countries, expressed optimism regarding Europe's future, but warned that peace policies must be patiently pursued. He said the motto of all democracies should be "pacification, consolation and reconstruction."

National rivalries should not be for commercial expansion, but to discover methods an always to make all peoples more comfortable and happy, he asserted.

Maintain Oregon's Highways

Destruction Must Be Repaired

It Costs Millions Each Year To Maintain Our Highways

CAUSE AND EFFECT

The Highway Commission finds 90% of the damage is caused by 4% of the traffic. This 4% includes for-hire trucks and busses operating as common carriers for their private gain.

The last Legislature passed a law requiring these for-hire busses and trucks to pay a moderate charge to reimburse the State and Counties in part only for the damage these heavy busses and trucks are doing to the highway. Whether this law becomes effective May 28, 1925, rests with the people.

The Motor Bus and Freight Truck Associations are circulating referendum petitions to hold up this law until November, 1926. If the people sign these referendum petitions, the private car owners and the general taxpayer will continue to pay the tremendous cost of maintaining these highways without receiving substantial help or aid from these for-hire trucks and busses that are doing most of the damage.

When you are asked to sign one of these petitions remember that it is a commercial bus or truck company that is asking you to relieve them of paying for the great damage that they are doing to our roads.

Refuse to sign these petitions and advise your neighbors to do the same.
