

NEW ROTOR SHIP IS PERFECTED BY M. I. T. EXPERTS

Says Red-Haired Long-Legged Men Are "Brainiest"

Dr. W. H. Sheldon, University of Chicago psychologist, has undertaken to prove his theory that long-legged men, particularly red-haired ones, have more mental power than others, by measuring 400 men at the university for an "anthropological index." They will be graded for mental ability, and the physical and mental indexes compared.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 26.—(A. P.)—A rotor ship propelled by a new type of revolving tower has been designed by two members of the school of naval architecture at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and will be tested on the Charles river within two weeks. It was announced today. The ship differs from that invented by Anton Flettner of Germany in that the rotor tower is smaller in proportion and revolves at a great speed. Only one tower will be used on the Tech ship which is thirty feet long. The designers, Lieutenants W. W. Hastings and J. M. Kiernan, hope their craft will attain a speed of seven knots in a fifteen mile wind with the tower making 350 revolutions a minute.

The ship differs also from Flettner's in that the disc on the top of the tower is stationary instead of revolving. The power of propulsion is obtained by the force set up by air currents on the revolving mast which is turned by a small motor at the base. The tower on the Tech. ship is 3 1/2 feet in diameter and 9 feet high as compared with Flettner's two rotors, 10 feet in diameter and 52 feet high on a ship of 600 tons.

SILVER SERVICE ON OREGON DISAPPEARS

SALLEM, Ore., May 26.—Members of the battleship Oregon commission who returned to Salem yesterday from Bremerton navy yard, reported that the Oregon will reach Portland harbor June 8, being brought down the coast from Bremerton by three government tugs. Only steam enough will be carried in the Oregon's boilers to operate the steering gear. The queen of the Rose Festival will be aboard when the ship comes into Portland. The commission has been unable to find any trace of the famous silver service that the people of Oregon presented the ship after the Spanish war at a cost of $35,000.

LORD ASTOR'S CROSS BOW FAVORED TO WIN ENGLISH DERBY

LONDON, May 26.—(By Associated Press.) Tomorrow is derby day and thousands of Britons are eagerly awaiting the probable results of the mile and a half race over the historic course at Epsom Downs. There is little to guide their choice. It is generally admitted that the horses this year are below the highest standard and there is no outstanding favorite. The betting, however, favors Lord Astor's Cross Bow, at odds of 5 to 1. Lord Astor has thus far been unfortunate in his efforts to win the derby, his horses having run second five times within the last seven years.

'FORTY WINKS' OPENS AT RIALTO TONIGHT

"Forty Winks," adapted to the screen from "Lord Chumley," one of the outstanding comedy successes of the last thirty years of stage history by David Belasco, comes to the Rialto theater for a three days' run beginning today. Paul Irlbe and Frank Urson, who made "Changing Husbands" directed the production which features Raymond Griffith, Viola Dana, Theodore Roberts and Anna May Wong in leading roles. The plot, while highly dramatic, furnishes one big laugh after another. In the story fortification plans are stolen for the office safe of a young naval lieutenant. The theft is engineered by an attorney, through a beautiful Oriental girl. He tells the boy's sister that he is in a position to buy back the plans and save her brother's name, but that it would look better if he did so as a member of the family. She promises to marry him if he recovers the papers. The real comedy and punch in the story is furnished by Lord Chumley, an insipid "Johnny" type of Englishman. "He's in love with the girl. The interesting and only clue, a lady's garter; New York police, subterranean and burglary figure prominently in the action. The climax occurs on a naval target out on the Atlantic ocean with the battle fleet blasting away at target practice with their big guns. "Forty Winks" is claimed to furnish thrills galore and some of the richest comedy ever brought to the screen.

SECURED RELIEF THROUGH FOLEY PILLS

John R. Gordon, Danville, Ill., writes: "I have suffered with kidney trouble five years; could not sleep at night and was almost always tired. I was not strong and hard work made my back ache. I got some FOLEY PILLS and after a few treatments I felt better and could work with more ease, became stronger and could sleep better." FOLEY PILLS are a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys—make them more active. Get a bottle today. Sold everywhere.

AMERICAN NOTE TO BELGIUM ON DEBIT UNANSWERED

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The American government's pressure upon Belgium for payment of its debt to this country has taken the form of a formal communication reviewing the whole situation and urging that steps be taken toward a settlement. It was disclosed today that such a communication had been delivered at Brussels in April and that so far no reply had been received. State department officials do not expect the Belgian authorities to attempt in their reply to transfer to Germany the responsibility for some of their obligations. The Versailles treaty provided that Belgium's borrowings prior to the armistice be reimbursed by the German government and unofficial advice has indicated that the point of non-payment of Germany's part would be raised by Brussels. This suggestion is not borne out by official dispatches.

THOUSANDS EXHAUSTED BY 'NERVES'
