

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY

ROGUE RIVER HOLDS SCHOOL EXERCISES FOR 8 GRADUATES

By Mrs. E. W. Scott. Commencement exercises were held Thursday night at the school auditorium. A very interesting program was given.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Earhart and daughter expect to leave Sunday for Dallas to attend the State Grange, which meets at that place June 2.

Mrs. Hazel White and Mrs. Robert Grimmett left Wednesday for Klamath to remain during the summer.

Born, Friday, May 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Vern Orr of Evans Valley, a son.

Born, Thursday, May 14th, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bunts of Riverside Auto Park, a daughter.

The last week of school was crowded full of social events for the students. On Friday night, the 15th, the freshman class entertained the sophomore class with a waltzer.

On Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee gave a farewell party in honor of their nephew, Thomas Mooney.

It is with regret that the people of Rogue River see the Grays getting ready to leave.

Miss Evelyn Carstens will leave soon to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carstens at Santa Monica, Cal.

Mrs. Mooney arrived Wednesday from Minnesota to be present at the graduation of her son, Thomas.

Thinling started Monday at the Del Rio orchards. A number of the school children are employed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Oliver and son are at Portland this week visiting. They will return soon and spend the summer at the Oregon Caves.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Oliver and son are at Portland this week visiting. They will return soon and spend the summer at the Oregon Caves.

Those who attended the I. O. O. F. and lodge at Ashland Wednesday were Mrs. Robert Burkhardt, Mrs. Lillian Swacker, Miss Sabery Booker and Mr. Julian.

Bert Duncan, who was injured so badly here while employed for the Copps has so far recovered as to be able to return to his home, but it will be some time yet before he will be able to return to his work.

Mrs. Belle Schindler from Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hatch from Cottage Grove visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sams.

Bill Thompson has returned to Rogue River after an absence of a year or so and expects to remain. Mrs. Thompson will arrive later.

Sandy Bakely is receiving a visit from his brother, whom he had not seen for more than 20 years.

Mrs. Dean Saltmarsh spent the past week with her husband who is camped at Brick Pile Cabin.

over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sams. Mrs. Mooney returned to her home in Miss Saturday evening. She was accompanied by her son, who will visit in the east this summer.

SARDINE CREEK

Miss Ethel Bryan of Ashland completed her second successful year of school at Alderbrook last Friday. The day was joyously spent in a picnic dinner, after which ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kinball left Monday for a week or two visit with relatives at Dallas, Ore. They were accompanied from here by Miss Annie Miller who goes to visit relatives and also to look for a new location.

Mrs. Rose Eriggs and family have moved into the house formerly occupied by R. V. Dusenberry. In order to be closer to their work at the Del Rio orchard, where they are engaged in thinning fruit.

At Kessler was visited at his bachelor farm here last Sunday by some old friends from Klamath Falls by the name of Collins. While here they visited the poultry farms of Grant Powell, E. C. Flene and P. L. Waite.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hatch of Cottage Grove, and Mrs. Belle Schindler of Roseburg, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Lulu Dusenberry last Friday, on their return from Ashland where they had been attending the I. O. O. F. convention and visiting friends also.

It is reported that the mining men, who have taken over the Sleepy Hollow ranch at the mouth of the creek are doing some extensive prospecting on their property and hope to soon be installing the machinery necessary for taking out gold.

A Longwell has moved his family from the Lucky Bart mine to Rogue River, where he has been employed for some time in the new sawmill that is being erected there.

George Smith has just recovered from a siege of the mumps, and returned to his work, and now there are two new cases reported. Mrs. Nina Dusenberry and her daughter Mildred are the latest victims.

George Ring was a Jacksonville visitor one day last week, where he received a bounty on a coyote he had killed.

Maude and Robert Starns of Grants Pass, visited their grandmother, Mrs. Kimball, last week, returning home Friday to attend the graduating exercises of the high school class of 84 members, of which Robert was one.

Henry Baker of Evans Valley was in this vicinity Sunday looking up some of his horses on the range.

Mr. and Mrs. Doll Moore of Gold Hill, were visitors on the creek Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Waite are marketing some fine Rhode Island fliers now, having made one shipment to San Francisco, this week.

ANTELOPE ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton spent Sunday at Prospect. Orchardists have finished spraying and are busy thinning.

Several from here attended the high school play at Eagle Point. Mr. and Mrs. Marshal spent Sunday at C. B. Allen's.

The Eagle Point ditch broke out again. We hope this is the last time, as water is needed.

Mr. L. Berger of Phoenix, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Evanson and family of Medford and Mrs. A. Cornell, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry von der Hellen.

Lucien Wilcox just returned from a week's stay in San Jose, Cal., where he was called by the death of a brother.

Mrs. F. R. Berger and little daughter of Riverside, Cal., are spending a few weeks with Mrs. Harry von der Hellen.

Miss Edna Rose Walsh died in Medford Thursday, after a brief illness of pneumonia. Interment was in Medford. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Draper Walsh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rader of Phoenix, had dinner with the Harry von der Hellen's last Thursday, after which they all took in the high school play at Eagle Point.

LITTLE APPLGATE

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson and family have moved to Medford, Paul is driving one of Snider's trucks.

We are sorry to hear of Little Frances Combest's death. Mr. Farley was a week end visitor at the Kienhammer's.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Dunford and Wald Zeidler were callers up the creek one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cantrell were out on the creek Sunday. Mrs. Cora Crump and little grand-daughter spent a few days in Klamath Falls last week, visiting relatives.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS OF ASHLAND HAVE 75 GRADUATING

ASHLAND, May 28.—Ashland high school won the state debating championship Tuesday evening at Eugene. Marian Leach and Bernard Joy represented Ashland high.

Miss Imogene Wallace will present a group of her pupils in piano recital at 7:45 p. m., Friday evening in the parlors of the Presbyterian church.

Since formal work ended, the scholars have been having a round of gaiety, parties, receptions, picnics and hikes have taken all waking hours, up to this eventful evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crowson and daughter, Clarice go on Saturday to McCloud on an outing. They expect to bring back a fine string of fish.

Miss Abbie Andrews arrived this week from New Mexico, where she has been teaching in high school the past two years.

Capt. Frank Moore, military instructor at Berkeley, arrived in Ashland Wednesday and with his wife, who has been here for some time, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Anna McCarthy of North Main.

Seventy-five grammar school graduates from the eighth grade of the Ashland schools, will receive their diplomas tomorrow at the Jackson county school day.

One of the pleasant events of the past few days was a surprise picnic given by the O. A. E. club at the home of Mrs. Ralph Billings honoring Miss Annette Weatherford, at which about 25 members of the club with a number of teachers from junior and senior high were present.

The covered dish supper, with its array of good things, proved most satisfying, and everyone was in the mood to sit around the bonfire, telling stories and singing songs until the acting president, Miss Beryl Jarmon called the business session, and under the head of new business, Miss Weatherford, who has been the efficient secretary for the past two years, was presented with a beautiful piece of cut glass, in behalf of her friends, thus bringing to a close the most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Susanne Homes-Carter spent part of today in Ashland, perfecting arrangements for the Jackson county school day, held tomorrow in Lithia park. Those concerned are hoping for sunshine and clear skies.

Mrs. J. C. Poor and Mrs. B. S. Storm are hostesses at the card party given by the ladies of the Elks' Card Club, at their club room at the Elks' Temple, today at 2:30.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sayles expect to leave Saturday for a month's vacation, spending it at Huntington Beach, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Sayles' sister, Mrs. G. F. King and her mother, Mrs. R. K. Sutton, who is spending some time in California. During their absence, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Forsythe will take charge of the store.

Jackson county cherries may now be shipped to California points, so it is stated by officials of the Fruit and Produce association. Last year the ban was placed on Oregon cherries because certain districts had become infected with the maggot fly worm.

Although, none had been found never south than Douglas county the ban became operative in the state last year, but through an arrangement with the California department, growers may now ship their cherries after an inspection by competent officials.

Mrs. Catherine Haverkamp died Tuesday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. B. McNair, of Scenic Drive. Mrs. Haverkamp has been ill for some time, spending a number of months in Tucson, in hopes of benefiting her health.

Mrs. Haverkamp came to her sister's, where she remained until her death, Tuesday. Interment will be at the old home, Kansas City Mo. Mrs. McNair will accompany the remains and expects to stay for a few weeks. During the past few years, Mrs. Haverkamp has made many visits to Ashland, and made many friends that regret her going and who sympathize deeply with the family in their sorrow.

A mother, Mrs. Julia Greenleaf of Kansas City, Mo., three sisters, Mrs. Sam McNair, Ashland, Mrs. Raymond Davis, Kansas City, Mrs. Herbert Corder, Alma, Mo., and one brother, Robert Greenleaf, Kansas City, survive. Her husband, Louis Haverkamp, died in September, 1918, three months after their marriage.

The only danger in diphtheria anti-toxin is in giving too little too late.

MOVING TIME IN TALENT DISTRICT, NUPTIALS HONORED

Last Wednesday, May 20, Mr. Glen O. Pruett of Medford, and Miss Viola Hughes of Butte Falls were married at Yreka, California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pruett accompanied the young couple to the California town for the ceremony, after which the party returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pruett of East Eden, where a wedding dinner was served at 6 p. m.

Those present to wish the young couple well, were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lester and daughter, of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pruett of Butte Falls, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Pruett, Miss Elva Caster, Marcerate Pruett, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pruett and the newlyweds. After dinner the young couple journeyed to Butte Falls, where they will make their home. A host of friends awaited them and gave them an old fashioned serenade. The well wishes of their many acquaintances go with them.

Last Sunday was moving day in North Talent. Three families participated in the moving stunt. Mr. and Mrs. R. N. French moved into Phoenix into the Frank house. Mr. and Mrs. Kessland moved from the White Wing poultry farm to the West house, in North Talent. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hurd, Mrs. French's niece and husband, moved into Talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Fish of West Phoenix will leave for Oakland, Calif., Saturday morning. Miss Agness Colver will accompany them to the southern city where she will visit an aunt for a month or more.

Mr. L. A. Reams, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Franklin and Mr. and Mrs. Will High were callers at the Carey Plant farm Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Strang and daughter, Miss Helen, of Medford, were pleasant callers at the home of Mrs. Judge Barnes in Phoenix last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. S. P. Hunter of Fern Valley left last Friday for Chicago, Ill. to visit with a sister, Miss Emma Ross, whom she has not seen for twenty-five years. Mrs. Hunter will stop off at Woodland, California, on a business and pleasure stop. From her sister's in Chicago, she will go to Nashville, and on to Marshall, where she has brothers, with whom she will visit. Then Mrs. Hunter will return by the northern route.

Mrs. J. P. Turpin, Neé Wynn aCater, a former North Talent resident, went to Ashland last Wednesday afternoon to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, who have a rooming house in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Turpin have lately moved into Phoenix.

Miss Elva Caster has returned home after spending three weeks with her cousin, Mrs. E. J. Lester of North Medford.

Mrs. Kenan of Phoenix has bought her a new Star car. Mrs. Kenan is just about the busiest lady in the town of Phoenix. Her restaurant and bakery keeps her on the jump all the time.

Thinning has commenced in Eden valley, and there is a fair sized crew on the Hartzell or Three Oaks ranch. The apples are not ready just yet, but the pears are getting good sized.

We are informed that Mr. Carl Fromm who formerly lived in Talent but is now in Ashland, had the misfortune to break his arm when he fell from a low scaffold where he was working, one day last week. This will lay him up from work the greater part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fears of Ashland were down to Talent and all along the foothill country last Sunday, looking at the crops and trying to decide upon a location they have in mind. Mr. Fears has a fine little fruit and garden tract in the suburbs of Ashland.

Mrs. M. Rose came out to the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. S. Furry last Sunday to visit for a while, after spending a month or more in Medford with her daughter, Mrs. C. Cate.

Aubrey Furry writes home to Phoenix from the eastern part of Canada where he is touring with the Ellison and White Chautauqua company, which are to spend the summer in the north.

Never in years have the roses been more perfect than they are this spring. Untouched by frost, every bud is perfect. Decoration day will be one of plenty of the beautiful roses.

Earl Withrow and his mother and sister Veria were Medford business callers from Talent last Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Fears of Ashland were down to Talent and all along the foothill country last Sunday, looking at the crops and trying to decide upon a location they have in mind. Mr. Fears has a fine little fruit and garden tract in the suburbs of Ashland.

Mrs. M. Rose came out to the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. S. Furry last Sunday to visit for a while, after spending a month or more in Medford with her daughter, Mrs. C. Cate.

Aubrey Furry writes home to Phoenix from the eastern part of Canada where he is touring with the Ellison and White Chautauqua company, which are to spend the summer in the north.

Never in years have the roses been more perfect than they are this spring. Untouched by frost, every bud is perfect. Decoration day will be one of plenty of the beautiful roses.

Earl Withrow and his mother and sister Veria were Medford business callers from Talent last Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Fears of Ashland were down to Talent and all along the foothill country last Sunday, looking at the crops and trying to decide upon a location they have in mind. Mr. Fears has a fine little fruit and garden tract in the suburbs of Ashland.

Mrs. M. Rose came out to the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. S. Furry last Sunday to visit for a while, after spending a month or more in Medford with her daughter, Mrs. C. Cate.

Aubrey Furry writes home to Phoenix from the eastern part of Canada where he is touring with the Ellison and White Chautauqua company, which are to spend the summer in the north.

THURSDAY CLUB OF WILLOW SPRINGS IN TALKING TESTS

WILLOW SPRINGS, May 28.—The last Thursday club meeting until fall will be held June 4 at the home of Mrs. W. K. Parker. This will be a social meeting with prizes offered for the lady who talks the most, hostess barred from competing, and for the lady who talks the least. The vice-president, secretary and treasurer will act as judges.

Early in the month Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elden and Mrs. Julius Harsholtz spent a week in Portland as guests of Mrs. Lella Elden. On their return they were accompanied by Mrs. Elden's mother, Mrs. King. Last Thursday Mrs. King returned to Portland with Miss Rose Jones, who will spend ten days or two weeks visiting there.

Mrs. Sam Anderson, who underwent a major operation some time ago, is again at home. She is gaining slowly and has been able to ride out several times.

Mrs. Helen Brophy and Miss Leah Parker are visiting at home since the closing of their schools in Klamath county.

C. F. Smith has been confined to his bed for a week with a severe cold.

The Willow Springs school closed last Friday with a very delightful school picnic. Miss Parsons, lower grade teacher, has returned to her home in Ashland.

Lloyd Anderson and James Harris are members of the graduating class of the Central Point high school. Graduation exercises will be held on Friday evening, May 29.

The Hugh Porter family are camping on the river near the Von der Hellen road camp. Mr. Porter is employed there, operating the electric hoist.

On the last day of school, May 22, the Brownsboro school children had a last day picnic. There were quite a few parents present and all reported a good time.

Mrs. E. H. Tucker, Miss Fredricka Sussong, Mrs. S. L. Hoogland, Miss Ellen Tucker and Raymond Hoogland made a business strip to Medford Friday evening.

Miss J. F. Maxfield and Miss Thomas

Dallas were visitors at the J. Heckner home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tucker, Ellen Tucker and Stella Adams made a business trip to Medford Saturday.

Mr. J. O. Harty and Mr. Gibson made a business trip to Medford Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Burr and her mother were present at the picnic Friday.

Robert Cowden was a guest at the home of George Hoogland over the week end.

The lesson for Sunday, May 29, 1925, was "Saul Becomes His Great Countryman" Acts 9:20-31. Read also Joshua 1:1-9.

Golden text "I determined not to know any thing about you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified." The lesson for May 31, will be: Peter at Lydda and Joppa. Acts 9:32-43. Read Isaiah 55:1-7. Golden text, "And they went forth and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word with signs following."—Mark 16:20.

Oregon Weather. Fair in east; probably local rains in west portions tonight and Saturday. Moderate temperature, moderate winds, mostly southerly.

Advertisement for Coffee News, Schilling is the only coffee roaster who produces only one quality and sells it in vacuum tins only. Anyone can produce cheap coffees, but Schilling produces the best coffee exclusively—because it's best for the home.

If YOU don't think it's the best coffee, your money back instantly at my store. The same guarantee on Schilling Tea, Baking Powder, Spices and Extracts.

Advertisement for Sons of Italy Inn, Italian Dinner Served at All Hours. Announce a Merchants' Italian Spaghetti Dinner 40c. Evening 7-Course Dinner, 70c. Sunday—Spring Chicken, Spaghetti or Ravilona 7-Course Dinner, $1.00. We cater to private parties. Private dining rooms for all occasions. Tasty Italian Dishes of All Kinds. Corner Ivy and Sixth Streets. In Connection With Medford Ice Cream Gardens.

NEW LIFE For TIRED APPETITES

Is your appetite hard to please these days? Does it seem listless and tired?

If so, it's not hard to find the reason. You more than likely are not offering it the proper summer foods. It depends largely on your diet whether or not you can keep going at top speed during the warmer weather.

That's why SHREDDED WHEAT has a regular place these days on the menus of thousands of people. SHREDDED WHEAT is light but full of nourishment—a perfectly balanced food easily digested. It appeals to summer appetites.

Try two SHREDDED WHEAT Biscuits topped with strawberries. It's a happy combination—a breakfast or mid-day dish which cannot be imitated.

PACIFIC COAST SHREDDED WHEAT CO. Oakland, Calif.

Advertisement for Strawberries and Shredded Wheat. A full meal in two biscuits. The only danger in diphtheria anti-toxin is in giving too little too late.

Advertisement for Horlick's Malted Milk. Safe Milk and Diet For Infants, Invalids, The Aged. Food-Drink for All. Rich milk, combined with extract of choice grains, reduced to powder. Very nourishing, yet so easily digested that it is used, with benefit, by ALL AGES, ailing or well. An upbuilding diet for infants, invalids, nursing mothers. Convenient, Light Nourishment, when faint or hungry. Taken hot, upon retiring, it induces sound, refreshing sleep. Instantly prepared at home—no cooking.