SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—(A. P.)—Managers of Jack Renault and George Godfrey announced today that they would declare the winner of the contest of those heavyweights next Saturday afternoon the champion of the world. Jack Dempsey, they held, had forfeited title to that remunerative position by reason of long absence from the ring.

Odds of 10 to 9 are being offered on Renault, the former mounted policeman from Canada having twice defeated his dark skinned opponents. Boxing knockouts the men will match each other for ten rounds.

Unless we ignore the dangers of polluted water and disease-carrying insects, a summer's outing in the open is God's greatest blessing.
