PUREBRED JERSEY CATTLE IMPORTED TO EDEN VALLEY

By Mary G. Carey.

The Phoenix school won the memory contest in music again this year. Those who have been practicing hard for the two weeks since school closed and who represented the school were Mildred Hildebrand, Jose Hartley, Rebecca June Rose, Ethel Heagler, Harold Fish and Gladys Poms. Much credit is due Mrs. Fletcher Fish who has taken much time and pains with the team since the close of the regular school work has closed.

Mrs. Bowman, mother of Mrs. Turnbow of Talent, is very ill with heart trouble and infirmities of old age. Mrs. Bowman has been an invalid for the past several years and has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Turnbow.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Lowry of Medford were pleasant callers at the Carey plant farm last Sunday evening. Mr. Lowry is foreman for the last ten or twelve years at the Bear Creek orchards.

Mrs. Mae Wright and Mrs. G. C. McClain of Phoenix were Medford visitors on Wednesday. Mrs. McClain attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Martha Talent. Interment took place at Ashland.

Little Florence Dopp has been quite sick the past week. The trouble is thought to be from teething. She is under the doctor's care however.

Thinning had to be delayed on account of the heavy rains, and the thinning crews have been rather restless during the recess.

Gus Beck of Talent has bought the crops off of what was formerly known as the Oden place.

J. E. Fish and wife of Phoenix made a trip into the Willamette valley the latter part of last week, where they purchased four head of purebred Jersey cattle, two fine heifers and a prize winning male. This will in all likelihood be the foundation of a purebred herd in this part of the valley. The purchase is as follows: Two fine heifers from D. C. Howard at Beaverton, also the herd sire, Captain Tristram's St. Maxwells, one of the best animals of the breed both for show quality and production. He is three years old and has won two first and one second at the Pacific International. The fourth one of the purchase was a purebred cow from J. C. Brown at Shedd, Oregon.

The little town of Talent today feels the loss of another one of her early pioneers. In the death of Mrs. Martha Jane Talent we mourn the passing of one who was very dear to the hearts of many of Talent's old settlers. Mr. and Mrs. Talent were the founders of the town of Talent. They kept the first postoffice this side of Ashland, long before Medford came into existence. They took the mail from the old stage coach. They also built the first store. In Talent as in Medford they both were the staunchest of Christian workers. Their home was always open to strangers. Mr. Talent built a number of business houses in Talent as well as a number of fine homes, which he sold at different times. Beloved and trusted by all, they will forever remain in our memories. Few persons enjoyed the true Christian reverence that both Mr. and Mrs. Talent always enjoyed among their fellowmen. This Christian spirit was the consolation of both these worthy Christians in their last moments. Interment in the family plot at Ashland.

We are pleased to be able to announce that Mrs. Ella Patterson, who has been confined in the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford for the past five months, has been brought home. Mrs. Patterson is gaining in strength and is on the road to recovery. She has her nurse with her in her own home.

Advance Statement to Automotive Trade About Wasson Motor Check Tests to Be Held in Medford

THE much-discussed Wasson Motor Check is coming to conduct for local car owners the free Havoline oil-power tests which have made it a sensation everywhere it has gone.

The Motor Check works like X-ray on motor, transmission, rear end and brakes. It even measures the performance of gasoline and oil.

You've heard "Oil is more than oil—it is power." The Motor Check revealed it. Trade papers discussed it. Newspapers broadcasted it. Car owners acclaimed it.

Automobile manufacturers heeded it and revised their lubrication procedure.

This announcement reveals just one side of the interest the Motor Check holds for automotive dealers. In a year, it has taught dealers and owners alike that oil means more than lubrication. It has shown the vital relation that oil has to power.

Havoline has shown that power goes up, 10 to 50 per cent., simply by changing from wrong oil to right oil. The Motor Check is here to prove it in any man's car.

Come and see the machine. Special trade showing starts one week in advance of opening to public. Bring a car. Get a free test.

If you spent 60 days straight at the kitchen stove

—you'd see why it is that nearly eighteen hundred homes within reach of the Copco lines are now using electric ranges.

Two hours a day, every day in the year, is probably a low estimate of a housewife's time in the kitchen. Sixty full days, in all—and they're worth making easier!

Electrical cooking is easier, and cleaner. It puts an end to dirt and ashes. It means less sweeping of floors, less cleaning of walls, cleaner utensils.

Electrical cooking is tastier. Uniform, controllable heat saves the flavor of dainty foods.

Electrical cooking is economical—surprisingly so. The average cost of electricity for cooking is only about twice the cost of the electric lighting current in the same home. (Actual average figures for your own neighborhood will be shown you upon request.)

Don't pass the next display of electric ranges without just dropping in and asking your dealer more about them—and about the convenient payment terms he is offering.
