Mickey, the imported Chinese dill-pickle hound of Miss Ada Brewster, the home demonstration agent, while being given his evening drive around the city last evening, fell off the running board of Miss Brewster's car and suffered a broken hip in two places. The injured pup was immediately given first aid and then rushed to a local dog hospital, where he lies today in a plaster cast with about even chances of recovery. Witnesses of the accident say it was hard to tell which carried on the worst, Mickey, who was a very likely pup showing traces of intelligence at times, or his owner.
