

BOND ISSUE FOR SITE OF ASHLAND NORMAL FAVORED

ASHLAND, June 9.—"Make It Unanimous" was the slogan adopted by those present at the Chamber of Commerce forum-luncheon today, when the Normal situation was discussed by Irving E. Vining, as principal speaker, with short-to-the-point talks by Mayor Johnson, Councilmen W. M. Wright and Hardy, W. M. Briggs and a number of others. The history of the normal and the site purchase proposal was thoroughly covered by the speeches made. In interviews the business men expressed themselves unreservedly in favor of the bonds for the site. Mayor Johnson, a number of the councilmen, and many business men, including G. G. Eulank, F. S. Eagle, S. A. Peters Jr., V. O. N. Smith, J. H. McGee, Dr. F. G. Swedenburg, J. C. Cameron, A. M. Beaver, Louis Dodge, J. P. Hodge, V. P. Mills, H. C. Galey, W. M. Wright, T. H. Simpson, S. H. Harrison, C. H. Pierce, G. F. Billings, Homer Billings, C. W. Banta, W. M. Briggs, F. H. Walker and a number of others stated emphatically their approval of the bond issue and the site. The consensus of opinion seems to be that no voter should fail to register his approval at the coming election.

Mrs. Humphrey of B street is leaving shortly for an extended visit to Oakland, California, to visit a daughter who lives there. Mrs. Humphrey is anticipating the trip with much pleasure.

Mrs. Elizabeth Will-Goodman leaves soon for McCloud for her summer's outing. Mrs. Goodman has recently purchased a new Star and will drive.

A few new cases of whooping cough are reported. One of the latest victims is little Janie Smith of Church street.

Mrs. Violet Long-Walke, who has been a patient at the Community hospital for some weeks, has recovered sufficiently to be taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Long. She yet remains so ill that a nurse's attendance is required.

Mrs. Morse, daughter of Mrs. Annie Grubb, is expected to arrive shortly from her home in Sweden, for a visit of a few weeks at the parental home.

From letters received from Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg, who left Ashland recently to join her daughters who are in school in Sweden, and who, with them, will tour continental Europe, it is learned that she has arrived safely and the three will start shortly upon their delightful itinerary. The Misses Genevieve and Eleanor plan to remain next year also in school in Sweden. Both are enjoying their work, particularly the studies in language.

Miss Florence Allen, who has been one of the corps of teachers in the Visalia, California schools, with special work, has returned to her home for her vacation. She enjoyed her work, her music, and her surroundings the past year very much.

Mrs. William Wallace is quite ill at her home. She is the recipient of a wealth of lovely blossoms from her friends, who are much concerned about her.

L. N. Woodside, who is employed in Klamath Falls, spent Sunday with his family in Ashland.

Mrs. P. K. Hammond is in Portland this week and Mrs. E. A. Woods and Mrs. John H. Fuller are attending the State Music Federation meeting held at this time. Mrs. Fuller, president of the Ashland Music Study club and Mrs. Woods represent the club at this meeting. Mr. Fuller accompanied Mrs. Fuller to the city.

Mount Ashland Chapter D. A. H. will observe Flax Day with appropriate program, and a picnic in the Lithia park. It is hoped that members will let nothing interfere to prevent their being present to enjoy this last meeting of the year; none other occurring until fall.

Carl Anderson, who has been ill for the past three years, and quite helpless, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy Hale of Klamath Falls, Saturday. Mr. Anderson was 87 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Hale brought the deceased to Ashland, from which place Mrs. Hale accompanied the body to Independence, Iowa, where interment will be made. The family formerly lived in Ashland and their many friends sympathize with them in their bereavement.

A committee, whose members are W. M. Briggs, V. V. Mills and R. E. Detrick, was appointed to plan for the entertainment of the members of the O. N. G. of the coast artillery unit on the way to Ford Barry for their summer encampment who are expected to be here Sunday over the lunch hour. The National Guardsmen will be at the Armory during that time and coffee and sandwiches will be served.

Dr. Stearns with his family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stearns at their new home on Oak street, Sunday.

It is announced that the feature of the float planned for the Ashland lodge No. 244 B. P. O. S. at the Elks' convention in Portland July 13-18 will be "Ashland, the Gateway City." Plans for greetings, and for entertaining the visiting Elks on their way toward Portland were discussed. Signs and banners figured in these plans. Loyeland's Gregorians, an eight-piece orchestra, may accompany the local lodge to Portland.

Miss Blanche Hicks has been indisposed for a few days, but is much improved this (Tuesday) evening.

College Janitors Must Have College Degree

GREELEY, Colo., June 10.—(A. P.)—In order to qualify as a janitor the prospective caretaker should have a college education, the Colorado State Teachers college authorities believe.

The teachers' college yesterday announced that it had opened a course in janitor engineering in which the six janitors of the college building are to be instructed in the intricacies of sweeping floors, washing windows and attending to furnaces.

"The Thundering Herd" Tonight

Jack Holt and Lois Wilson in Zane Grey's "The Thundering Herd" A Paramount Picture

Medford is to witness what is described as the titanic production of Zane Grey's novel, "The Thundering Herd," which opens at Hunt's Craterian today. It is a most worthy successor to "The Covered Wagon."

Produced on the same spectacular and gigantic scale, it deals with another picturesque and important period in American history. It recreates the west as it was in the days of the open range—a vast wilderness peopled largely by great herds of buffalo and fierce, nomadic Indians.

Against this picturesque and scenically beautiful background is reproduced one of the most stirring and significant chapters in "The Winning of the West." Many exciting adventures fall to the lot of those hardy, red-blooded pioneers, and the picture faithfully depicts their hardships, dangers and privations.

The cast includes some of filmdom's most popular favorites—Jack Holt, Lois Wilson, Noah Beery and Raymond Hatton.

An Aesop Fable, Pathe News and "Betty" Brown at the giant Wurlitzer playing a splendid musical accompaniment, also "Gypsy Love," a special request number for her solo, are other attractions on the bill.

CHANGE LABEL ON LANGLEY AIRPLANE TO SUIT WRIGHT

WASHINGTON, June 10.—(A. P.)—Dr. Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian institution has under advisement a suggestion for revising the label on the Langley airplane exhibit at the national museum to settle a dispute over its correctness between the secretary and Orville Wright.

The proposal was submitted by Dr. Joseph S. Ames, physics professor at Johns Hopkins and Rear Admiral David W. Taylor, retired, who with Dr. Walcott are members of the national advisory committee for aeronautics. They suggested rewriting the Langley label to read:

"The original Langley flying machine of 1903, restored. In the opinion of many competent judges, this machine was the first heavier-than-air craft in the history of the world capable of sustained free flight under its own power, carrying a man."

"This machine slightly antedated the Wright machine designed and built by Wilbur and Orville Wright, which on December 17, 1903, was the first in the history of the world to make a sustained free flight under its own power, carrying a man."

The card now displayed with the Langley machine says in part: "The first man carrying airplane in the history of the world capable of sustained free flight."

Dr. Walcott in a statement declared there was no question that the Wright brothers were the first to accomplish sustained free flight of a man with their heavier-than-air machine, but that the only question has been whether the original Langley plane was capable of the same performance.

Mr. Wright at Dayton, Ohio, last night declined to indicate whether he would change his agreement to send his original plane to a London museum if the Langley label is changed to meet his objections to it.

EX-AMBASSADOR GERARD AGREES TO BE WITNESS

NEW YORK, June 10.—(A. P.)—James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, was cleared today of the charge of contempt of the supreme court of New York, based on his failure to appear for examination tomorrow. Justice Tierney announced he then would deny the motion that the former ambassador be held in contempt for failing to appear on the first summons and there was spread upon the court record the declaration that he had never in any sense been contemptuous of the court or its processes.

The former ambassador was summoned as treasurer of the national democratic committee in the suit brought by Van Patten, Inc., an advertising agency, growing out of expenditures in the campaign of 1924 for publicity. Chairman Clem L. Shaver filed a suit early in the year seeking an accounting of $50,000, advanced for publicity. The agency immediately filed a counter suit alleging $84,990 to be still due it from the committee and obtained orders requiring the appearance of the committee officials for examination.

CALIFORNIA ACTOR, TURNED BANDIT, IS SHOT BY OFFICER

CHICAGO, June 10.—(A. P.)—Clayton Kirby, 22, an actor of San Pedro, Calif., was shot and probably fatally wounded yesterday as he is alleged to have held up a cleaning company's office on the west side.

The police then began a search for Kirby's dancing partner, Evelyn De Gage of Los Angeles, on suspicion that she may be able to tell of Kirby's recent activities.

Policeman William T. Tansberry was passing the Diamond Cleaning company and saw Kirby meeting Jacob Shirek with a revolver. The policeman rushed in and when Kirby turned toward him the patrolman fired.

The police said Miss DeGage was outside while Kirby was holding up the place but that she escaped.

JUDGE SPEAKING TO GRADUATES IS HARD ON FLAPPERS

ATLANTA, Ga., June 10.—(A. P.)—Speaking to members of the graduating class of Emory university on "modern freedom" today, Judge Samuel H. Sibley, United States district court, declared that "romance, faith, worshipful admiration is giving place to cynicism."

"A girl, it is said, is no longer to be protected," he said. "She knows as much and is as well able to take care of herself as anybody. She is not treated with real courtesy and respect, for little is left for her. The hat when raised to her is a mockery—she is as bad as he who wears it."

"Her short skirts," Judge Sibley said, "have the sanction both of timidity and freedom, but nude stockings and bare knees look like plain vulgarity. A clownish coat of paint and powder over the face does her no credit."

PRESIDENT BACK AT DESK GREATLY PLEASED BY TRIP

WASHINGTON, June 10.—(A. P.)—President Coolidge returned to Washington today from Minnesota, where he attended the Norse-American celebration.

The presidential train arrived at Union station here on time after having encountered comfortable weather throughout the night. Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge and other members of the party had breakfast in the dining car just before the train reached Washington.

President Coolidge appeared in fine spirits. He was plainly pleased with the trip as a whole. Last night motion pictures of events at the Minnesota state fair grounds when he was cheered by a great throng, were shown aboard the train.

Returning to the White House, Mr. Coolidge went immediately to his office to resume the official duties he laid aside on leaving.

ORPHEUM VAUDEVILLE BILL SCORES AGAIN

The Orpheum Jr. vaudeville bill at Hunt's Craterian last night was another good bill, with the Kentucky Ramblers, a jazz band, making the biggest hit with the audience. The entire company took part in the act and the dancing population present could hardly restrain themselves.

Another excellent number was the Three Saltos, acrobats, who tumbled and balanced lucratively. It was the best acrobatic number in weeks.

Bob and Peggy Valentine presented "On a Moonlight Night," and dull minutes were also scarce in this offering.

Helen Staplen, "The Prima Donna Petite," sang, and Harry Garland, owner of a freak dog, completed the bill.

At the second show the Rotarians and wives attended in a body.

The United States has more than 15,000 motion picture theatres.

Renting a Home?
First of all, look to its Electrical Convenience

One thing affecting the comfort of any home you rent is the completeness of the electrical installation. Nowadays, no house is a home without convenient connections for electrical appliances, without correct lighting and without standard wiring devices.

In renting a house make sure of its electrical installation by asking if the wiring was done by a "Check" Seal contractor. The "Check" Seal identifies qualified electrical contractors who employ good workmanship and install standard wiring devices. Also when you need electrical appliances remember that the "Check" Seal identifies electrical retailers who sell quality electrical merchandise.
