Miles
—Not Gallons
—the Measure of a Good Gasoline

You can save on gasoline at the beginning by disregarding quality. But in the end, you'll pay through your motor.

So if you really want to be economical, you will buy your gasoline by the mile rather than by the "price per gallon."

That means you will buy Union Gasoline. Its price is the same as that of any good gasoline. Its economy will be told by your motor.

Union Gasoline is non-detonating. Its power-impulses are not sledge-hammer like. Its explosion progresses—with resulting power that is smooth.

With Union, your motor starts quickly—accelerates with a swift, vibrationless pick-up—and easily attains an even, gliding speed.

The makers of Union Gasoline are capable of only a quality product. It is sold through Union Oil service stations and by dealers of the first class everywhere.

3 TRUCK DRIVERS FINED FOR NOT OBEYING THE LAW

In Justice of the Peace Rowe's court at Jacksonville today, W. E. Chastrow pleaded guilty to the charge of overloading his truck. C. E. Nichols pleaded guilty to the same charge, and both were fined $25 and $10, respectively. In addition to being charged with overloading his truck, H. B. Stephenson was also charged with operating it without a chauffeur's license. He pleaded guilty to both charges and was fined $10 on the first and $25 on the second.

In Judge Taylor's court yesterday, Frank Grosskopf was fined $10 for operating a truck without a mirror, as is prescribed by the state law. All the above complaints were signed by Traffic Officer J. J. McMahon. Mr. McMahon states that at all times in the future especial attention will be paid by traffic officers to the overloading and speeding of such vehicles on all state highways and roads; especial efforts will be made to bring the speed and loads of these vehicles within the limits of the state law.

COST OF LIVING
SHOWS INCREASE IN MANY LINES

SALEM, Ore., June 11.—Material increases in the cost of living in the past 12 months are shown in the comparison of prices which the state will have to pay for its supplies at this time, against the prices paid a year ago. The most radical increase is noted in the price of bacon, which shows a gain of more than 100 per cent from $15 per 100 pounds a year ago to $29.90 on the present bids. Hard wheat flour, which was purchased by the state last year at $5.24 per barrel, is now quoted at $7.40 per barrel, although this last figure represents a slight decrease in the price over the six months period from $7.80 paid last December. Soft wheat flour has jumped from $4.45 a barrel last year to $5.85 at this time. Ham, which was quoted at $22.25 per 100 pounds a year ago, is now up to $27.20. Compound lard has increased from $10 to $12.80 and pure lard from $10.50 to $17.80. Coffee, which was quoted at 22 1/2 cents last year, is now up to 31 1/2 cents. Reduced prices are noted only in a few instances, notably in the price of sugar, which has slumped from $7.05 per 100 pounds a year ago to $6.15 at this time. Fresh beef is also a little cheaper at $7.20 per 100 pounds as compared to $7.80 a year ago.

If you spent 60 days straight at the kitchen stove

—you'd see why it is that nearly eighteen hundred homes within reach of the Copco lines are now using electric ranges.

Two hours a day, every day in the year, is probably a low estimate of a housewife's time in the kitchen. Sixty full days, in all—and they're worth making easier!

Electrical cooking is easier, and cleaner. It puts an end to dirt and ashes. It means less sweeping of floors, less cleaning of walls, cleaner utensils.

Electrical cooking is tastier. Uniform, controllable heat saves the flavor of dainty foods.

Electrical cooking is economical—surprisingly so. The average cost of electricity for cooking is only about twice the cost of the electric lighting current in the same home. (Actual average figures for your own neighborhood will be shown you upon request.)

Don't pass the next display of electric ranges without just dropping in and asking your dealer more about them—and about the convenient payment terms he is offering.
