NEW HOURS AT CITY TREASURER'S OFFICE

Commencing next Monday, the city treasurer's office will not be open until 9 a. m., and will close at 4:00 p. m., making the business hours of that office two hours shorter than before.

This is being done, City Treasurer Herbert Berrian states, to take care of the increased business of the office, and to care for it more efficiently. These two extra hours will tend to aid much in taking care of this business, and will naturally do away with much of the night work that has been done after the regular hours.

He requests the citizens of Medford to remember these new business hours which go into effect Monday, thus saving them much inconvenience by coming within the time the office is open for business.

GRAND BALL FOR VISITING SOLDIERS

The elaborate entertainment program which has been prepared for the visiting guardsmen will be appropriately ushered in tomorrow night, when a grand ball is to be staged in their honor at the Fair Grounds Pavilion. The pavilion management is striving diligently to perfect all details of this initial event. Splendid dance music will be provided by the new pavilion orchestra of eight pieces. The spacious floor has been put in excellent condition and no pains will be spared to assure the visitors a good time. Many out-of-town dancers will be on hand to cooperate with the local public in welcoming the soldier guests and all indications point to a splendid affair from beginning to end. The pavilion management has announced that all National Guardsmen will be admitted free.

ELKS FLAG DAY TO BE OBSERVED HERE

The Medford lodge of Elks will hold its annual observance of Flag Day next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the city park, to which the general public and all soldiers from Camp Jackson off duty are invited to attend. The address will be delivered by Brigadier-General George A. White, commander of the Oregon National Guard, and the rest of the program will consist of musical features and observance of the special Elks' ritual on such occasions. The D. O. K. K. band will render several selections.

COPCO TEAM WILL PLAY NAT'L GUARD

Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock Copco will meet the 'strong' Vland-quarters company baseball team at the Holly street grounds. Through an oversight on the part of those arranging the game, it was not included in the encampment program just out. The "vult-makers" have been practicing diligently every evening in an effort to make a better showing than that displayed last week against Company A. Bourne and Onn will be the battery for Copco.

This is the first game in quite a few years that a Medford team has met a Portland team, and a good attendance is looked for. The soldiers will be out there en masse to root for their buddies.

COURT HALL IS AGENT FOR PAXTEN FRUIT CO.

Court Hall, the well-known fruit man of Medford, is now manager for the Rogue river valley district of the Paxton Rivers Fruit company of New York City, with his headquarters in Medford. This district comprises the territory between Roseburg and Ashland.

The company has been established in Oregon for the past three years, during which time it enjoyed a fast expanding business. Manager Hall said today the company expects to buy in this territory a considerable amount of late pears and apples.

Bring Suits to Quiet Title On City Property

The city attorney's office has commenced lawsuits to quiet the titles of property, which has been taken over by the city because of delinquent assessments.

These suits, which total 300 in number, are directed, on the greater part, against the former owners who are now non-residents of the city, with but a few Medford citizens included.

"Thundering Herd" Filling Craterian; Smashing Success

Trampling a path in motion picture history, "The Thundering Herd" has succeeded in filling the staff of the Hunt's Craterian working at its greatest efficiency from the time of its opening, a continuous stream of patrons having kept the showhouse filled to capacity.

A number of children were sent by parents to achieve education by the visual route, it is a picture so filled with appeal to old and young.

A Zane Grey story of romance and adventure provides the basis and the background for "The Thundering Herd." It is a recreation of the dramatic history of the conquering of the west. The dramatic critics in their reviews, court not praise the production enough, and the words of the patrons, as they leave, substantiate their judgment.

Zane Grey personally aided in the direction of the picture and selected the cast, composed of Lois Wilson, Jack Holt, Raymond Hutton, Noah Beery and Charles Ogle and many others.

FOODS FROM SUNNY LANDS

GRAPEFRUIT the new way, packed by a process that retains the full flavor of the tree-ripened fruit. The skin is removed, also the pith, membrane and seeds, leaving only the segments and juice. There are many delightful ways of serving grapefruit. Please ask for a booklet of recipes. Five portions to the can. 30c

DATES—The Orient has used the date as food from the most ancient times, but in America we do not as a rule half appreciate its value. It supplies a fine quality of food iron, lime and salts, and a sugar which is more readily assimilated than cane sugar. Dates and milk constitute a complete diet. Try some again. 25c

SMYRNA FIGS—Imported and packed in America, these delicious, thin-skinned figs make a delightful dessert. These figs are not touched by human hands after the inspection and sorting is done. The health properties of figs are generally known. Smyrna figs in a light delicate syrup can be used in a variety of ways that make them practical. Per can. 35c
