

Local and Personal

As was the case last night the city will be filled with soldiers from Camp Jackson, as the National Guardsmen will again be permitted to visit the city until 10:30 p. m. The hundreds of men in uniform last night gave the business district a very lively appearance. The soldiers spent much money at the confectionery and tobacco stores and in the theaters. Nevertheless, never was the city more peaceful and orderly, and the local police and the men detailed from Camp Jackson as military police had nothing to do but look pleasant.

Before you buy that piano see Launspach. He can save you money. He knows pianos and is reliable.

Luscious Bing cherries of the finest quality were among the various produce sold at the busy public market this morning. The cherries, which were of large size and most pleasing to the taste, were soon sold out.

Chas. T. Higdon who is running for school director at the election Monday has had experience in school board and city council. Vote for him.

Miss Ruth Koser left this morning for Lakeview, Ore. where she will spend her vacation with Dr. E. D. Everett and family.

Hemstitching at a yard. The Vanity Shop, Bartlett and Main.

Included among tourists and others here from a distance, who are registered at local hotels, are Mr. and Mrs. H. R. King and Dorothy King of Worcester, Mass.; G. J. Rowerman of St. Louis, Mo. and Mrs. W. I. Kimball of Philadelphia, and Frank Ensminger and Melville Meyer of New York City.

The most important duty of the legal voters in a school district is to elect members of the school board.

E. E. Easler and family of Hotchkiss, Colo., are among visitors in the valley who are spending several days with friends and relatives.

Dance Riverside Community club, Saturday night. Alford's Imperial orchestra. Conforming to new law. Dancing from 9 to 12.

Miss Grace Meyer, teacher in the public schools, left Monday for Central Point, Oregon, to spend the greater part of her summer vacation with her parents, says the Klamath Falls Herald. During the summer months Miss Meyer will return to the city to attend to business interests, having purchased a lot here and started building a residence upon it. Miss Meyer is building the home as an investment.

Vote for Chas. T. Higdon for school director Monday, a good clean, level headed man. He is a good school fan.

Eighty-four cars representing Pacific coast and middle western states stopped at Merrick's Motor Inn yesterday to spend the night.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Woods Lumber Yard.

At a recent meeting of the Bandon school board 18 of the 24 teachers, including Superintendent Watson, were discharged. The teachers had all been reemployed and litigation is expected.

The most capable, interested and successful man available should be selected. Emil Mohr will fill the position ably and creditably.

Fishing in the river and smaller streams hereabouts is reported as good. There is a run of steelhead on, and lots of these gamey fish are at the Savage Rapids dam vicinity.

Fresh salt water salmon. 25c lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. King and daughter, Dorothy of Worcester, Mass., are among those from a distance who are spending several days in the city.

Chas. T. Higdon is an American with American ideas and ideals. He should be elected school director at the election Monday.

Mrs. T. C. Law of the Willow Springs district was among the business callers in the city this forenoon.

The event of the season! Grand ball! Fair Grounds! Tonight.

Out of town Oregonians in addition to Portland residents, registered at local hotels include Faye V. Gordon, R. Gordon and G. R. Leever of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hamilton and G. W. Day of Salem, Mrs. Elijah Corbett, Miss B. E. Sarscaur and W. J. Hadfield of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams of Coquille, and J. M. Lamb and C. E. Gordon of Eugene.

Medford has no more loyal and patriotic citizen than Emil Mohr. He has stood by the community through thick and thin. He is a booster for all safe and progressive improvements. He has been a resident here for many years. He has made good. Vote for him Monday.

Clifford E. Boswell was among the many O. A. C. students who returned home yesterday.

Shavers Sheet Metal Works moved to 219 S. Central.

The Southern Pacific special train, which will transport southern Oregon club members to the annual summer school at Corvallis, will leave Medford tomorrow at 10:30 a. m.

DANCE Riverside Community club Saturday night. Alford's Imperial orchestra.

New telegrams from Salem say that Governor Pierce has assumed a "hard boiled" attitude in his treatment of applications for executive clemency for drunken automobile drivers who have run afoul of the law. A number of such requests, some from prominent citizens, have reached the executive office, all of which have been turned down.

"The law is very plain in the case of a drunken driver and there is no excuse for violating its provisions," the governor declares. "When a man mixes booze with his gasoline he does it deliberately and becomes a serious menace to all who make use of our public highways."

Experience is a great teacher. Chas. T. Higdon has had experience as a school director. Vote for him.

Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Branham of Myrtle Point, drove to Medford Saturday and will return to Myrtle Point this morning. They are guests of Mrs. Alice Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Conner. Rev. Branham was pastor of the Methodist church South here for four years and they have a large circle of friends in Medford.

Now is the time to load up on candy for your summer vacation trip. Get it at DeVoe's fire sale beginning June 11.

Increased passenger traffic on the Southern Pacific lines yesterday foretold that railroad to run south bound train No. 43 in two sections. This increased traffic is due more or less to the many conventions that are taking place on the Pacific coast.

Staple drugs at DeVoe's.

Al Piche returned last evening from a short business trip to Klamath Falls and surrounding country.

Emil Mohr has two children in the high school and one in the grade schools of Medford. He is sincerely interested in our schools. Elect him director Monday.

Ten thousand cases of loganberries were sold in London, England, last week by the Corvallis cannery organization. This will include the entire season's pack of both the Corvallis and Forest Grove plants.

Bucilla and Pacific package goods at the following reduced prices: Costume slips, $3.25, reduced to $2.17; Gowns, $3.00, reduced to $2.00. Combinations, $1.85, reduced to $1.23; Baby dresses, $1.35, reduced to 90c.

All other packages reduced accordingly.

Handicraft Shop.

The Fair Grounds Pavilion will be thrown open to the visiting guardsmen tonight when a grand ball will be staged in their honor. A program of new dance hits has been prepared. It is expected that the local dancing public will not fail to be on hand to assist the Pavilion management in showing the visitors a good time.

Ask any man or woman who knows Chas. T. Higdon well their opinion of him as a man and a school director. Usually the answer will be he should be elected Monday by all means.

W. L. Jones, forest ranger stationed in the Dead Indian country, was in the city today on official business.

Free ad service for business men. Salvation Army Service tent Bulletin Board. Phone 355.

The commercial fishing in the Rogue continues to hold its own although not quite as good as it was at the opening of the season. Last night the seven boats which made the drift brought in 1000 pounds. With the salmon netting the fishermen 12 cents per pound, a considerable amount of outside money is still being brought here.—Grants Pass Courier.

Fancy creamery butter 42c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

C. E. Smith was included among the visitors in the city this morning from the Willow Springs district.

One of our citizens who is a large taxpayer, but for some continued improvement in our public schools is a candidate for director Monday. Vote for Emil Mohr.

The city council has announced that all petitions concerning city annexation that are to be turned in to them should be done so at once so that the special election may be called at the council meeting next Tuesday night.

The watermaster can be found in his office in the Medford National bank building, from 8 a. m. until noon, every day during the irrigation season.

A group of the Chamber of Commerce committee dined this noon at Camp Jackson with Brigadier General George A. White, where the details of the huge auto caravan to take the Oregon National Guard up to Crater Lake and return were discussed.

Higdon's friends insist that he is peculiarly fitted for a member of the board of education because of his former experience as a member of a school board and also as a member of the city council.

Lucius Kincaid and wife of Eagle Point were among the people who were in the city this forenoon transacting business.

Candy! candy at DeVoe's fire sale.

People from California who are registered at local hotels include Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Goff and Henry Obbe of San Diego, Miss E. Jenks of Berkeley, Mr. A. H. Pratt, Mrs. Gertrude Ross, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Cook Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lee and J. H. Trill of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wheeler of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Arnold of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Callan and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Connelly, Mrs. J. W. Green and Captain and Mrs. S. B. Jones of San Francisco.

Vote for Higdon for the position of school director.

Lincoln Anties, for nearly five years secretary of the Bend Commercial club, has resigned to accept a similar position at Roseburg. He will be succeeded by L. K. Cramb, recently of Klamath Falls.

Grand ball—Fair Pavilion, tonight.

F. R. Anderson of Butte, Mont., is spending a few days in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Blimmerlee.

Orders taken for angel food and sunshine cake at 75c each, at 737 W. 14th street. Phone 224-L.

H. C. Dillard, city water engineer, returned last evening from a business trip to Butte Falls.

Grand ball in honor of visiting guardsmen! Fair Grounds Pavilion! tonight! Don't fail to attend.

Grand ball—Fair Pavilion, tonight.

If expectations materialize the Medford Business college, which closed sometime ago because of a fire which partially gutted the college building on Grove street, will be ready for summer classes about the 17th of this month.

Place an X before Higdon's name in Monday's school election.

Approximately $39,280 has been earned during the past year by 332 students of the University of Oregon through the campus Y. M. C. A. employment office.

Fresh salt water salmon. 25c lb. Johnson Produce Co.

C. R. Welch of Oakland, Calif., who has been visiting F. W. Hollis for the past week, left for his home in that city last evening.

Eggs wanted, 30c dozen. Johnson Produce Co.

Carl Weaver of the Standard Oil Co., motored to White Horse Bluff on the Crater Lake highway Thursday. From the bluff he hiked the remaining eight miles to the rim of the lake. He reported the snow to be fairly well packed this side of Anna Spring, but above that point there was a layer of slush over the packed snow, making progress a bit more hampered.

Sale of package goods now on at the Handicraft Shop. We have endeavored to make this sale an event which will mean a great saving to the hundreds of patrons who have made this shop possible.

Girls! Don't miss this. Grand ball! Fair Grounds, tonight.

Emil Britt of Jacksonville was among the many visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon from that city.

Charles T. Higdon has had experience as a school board member. Vote for him Monday.

Miss Faye Gordon of Klamath Falls who has been attending O. A. C. is spending several days in the city visiting friends.

R. L. R. eggs at DeVoe's.

A real party, folks! Don't miss it! Grand ball! Fair Grounds Pavilion! tonight!

People from Washington state registered at local hotels include Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Johnson, J. N. Clark, and Mrs. L. R. Sesson of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. E. Herrard, Miss Mabel Orr, Mary Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoff, Joel Wolff, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Fayette of Aberdeen, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Turley and family of Vancouver.

DeVoe has bought the entire stock of fire damaged goods of the Valley Candy Co. and will have it on sale in his summer garden, beginning Thursday, June 11.

E. F. Sandoz of the Perist district was among the many business visitors in the city today.

Charles T. Higdon, who is a candidate for school director to succeed Dr. I. D. Phillips, has four children in the Medford schools. Two girls graduated with the class of 1924.

The service at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning will be in charge of the Sunday school as it is the annual children's day. There will be baptism of infants, a missionary playlet recitations and dialogues and songs by the children of the junior and primary and beginner departments. The children of the primary and beginner departments need not come until 10:30 a. m., but the other classes will be held as usual.

Higdon will make a good successor to I. D. Phillips as a member of the school board.

Among Portland residents of Portland registered at the hotels of this city are Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Leech, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Micken, Mr. and Mrs. A. Weinstein.

Hemstitching, buttons covered at the Handicraft Shop.

About twenty Oregon National Guardsmen arrived this forenoon from Portland and Astoria under the charge of Lieutenant Stretcher of Portland. The arrival of these men makes the 22nd brigade complete as far as membership goes.

Come out and help us show the soldier boys a good time. Fair Grounds Pavilion! Tonight.

Fair weather is promised for Sunday, following the nice days of yesterday and Thursday. The weather was very much alike in temperature and fair conditions.

Emma Cline's Shop anniversary week, June 8th to 15th. Call and get one of our beautiful gifts for ladies.

Children's day exercises will be held at the Phoenix church Sunday at 11 a. m., to which the public is welcome.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

Palmer's Photo Studio, 717 N. Central avenue, open from one until five p. m. Kodak work, hand colored photos, painting, or commercial orders given prompt attention. Phone 823-R or Mrs. Barto 821-Y.

Several Medford citizens were guests at the Ashland Kiwanis club meeting held at the Hotel Ashland yesterday, including J. L. Bromley, R. E. McElhose and C. C. Lemmon. The main feature of the program consisted of the Copco development motion pictures, which were displayed by Mr. Bromley. This extensive development, costing over three million dollars, was explained in detail by Mr. Bromley. R. E. McElhose, commander of Medford Post of the American Legion, addressed the club on the subject of the new Legion Drum corps, which is a recent valuable addition to the musical organizations of the Rogue valley. Mr. McElhose asked the support of the Ashland citizens in regard to the '24 Day's' celebration which is being put on by the Medford post to help defray the expenses of this drum corps. Grand ball—Fair Pavilion, tonight.

Package goods now on sale at the Handicraft Shop. Standard quality merchandise at prices far below the regular. Don't fail to make your selections early.

Brick ice cream 50c at DeVoe's.

Twelve more men left this morning for Crater Lake National park where they will join a crew already there engaged in clearing the west road of snow and debris. It is expected that by the 20th of this month the road will be open up to the government camp, leaving only a distance of 1.7 miles unopened.

Remember the fire sale on candles at DeVoe's beginning June 11.

Package goods at marvelously reduced prices. Gowns, combinations, bonnet jackets, caps, children's things and many other useful articles will be found at the Handicraft Shop.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

Rev. J. Willard De Yoe and family have moved from 24 South Washington street to their new home in the Methodist parsonage at 27 North Orange street, lately vacated by the family of the late Rev. E. E. Gilbert. This is one of the finest Methodist parsonages in the state. Before coming here Rev. De Yoe occupied what was known as the finest Methodist parsonage in the state of Kansas, costing, exclusive of ground, over $22,000, and being one of the finest residences west of Topeka in that state.

You can't make a mistake in voting for Higdon.

Corticell silk stockings with silk and lisle tops and soles for service. Fine even weave. Made in all the newest shades. Handicraft Shop.

Eggs wanted, 30c dozen. Johnson Produce Co.

The many Southern Pacific railroad officials, who were in the city yesterday in connection with the movement of the special troop trains bringing Oregon National Guardsmen to their encampment here, have all returned to their respective stations.

Pacific and Bucilla package goods one-third off. Handicraft Shop.

Corticell full fashioned, pure thread silk hose ranging in price from $1.85 to $4.00. Handicraft Shop.

Hand embroidered Philippine dresses, white and colored voile, $9.75. Jap Art Store.

Carl Percall, a young man of Central Point, pleaded guilty in Judge Taylor's court yesterday to the charge of operating a truck without a chauffeur's license preferred against him by the state traffic officer, J. J. McMahon, and was fined $10.

Big dance and swimming carnival. Ashland Natatorium, two blocks from new Luthia Springs hotel, Saturday evening, June 13th. The Southern Oregonians' Grants Pass crack orchestra will furnish the music. Free swim after the dance. Clean sulphur water. Tickets $1.00, tax 10c. A good time for everybody.

Marcelling 75c. 31 So. Orange street. Phone 655.

Budweiser 15c bottle at DeVoe's fire sale.

Columbia plaster wall board call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber yard.

Many citizens, due to the excitement of the National Guard coming have overlooked the fact that the annual school election takes place next Monday from 2 to 7 p. m. at the high school building, for the election of a member of the school board, for which position three candidates are running.

Fresh salmon eggs for sale. Johnson Produce Co.

Miss Margaret Van Scoey will receive pupils for tutoring during the summer vacation. Phone 693-J.

For sand, gravel, sediment, cleaning or lawn work, phone 912-J. Samuel Bateman.

Forty-four out of the state cars, representing a number of states, some from the east and middle west, registered here yesterday at the local state registration traffic bureau.

Special summer prices on dry factory mill blocks. Valley Egg Co.

Launspach Piano Store now open for business at 111 W. Main. Opposite Riato theater. Successor to Root Music Co.

Charles A. Wing has recently sold the J. E. Hill property, located on North Central avenue, to J. W. Peart, who will take possession at once.

To appreciate values you must see the display of Philippine dresses, gowns, step-ins and hand made hats, at The Japanese Art Store.

Fancy creamery butter 42c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Forty women, members of the Los Angeles Lyric club, a well known organization of singers, who are enroute back home from Portland in several large motor busses, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and spent the night here at the Hotel Medford. They continued on their way to Los Angeles early today.

Fresh salmon eggs for sale. Johnson Produce Co.

Try that big milk shake at DeVoe's.

Fancy creamery butter 42c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Included among the visitors in the city from adjacent California points who arrived Friday are Helen Hickley and Margarie Eiler of Etna Mills, J. P. Kennedy of Mt. Shasta, and Frank Lewis and H. J. Bailey of Weed.

High grade piano near Medford will be sold to a private party at a big savings. $10 monthly will handle. A snap. Write at once to Tallman Piano Store, Salem, Oregon.

YOU'LL BE SORRY IF YOU MISS

WELCOME TO OUR NATIONAL GUARDSMEN!

Ends Tonight

Zane Grey's Thrilling Epic of the West

"The Thundering Herd"

A Paramount Picture WITH JACK HOLT NOAH BEERY LOIS WILSON Raymond HATTON

Beginning Tomorrow

A Grin-Fizz Mixer Do Luxe —That's RAYMOND GRIFFITH the New Komic King in "THE NIGHT CLUB"

It's Thrilling — Killing — Filling — Funnier than "40 Winks," "Miss Bluebeard" or "Charley's Aunt"

70 Hours Between Portland and Chicago Leaves Portland at 9:35 every morning Standard and tourist sleeping cars through to Chicago, also standard sleeping car for Denver and Kansas City.

Continental Limited Another 70-hour train between Portland and Chicago, leaving Portland at 4:00 every evening, with observation car and sleeping cars through to Chicago. Through standard and tourist sleeping cars to Denver and Kansas City.

Low Fares In effect daily to September 15 to all the principal Eastern Cities. Final return limit, October 31. Liberal stop-over privileges.

One-way via California either going or returning—may be arranged if desired without much additional expense.

Zion National Park—Low summer fares to the new Wonderland of Color in Southern Utah. Why not take it in on your way East?

Yellowstone National Park—May also be made as a side trip at a small additional cost. Ask for free booklet descriptive of these famous resorts.

Our representative will be glad to give you full information and help you plan your trip. Address W. M. McMURRAY General Passenger Agent Portland, Oregon

Union Pacific DYERS HATTERS CLEANERS PLEATERS

Phone 244 23 N. Fir St.

HUNT'S Monday Night, June 18 CRATERIAN (8:15 Curtain)

The treat of the year!!

THE COMEDY NEW YORK HAS LAUGHED AND WEPT OVER FOR TWO YEARS

THE SHOW OFF

NO PLAY CAN BE FUNNIER!!

Best of all American Comedies! Hilarious Drama, New York World

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVED NOW! Make checks, money orders payable to Hunt's Craterian Theater. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope to insure safe return. PRICES, including war tax: Lower Floor, first 18 rows $2.75, next 6 rows $2.20, balance $1.65; Balcony, first 2 rows $1.10, balance 50c. Box office sale Monday, June 15.

The reputation for Cleanliness is "Advertising that money can't buy"

Walk into our plant anytime. We want you to see for yourself.

The COLONIAL Southern Oregon's Finest Bakery

DON'T MISS THIS

GRAND BALL given in honor of Oregon National Guard Fair Grounds Pavilion TONIGHT

Come Out and Help Show the Visitors a Good Time.

National Guardsmen in Uniform Admitted Free

FOR SCHOOL DIRECTOR

At District School Election Monday, June 15

DR. O. J. JOHNSON

He pledges a strict application of business principles in conducting the affairs of the district, and fair and impartial treatment of all issues.

A Resident of the City Four Years—Three Children in the Public Schools.

This adv. paid for by friends of the candidate.