

NO AUTOMOBILES ON STREETS DURING PARADE TOMORROW

The police served notice this morning, that during the progress of the review and parade of the Oregon National Guard Tuesday afternoon, no automobiles of any kind or description will be allowed on the line of march, and ample provisions have been made to enforce the order. The streets will be cleared along the line of march at 2:30, which will cover the following streets: Main street from Crater Lake avenue to Oakdale, Oakdale to Sixth, Sixth to Fir. There will also be no breaking of the parade to permit autos to cross Main street in either direction.

DE MOLAY FATHERS' AND SONS' BANQUET

On next Thursday evening the members of the Medford chapter, Order of De Molay, will be host to their "dads" at a banquet in the Masonic hall. A diversified program, consisting of boxing, wrestling, speeches and music has been prepared and a large turnout is expected. A banquet of this kind is always enjoyable because it offers an opportunity for the father and son to have a jolly good time together. All De Molays are invited to bring their "dads" promptly at 6:30, when the fun commences. This is the first of a series of "special" events which have been planned by the local De Molay for the summer months.

PAGEANT PATRON. TICKETS ON SALE FOR 'SPRING MAID'

"We can certainly point with pride to our other two pageants, "Robin Hood" last year and "Iolanthe" the year before, said a member of the pageant committee today. With the same men in charge again this year, and "The Spring Maid" selected as the vehicle, it doesn't take much of a prophet to predict an even greater success for this year's production. The Spring Maid" probably lends itself to an out of door spectacular performance even better than its predecessors, there being a beautiful ballet in the last act with splendid special music, in fact the last act is a pageant itself.

"But however good the show itself is, it must have a certain amount of support—financial support. These things require a certain amount of money for material, costumes, royalties, labor, etc., without mentioning any compensation for the producers. In most cases the promoters require quite a large guarantee fund, depending on the size of the production. But the people at the head of our pageant, after careful study of the receipts and expenditures of other ones, have decided that they can "get by" without this guarantee if they are sure that there will be as large an audience as last year. To stimulate the interest in the pageant, and at the same time get a line on the probable receipts, they are offering an advance sale of Patron Tickets, at a reduced price. These patrons' tickets are $5 each and entitle the holder to $6 worth of seats, either four $1.50 or six at $1 seats as he may elect. These tickets are good for any performance and are not limited to any one person. This is certainly an easy way to finance the pageant and should appeal to all its friends. This subscription sale will be started this week, so be ready to do your bit when called upon."
