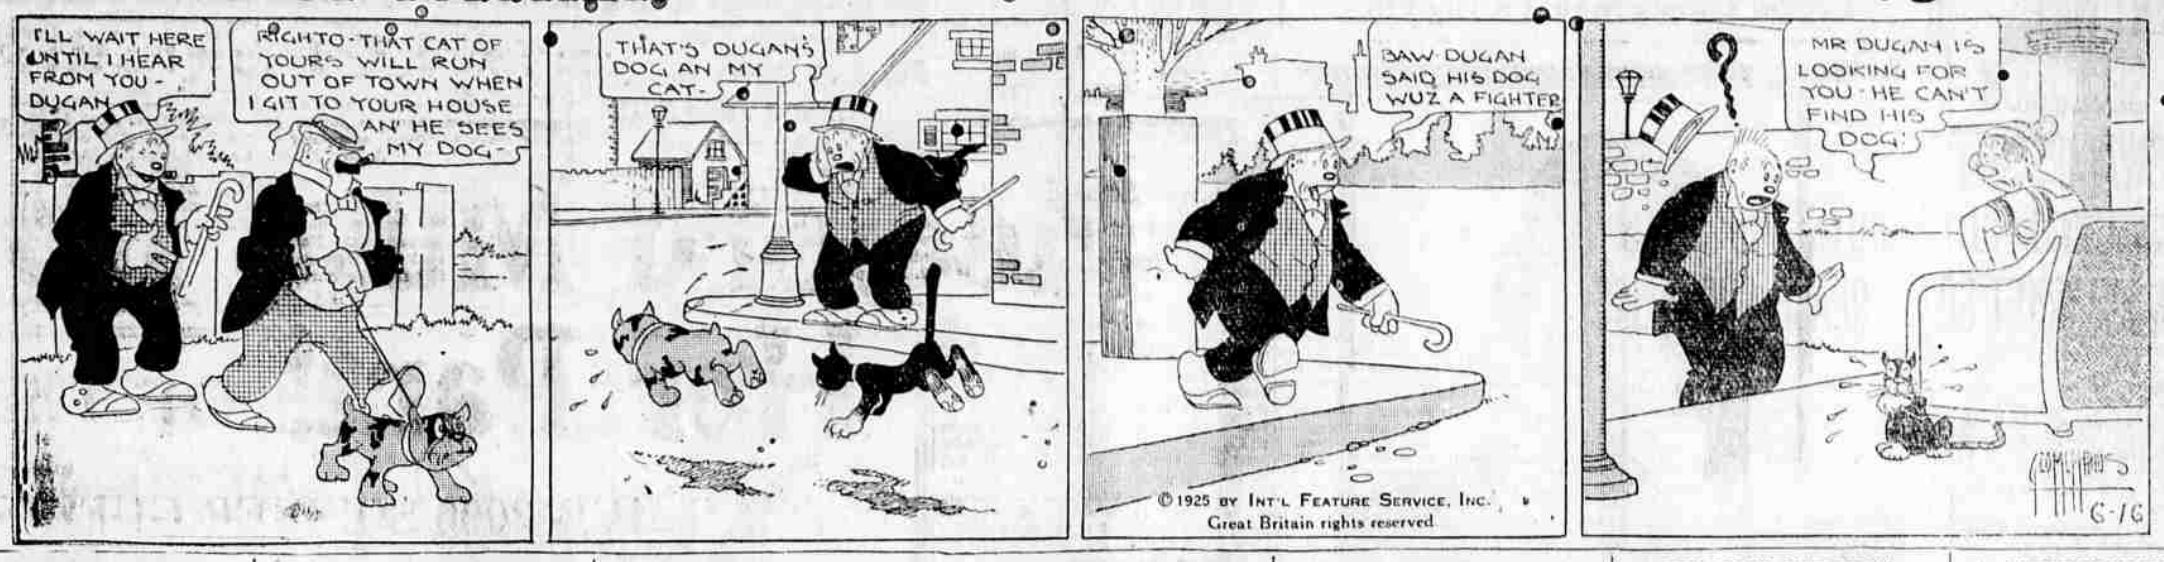
BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus



U. S. NEEDS MORE TEACHERS, FEWER CHEAP POLITICIANS

DUBUQUE, Iowa, June 16.—(A. P.)—The United States will not need so many politicians and law makers when public schools teach the nation's children their full responsibility as citizens, William E. Knox of New York, president of the American Bankers association declared here today in an address on "independence" before the Iowa Bankers' association.

"There is no need in our national life today more vital than the revival of the spirit of independence," Mr. Knox said. "The primary duty of our forefathers was to interpret independence in its political sense and the greatest civic duty that we as individuals have to perform now is to live up to their conception of popular government. * * *

"If I really want to accomplish results in politics I had rather be on the school board than in the legislature. Improvement of our civic standards lies with public education and not with politicians. If true political independence of this country is to be preserved, young people must be taught their individual responsibility and civic duty."

Craterian Vaudeville Big Comedy Bill

The Orpheum Jr., vaudeville this evening at Hunt's Craterian, is replete with comedy, and full of laughs from start to finish.

"I Gotta Have Meat," by Douglas Graves & Co., and "Mother's Boy," by Jerry Mack & Co., are comedy playlets of many amusing situations and clever acting.

"Dexterous Comicalities" by Raymond and Genva, and Zenator and Devare on the horizontal bars, combine feats of strength and daring with comedy twists.

The Harkins Sisters, wearing beautiful gowns, and with sweet voices present "Harmony and Class" in singing numbers. Their selections include late popular songs, and classical selections.

"Topics of the Day," and a Mack Sennett comedy make up the photoplay section of the bill, with T. Wilson Waite and the Craterian orchestra furnishing the music.
