

MISS POPE ADMITS CHANCE OF HALF MILLION LEGACY

CHICAGO, June 17.—(A. P.)—Miss Isabelle Pope will divide Billy McClintock's $1,000,000 estate "50-50" with Iowa cousins of his mother if the will leaving it to William Darling Shepherd, his foster father, is broken, she testified upon cross examination in Shepherd's murder trial yesterday.

Miss Pope added that $100,000 of the estate was to go to Mrs. William Shepherd, wife of the defendant and foster mother of "Billy" in the event the pact with Iowa relatives was carried out.

"You know, didn't you, Miss Pope that some Iowa cousins of Mrs. McClintock contemplate a suit to break Billy's will leaving most of his estate to Mr. Shepherd?" asked William Scott Stewart, chief of defense counsel at the end of a cross examination which had lasted an hour and a half.

"Yes," replied the young woman who waited with a marriage license to marry the rich youth as he died of typhoid fever, a death Shepherd is charged with causing by administration germs.

"You have made some arrangements with cousins to get some part of the money if the will is broken, haven't you?" was the next question.

"Yes," replied Miss Pope.

"What part of it would you get, a dower interest?" pursued the defense attorney.

A moment of slight confusion, while she apparently weighed the "dower" which under the Illinois law is one-third, against the larger share she would receive under the agreement of the pretty little witness shook her head in negative.

"No, I understand it would be 50-50," she replied.

Concluding her direct testimony begun late yesterday, Miss Pope reiterated that the Shepherds' attitude towards her changed when they learned of her engagement to marry Billy and that Shepherd had talked with her of his study of "typhoid germs."

PORTLAND, Ore., June 17.—Mrs. K. Lucille Daly, president of the state cosmetic therapy board, announced today that applications for license to practice under the new state cosmetics law can be obtained from the secretary of the board in the office of the state board of health at Portland. All cosmeticians, she said, must make application before July 31.

POLICE HUNTING FOR PRETTY GIRL IN DENTIST CASE

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—(A. P.)—Another arrest, that of a young and handsome woman, was declared imminent today by Edward King, investigator of the district attorney's office, in connection with the killing of Grace Grogan Young, former widow of Patrick Grogan, olive millionaire.

The dead woman's husband, Dr. Thomas W. Young, already has confessed his part in the killing and, King said, is believed to be shielding his accomplice.

Several thousand dollars' worth of jewels and approximately $10,000 worth of Liberty bonds belonging to Mrs. Young are being sought today by the district attorney. So far no trace of the jewels or securities has been found.

District Attorney Asa Keyes announced today that he intended to have alienists examine Young in an effort to forestall an insanity plea at the trial. The county grand jury will be asked to indict Young on a murder charge today.

The dentist has retained attorneys and today firmly closed his lips to interliewers.

Shortly after the grand jury's investigation started, Dorothy Leopold, office assistant of the accused dentist, broke down while testifying and ran from the jury room in tears.

"I cannot stand it in there," she said to a deputy district attorney; "everybody is saying terrible things about me."

Miss Leopold, in an hysterical condition, was placed in charge of a matron.

The total up to the present for this year is 1324. Last year the total was 2330, in 1923 it was 2280 and in 1922 the total was 2435.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH IN HOTEL FIRE MT. ANGEL

MOUNT ANGEL, Ore., June 17.—Mrs. Jacob Berchtold, wife of the proprietor of the Mount Angel hotel, was burned to death about three o'clock Sunday while starting a fire in the hotel kitchen. She was alone at the time and the exact details of the accident are not known.

According to the verdict of Coroner Rigdon an explosion occurred when she poured kerosene on a small blaze in the wood stove.

Excepting for her two small nieces the daughters of Frank Butsch, Mrs. Berchtold was alone in the hotel. With all of her garments afire she ran from the kitchen into the office screaming to the girls who ran to the street and called N. E. Traviss, a neighbor, who was passing by. Mr. Traviss rushed in, grabbed a rug and wrapped her in it but she was dead by the time he reached her.

Mystery surrounds the manner in which Mrs. Berchtold's clothes caught fire so quickly as less than five minutes elapsed between the time that she went into the kitchen to start the fire and her death from the burns. It is said that she was wearing a skirt which she cleaned with gasoline on Saturday but there was no gasoline in the kitchen at the time the accident occurred.

LAHAINA, Island of Maui, T. H., June 17.—(A. P.)—A sampan overturned in the swift current off Moakal island and 15 occupants of the craft clung to the capsized shell while their extremities dangled in the shark-infested waters.

The shark-torn bodies of two members of the party, one a woman, were recovered. Five persons were drowned in the accident. The accident occurred on Sunday night. The survivors were in the water for ten hours, they said.

DE PAOLO GIVEN FIRST PRIZE AND U. S. CHAMPIONSHIP

ALTOONA, Pa., June 17.—(A. P.)—By his victory in the 250-mile automobile speedway race here Saturday, Peter DePaolo gained enough points to give him the 1925 championship. Officials of the American Automobile association are expected to award the title to DePaolo before he leaves next week to participate in the Grand Prix at Vervier, Belgium.

Saturday's race was so close that a checkup after a protest by Frank Elliott resulted in a change in the standing of the first three drivers to finish. Under the revision DePaolo was declared the winner instead of Tommy Milton. Elliott was placed second and Milton third. Harry Hartz finished fourth.

GIVE HARVARD CHANCE OF BEATING YALE IN BOAT RACE FRIDAY

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 17.—(A. P.)—Harvard and Yale varsity eights, meeting on the Thames Friday in their annual four mile contest are expected to furnish one of history's great rowing races.

For four years crimson oars have met defeat in the classic, but today there is confidence in the Harvard camp at Red Top. Harvard has been beaten by a strong Navy this year, however, and won a triangular event at Boston when a Penn carman broke a lock.

Yale, like Harvard, has kept its eight intact throughout the season and left Princeton and Cornell far behind in a race on the Housatonic several weeks ago. Their real power has not been tested.

ADVOCATES BEAUTY CULTURE FOR MEN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17.—(A. P.)—Mrs. Rena Elrod, Chicago sponsor of the beauty bills passed by the house late yesterday believes in beauty culture for men as well as for women.

"It isn't necessary to patronize a beauty parlor to cultivate beauty," said Mrs. Elrod, a little woman with a ready smile who "wouldn't bob my hair for the world."

"Cleanliness and a cheerful disposition have a lot to do with it and men can practice that as well as women." She observed, however, that she didn't particularly want her men folks to patronize beauty parlors.

Although hair bobbing is limited to licensed barbers in the bill, there is nothing to prevent a beauty culturist from getting a barber's license, she said. She is now devising means to push her bill through the senate before the session ends next week.

MILITARY MEN IN UNITED STATES ARE OPPOSED TO WAR

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 17.—(A. P.)—The American army is operated on a policy of "preparation against war, not preparation for war." Dwight F. Davis, assistant secretary of war, said recently in discussing the West Point graduating class.

"In my close and intimate contact with army officers," Mr. Davis said, "I have never heard one make a remark which could be construed as militaristic. The men who have to fight do not want war. They are strongly for peace to the very limit that peace may be maintained with honor."

"There are those who apparently believe that because a peace loving citizen becomes an army officer, he is transformed overnight into a militarist, earnestly desiring war. There is no danger of militarism in this country, certainly not among the military men."

Mayonnaise —
even a man can make it the first time!

Few things are easier to make than good mayonnaise. Wesson Oil and a fresh egg—beaten together and seasoned to taste—and you have a mayonnaise you'll be proud of!

Quickest results are obtained if the oil and egg are not too cold. The ordinary temperature of your kitchen is just right.

Break the egg in a bowl—
Add about a tablespoonful of Wesson Oil.
Beat vigorously with an egg beater or a fork—until the oil and egg are thoroughly mixed. How long will that take? Perhaps while you count fifty—not as fast as you can count but as fast as you can beat.

Add another tablespoonful of oil and beat again—vigorously. Two tablespoonfuls and beat again. Two or three more and beat again.

Your mayonnaise will begin to thicken a little.
Then add Wesson Oil four or five tablespoonfuls at a time, beating well after each addition—until your mayonnaise is as thick and stiff as you want it. The more oil you beat into it the thicker your mayonnaise will be—about two cupfuls is the usual amount. [Never add more than a quarter cupful of oil at any one time.]

After your mayonnaise is made, add seasoning. Mix a half teaspoonful of salt, a teaspoonful each of sugar and mustard, a generous pinch each of paprika and red pepper—add a tablespoonful of lemon juice or vinegar and stir until the salt and sugar are dissolved—then pour into the mayonnaise and beat well.

With Wesson Oil Mayonnaise as a base, you can make many other delicious salad dressings in a very few minutes.

A convenient method used by many women who like to vary their salads each day is to make a pint of Wesson Oil Mayonnaise, cover it tightly in a fruit jar and put it in the refrigerator where it will keep and at the end of the week be as fresh and good as the day it was made. Then from day to day as a different kind of dressing is desired a portion of the plain Mayonnaise is mixed with the desired ingredients to make the fancier dressing. One day you can make Russian Dressing, the next Thousand Island, and so on throughout the week. There are many variations of Wesson Oil Mayonnaise. If you would like to have the recipes for some of these, write to the Wesson Oil People, 112 Market Street, San Francisco, Cal., asking for the booklet on salad dressings.
