PETITION BOARD OF REGENTS TO RETAIN H.C. HOWE

PORTLAND, Ore., June 17.—Alumni of the University of Oregon who were interested in having Professor Herbert Crombie Howe restored to the head of the English department of the university from which he was recently demoted by the board of regents, have announced they will press a petition to the board for reconsideration of the case, says the Portland Telegram today.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Ash, Mrs. Jane Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. R. Burns Powell, Charles W. Robison of Astoria and others, are named as signing the petition.

"A few years ago," continues the Telegram story, "when retirement of Professor F. G. Young, head of the economics department, and Dean Straub, was contemplated by the regents, a group of alumni was rallied and through their strong representation the action of the board was not taken.

"The effort of alumni interested in the Howe case, the leaders of the group that had conducted the fight to retain Young and Straub when retirement impended brought together a meeting and pledged many of the alumni to uphold the regents in their demotion of Howe.

"Friends of Professor Howe, many of whom stood with Young in his fight, are strongly stirred by this action."

GIGANTIC SWINDLE UNEARTHED BUT J. W. WORTHINGTON ISN'T

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—(A. P.) Evidence of a gigantic plot to market stolen bonds from Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis today spurred federal and county officials to an intensive search for John W. Worthington of Chicago, socalled "Wolf of LaSalle street," who disappeared from a sanitarium near here last Wednesday.

The nationally known bond broker, convicted in Chicago and facing a term in Atlanta prison was variously reported as dying and recuperating at the sanitarium when he dropped from sight last week with his daughter, Alice Worthington.

Negotiable securities stolen from the Security Trust and Deposit company of Chicago aggregating approximately $148,000 in value, have been traced to southern California, said County District Attorney Asa Keyes here today.

Numbers identical with some of those on the stolen bonds have been located on sales slips said to have been issued by Worthington or his associates.

Advices received from Chicago, Keyes added, point to a connection between Worthington and the Miller gang of Chicago, whose leader in a number of large robberies now is serving a penitentiary sentence.

Negotiable securities from Kansas City and St. Louis stolen in recent raids on banking and trust institutions also have found their way to this section, Keyes said and his investigations, he declared, were centering about the theory that a clearing house for such loot had been established in Los Angeles.

MORE REFORMS IN MARITAL RELATIONS ARE STILL NEEDED

DENVER, June 18.—Recently the legal relationship of the wife has been changed so that the "spouse is not owned legally by her husband," and the present legal rulings on marital relations are being constantly modified, Professor Sophonisba Breckenridge of sociological department of the University of Chicago, declared today in an address before the national conference of social work here.

But the law of status between husband and wife needs more elaboration, she said. Professor Breckenridge urged social service agencies and workers to assist in the clarification of laws dealing with marriage and marital relations so that children will not suffer from the present defects of the statutes.

Out of 400 children under 8 years of age whose environmental habits were investigated by the Massachusetts board of mental hygiene, 8.5 per cent were found to lack essentials of successful upbringing in their homes, Miss Bertha Reynolds, Boston social worker, told the national conference of social work here today.

Of the 400 cases investigated, only 10 per cent lived in homes of poverty, Miss Reynolds said. The absence of American educational standards of play opportunities and of normal family affection were mainly the missing elements shown by the survey, Miss Reynolds declared.

SECURES EVIDENCE TO CLEAR CHICAGO OF LIQUOR GANGS

CHICAGO, June 17.—(A. P.)—Six leather-bound books which, according to the police, form a complete revelation of the operations of one of Chicago's largest liquor rings, have come in possession of authorities through the drive on the city's gangsters.

In a raid in the headquarters of the Gennea brothers, one of whom, Mike Gennea, was slain in Saturday's street fight between gang members and police, the police found records of liquor receipts and shipments; names of shippers; the prices received and the prices paid for the ring's product. There were even receipts for gas bills paid, one revealing that some "cookers" of mash used as much as $100 worth of gas a month.

The papers also revealed, authorities said, the identity of a fourth person connected with the gangs who participated in Saturday's fight. State's Attorney Crowe characterized the documents as enough ammunition to send to the penitentiary or drive out of the city every one of the Gennea gang "from the four Genneas who are left down to their lowest imported distiller or shotgun man."

Howard Eby, head of the immigration bureau in Chicago, disclosed that Mike Gennea had been questioned last week in connection with the activities of Vincenzo Azzarello, a Gennea agent arrested in Tampa, Fla. Azzarello was said to have seven immigrants with him, believed to have been smuggled into the country by way of the Bermudas. Eby said the Genneas were importing men from southern Italy and Sliely, delivered in Chicago for $500 a head.

UNCLE SAM WILL GIVE BADGES TO ALL RESERVE MEN

JUDGE LINDSEY SEES PASSING OF TRIAL BY JURY

DENVER, Colo., June 18.—(A. P.)—The passing of the present methods of handling crime through either criminal courts for adults or juvenile courts for children was predicted as a future change in society by Judge Ben B. Lindsey, nationally known juvenile jurist of Denver, in an address today before the national conference of social work.

"These courts will be supplanted by institutions of human welfare," he declared. "Neither juries nor judges at present are educated or equipped to deal with problems of children's delinquency or adult crime." Judge Lindsey said, "and this work will be done by skilled specialists who have been trained in psychology, biology and sociology through institutions of human relations and welfare."

Criminals and delinquents will be divided into three classes, Judge Lindsey predicted, the most dangerous class to society being found among the "super-intelligent" or those who are clever enough to cheat and rob and dodge the law; the second class will be "the dullards," who are too stupid to know they are doing wrong, and easily captured by the authorities; and the third, the least dangerous group, "the feeble minded, who will be investigated by the psychiatrists and isolated from society in institutions more like hospitals than prisons."

VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

If you spent 60 days straight at the kitchen stove

—you'd see why it is that nearly eighteen hundred homes within reach of the Copco lines are now using electric ranges.

Two hours a day, every day in the year, is probably a low estimate of a housewife's time in the kitchen. Sixty full days, in all—and they're worth making easier!

Electrical cooking is easier, and cleaner. It puts an end to dirt and ashes. It means less sweeping of floors, less cleaning of walls, cleaner utensils.

Electrical cooking is tastier. Uniform, controllable heat saves the flavor of dainty foods.

Electrical cooking is economical—surprisingly so. The average cost of electricity for cooking is only about twice the cost of the electric lighting current in the same home. (Actual average figures for your own neighborhood will be shown you upon request.)

Don't pass the next display of electric ranges without just dropping in and asking your dealer more about them—and about the convenient payment terms he is offering.
