Economic Pear Survey Continued June 28th

Messrs. Beese and Wilcox will take up the work of the economic pear survey, Monday, June 22. These two men spent two weeks in this county during the latter part of May, and on account of work in other counties, it was impossible for them to continue at that time. Thirty-five records have already been taken in Jackson county, and it is expected to secure at least 75 more. Orchardists will be visited by appointment and it is hoped that the orchardists will continue to give their co-operation as they did at the beginning of the survey. Some valuable information is being obtained, and will be of great benefit to the Rogue River valley.
