

FEAR IS SUBJECT OF SERMON BY GRIFFITH JONES

"Fear and Its Results" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Evangelist Griffith Jones at the Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Rev. Lawrence introduced the speaker by saying "We have a man of God from Los Angeles who has a direct message for the people of Medford."

The Los Angeles lawyer, who is spending his vacation in the Rogue River valley preaching the gospel of salvation, then quoted from the words of Jesus when the Man of Galilee said "Consider the field; how they grow; they grow; they grow; they spin, yet I say unto you that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

"You are afraid you will lose your position. You are afraid you will fail in business and you are afraid of growing old and being penniless," said the evangelist. "Why do you fear? What is your excuse for not trusting the Lord and claiming his promises. I'll tell you just why you fail to live in the fullness of God's love."

"Lecturers tour the country teaching psychology. They tell you to think constructive thoughts and they emphasize the I am. That is alright. Hindu philosophers have taught that. I have lectured on psychology and it has done a great deal of good. But instead of the personal equation let God be the one on whom you rely for strength."

"My book on The Key to Success has been recognized by the University of California and other universities and it has done much to help. But it was not until I realized that all power comes from God and that the Mind of God is the source of all power that my book became one of the biggest sellers in its department."

"When the church people of Medford get together and realize that it is 'not by might, nor power, nor by spirit saith the Lord,' then they will come into their own and a great revival will be started in Medford and will sweep through the Rogue River valley."

Evangelist Jones spoke last night to one of the largest crowds that has ever attended a meeting in the Salvation Army hall. There were a number of conversions and plans were made for a mass meeting of all the churches and all the citizens of Medford to be held in Salvation Army hall Tuesday night. The address is to be given by Attorney Jones and he will tell some of the experiences gained on the Oregon sheep ranch near Prineville where the American Legion convention is to be held this coming month.

Ministers of Medford are to unite in a plan this week to begin a mighty revival of religion here. They realize that an exceptional advantage has been offered because of the visit of Attorney Jones and Bert Smith, Los Angeles newspaper man. The details of the plan may be announced following the meeting on Tuesday night. It is said that there is a decided and definite movement on the part of the church people of Medford to begin a revival.

The meetings will be union meetings with all of the churches and with the Salvation Army cooperating to attract city wide attention to the revival. It is proposed then to hold mass meetings in Grants Pass and in Salem, Eugene and at Portland if the plans now formulating are carried out in detail.

Novelty Vaudeville Bill for Tuesday

Orpheum, Jr., vaudeville at Hun's Craterian tomorrow, offers novelty and variety, with something out of the ordinary in a lady blackface comedian. The bill gives promise of being one of the best of the season.

Villa and Harold Browne offer "Rag Art. Portrait and scenic effects are produced from a pile of variegated clothes.

Alphonse and Co. offer a Marlonette circus, with a different set of figures than usually seen with a "Punch and Judy."

The De La Plaza Trio, Argentine dancers, a regular Orpheum, Sr., act, substituted on the junior bill, on account of death in the regular billing, will present a program of aesthetic, classical and comedy dances, with special scenic and lighting effects and gorgeous costuming.

Many comedy situations arise in the sketch, "It Pays to Advertise," with Janis and Chaplow. It revolves around a country girl who longs for the footlights. Miss Chaplow is also a clever imitator.

Bertie Herron, billed as the "Minstrel Miss" offers "Koon Kapers," and frolics and sings and chatters behind a burnt cork mask. Assisting her in the act is Miss Arnsman, a singer of popular songs.

"Topics of the Day" and a lively comedy make up the photoplay portion of the vaudeville bill.

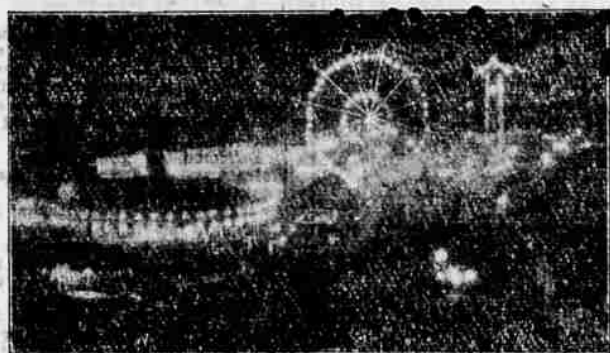

Evangelist to Speak for Salvation Army Again

Griffith Jones, lawyer-evangelist, who spoke to a large crowd at the Salvation Army last night, has been asked to speak again at the same place Tuesday night, commencing at 8 p. m. The crowd who heard Mr. Jones Sunday evidently were pleased with him from the way they listened and even applauded some of his remarks.

Mr. Jones' message Tuesday night will deal with some of his personal experiences before conversion.

Mr. J. W. Tubler, whose singing last night was so pleasing to all, will sing again at Tuesday's service. The public is cordially invited.

Foley & Burk Shows Are Here

Foley & Burke's combined shows arrived in Medford early this morning in their special train and will be open on the lot opposite the S. P. depot this evening and will remain all week.

This company has been coming to said to be one of the best on the road.

Mr. Foley is with the show personally.

Featured among the many mechanical devices this season and one that has created more favorable comment than any of the other new or old rides on the five acre midway, is the "Merry Mix Up. This riding device offers many thrills and much entertainment, not only for the patron, but for the spectator as well.

The popular favorites will also be in evidence, such as the gigantic caterpillar, whip, carrousel, sea-planes, Ferris wheel, merry go round and the several kiddies' rides for the entertainment of the children exclusively.

In addition to the many mechanical features they will present an all-featured circus performance, a colossal circus side show and high class exhibitions and concessions.

PEOPLE URGED TO BUY TICKETS FOR THE PAGEANT

"For the last time," said a pageant promoter this morning, "I want to call attention to our sale of Patron tickets which opens today, and try to impress upon our friends the necessity of a quick response. This for two reasons: one, we are going to discontinue this sale just as soon as we get enough subscriptions to cover our budget (if we do); and secondly this pledge sale is absolutely necessary to enable us to go on with our plans for the pageant."

"We have everything ready to shoot now, but if we should fail to get the response from the public that we expect, it would indicate a lack of interest in the pageant that would cause us to halt our plans, for it would be very poor business to try to go on with a show that didn't appeal to any considerable number of our people. If they really want a pageant this year, surely our plans that save 16.2-3 per cent on the price of tickets ought to pull big. You know these tickets are $5.00, and entitle the holder to $6.00 worth of seats; they are transferrable and good any performance. Five people can go in together and get one of these tickets which will give them four $1.50 box seats or six $1.00 seats. These tickets are on sale today. Call us up, 323-W, and give in your subscription. Cash isn't absolutely necessary, but your pledge to attend, is."

DE MOLAY DANCE AT MASONIC HALL

After their meeting Thursday night the De Molays will stage a dance in the Masonic hall. The banquet put on last Thursday evening was a big success; a large crowd turned out, a fine program was arranged and the eats were very good. All visiting De Molays were welcome to come up to the banquet and quite a few did. At the dance all out-of-town members who can are urged to come up and get acquainted and have a good time.

The meeting will be called promptly at 7:30 and the dance, which immediately follows the meeting, will probably start about 9 o'clock. All De Molays should come up and help show the visiting members a good time. If you don't know how to dance come up anyway and learn. There will never be a better chance.

The committee in charge of the De Molay dance has extended a cordial invitation to all members who do not dance to attend Thursday's affair and learn.

Valley Ministers Picnic Today The Rogue Valley Ministerial association held their last session today before the summer vacation and as has been their custom they are making of it their annual picnic with their families. The Medford ministers are hosts this year. They are spending the day at the Elks picnic grounds on the Rogue.

Ministers from all parts of the valley met here this morning and accompanied by their families left for the river, Ashland, Grants Pass, Talent, Butte Falls, Central Point, Jacksonville, Rogue River, Phoenix and Medford are represented in the association which meets bi-monthly.

Dress Suits Unnecessary It will not be necessary, it has been announced, for those who have been invited to attend the military ball, to be given tonight at 9 o'clock in honor of the officers of the Oregon National Guard by the office of Co. A of Medford, to wear dress suits or other strictly formal attire.

Notice School Dist. No. 102 will receive bids for transporting children from said district to Medford school district for coming school year. Bids to be in the hands of the clerk by June 20th. School board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Address MRS. R. A. MATTHEWS, Clerk S. Dist. No. 102, R. F. D. No. 3.

RECEPTION FOR NEW PASTOR AT CHURCH TONIGHT

The First Baptist church of Medford will hold a reception this evening from 8 until 10 o'clock for the newly-elected pastor, Rev. E. T. Eaton, and family. The following program will be rendered in the regular assembly rooms, followed by a social hour and refreshments in the recreation rooms: Community singing; Solo (selected), Mr. Butler; Scripture reading, Rev. E. T. Lawrence.

Prayer, Rev. De Yoe. "Welcome to the City," Mayor Alenderter.

"Welcome to Ministerial Association," Rev. Coan. Piano solo, Margaret Holmer.

"Welcome to Southern Oregon," Rev. Mosher and Rev. Woodruff. "Welcome to Medford Baptist Church," Deacon William Davis. Duet, Rev. and Mrs. De Yoe.

"Welcome to Ladies' Auxiliary," Mrs. Hans Holmer. "Welcome to Bible School," Superintendent Anderson. "Welcome to B. Y. P. U.," Elton Waldron.

"Welcome to Boy Scout Association," Mr. Cook. Response, Rev. E. T. Eaton. Piano solo, Mrs. Anderson. Closing prayer, Rev. Howe.

"Flaming Forties" Fine Action Drama

A picture dealing with the eventful days of '49, but "The Flaming Forties," Tarry Carey's latest starring vehicle, which had its premiere at the Rialto Theatre yesterday and closes tonight. Possibly never has Carey done better work than in this vivid picturization of "Tennessee's Pardner," Bret Harte's story of life of the wide western plains.

The picture is full of thrills and typical Carey fights of the "flying fist" variety. The realism with which the renegade Indian attack on the hero has been executed is very exciting.

Harold Bell Wright's "The Mine With the Iron Door" will have its local premier at the Rialto tomorrow matinee at the Rialto.

Pat O'Malley, Robert Frazer, Raymond Hatton, Creighton Hale, Charles Murray, Mitchell Lewis and Mary Carr are in the cast.

TRIBUTE OF SILENCE PAID BY DISABLED VETERANS TO PALS

OMAHA, Neb., June 22.—(A. P.)—Battle scarred "buddies" of the World war met in Omaha today for the fifth national convention of the Disabled American Veterans.

Today's initial session comprised largely of prayer and tribute to their former comrades—a prayer and tribute that was signified by a period of silence during which there was a simultaneous placing of D. A. V. wreaths upon the tombs of the "Unknown Soldier" at Arlington, Rome, London, Paris and Brussels.

With this tribute of silence, broken by the singing of "Taps," and the Star Spangled Banner, by Mme. Schumann-Heink, famous singer, herself a gold star war mother, the Disabled Veterans heard messages of felicitation and encouragement from President Coolidge, Vice-President Dawes, General Pershing, Marshal Foch and others.

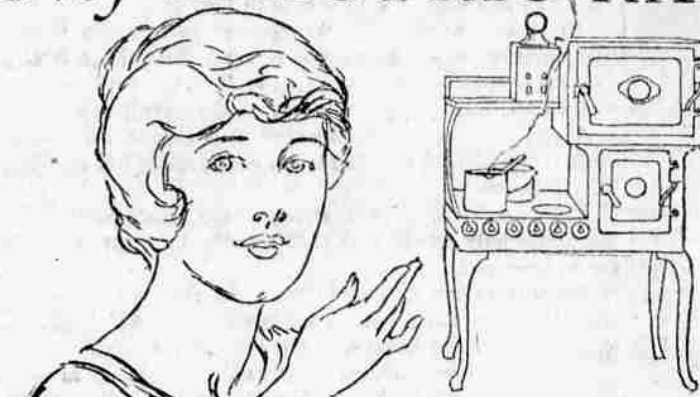

None of these dignitaries was sent to attend the convention and sent the messages of good will by telegraph and mail.

"My ELECTRIC RANGE"

ECONOMY isn't the only reason why housewives take such a natural pride in their electric ranges.

It's one of the practical reasons, of course—like the quick, clean, electrical heat, the freedom from fuel and ashes, the better roasts and baking.

But after all, these might be a man's reasons for equipping his home with an electric range. Woman's reasons go deeper. If you wish to see what every woman thinks of clean, convenient, efficient electrical appliances throughout the home, notice the pride with which she says, "MY electric range."

There is now an electric range in one out of every seven houses on the COPCO system.

Select one for your home from the models on display at your nearest dealer's. Convenient payments may be easily arranged.
