

WONDERFUL SPIRIT SHOWN BY PEOPLE OF SANTA BARBARA

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 1.—(A. P.)—Defiant in the face of disaster which gripped their fair city on the Pacific's shores during the last 24 hours and left many of the beautiful homes and business blocks in earthquake ruins, the residents of Santa Barbara today began a program of re-construction with the indomitable cheerful spirit of pioneers in a virgin land.

Up and down the fourteen blocks of State street, the principal thoroughfare, which was laid waste by earth's temblor, the sound of workmen held away. Their tune was to the crashing of gaunt walls crashing to the ground to make way for the approaching builders, the clatter and buzz of hammer and saw.

Grocery stores, produce houses and other business enterprises, whose shells had remained intact, reopened their doors today with confidence.

From them the residents were returning to their homes, for the most part deserted for open lawns, with arms laden with provisions. The rest of shop keepers with patron was in evidence everywhere.

At the homes the housewives prepared to return the furniture to the house whence it had been removed to the lawn at the first temblor. Everywhere the husband busied himself with hammer and saw to restore the family abode to its former self. The musical scrape of the mason's trowel was also heard in the rebuilding of chimneys and fire places throughout the city.

All the banks re-opened in temporary quarters.

Fortune smiled with the beaming man on J. W. George, crippled veteran of many quakes. He owns a small frame fruit stand on the edge of the stricken area. As he hobbled about to dispense his wares today he was glad the "quake didn't get the two upper stories of the six foot stand."

New Meighan Feature Hunt's Craterian

Thomas Meighan with Lila Lee as leading woman, makes "Old Home Week" at the Hunt's Craterian theater today and tomorrow a pretty hard combination to beat.

The film tells the story of a man who came home with a brass band in front of him and the sheriff behind.

When he arrives in company with rich men everybody takes him for a winner. He is feted and dined and made a fuss over. Then the time comes when the whole framework of unintended deceit falls to tottering about Tom. Despised by all, even his girl, he seeks to make good.

Meighan has the type of role that he can play to perfection. For lovable humor, quaint philosophy, mingled with explosive suspense, "Old Home Week" is hard to beat. Lila Lee in the leading feminine role is more appealing than ever. Incidentally this is Miss Lee's farewell appearance on the screen. Others in the cast are Charles Sellon, Max Figman, Larry Wheat.

The usual Craterian short film and Betty Brown at the organ, completes the program.

Air Mail Thriller At Rialto Theatre

The once little thought of air mail, now pioneering the way in commercial aviation and demonstrating that it is practicable to operate cargo carrying planes on schedule time over vast distances, day and night, winter and summer, becomes a screen thriller now playing at the Rialto theater in "The Air Mail."

Warner Baxter, Billie Dove, Mary Brian and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., have featured roles in the production. Scenes of the picture take place at Sacramento and Reno, two big stations along the air route, and in a "deserted city" where Billie Dove and her father, victims of a poor real estate deal, live. Kane is forced down near Billie's home during a storm. He meets her, and from then on they are the very best of friends.

Young Fairbanks furnishes a real thrill in the picture when he leaps from Baxter's jangling plane with the precious mail packet.

Ben Turpin has even more tumblers and side-splitting antics than usual in "The Raspberry Romance," a Mack Sennett comedy. There is a good news reel, and Peggy Ridley at the organ renders a musical interpretation satisfying to the lovers of organ music.

DRY AGENTS ARE GIVEN A BANQUET WITH COCKTAILS

WASHINGTON, July 1.—(A. P.)—When four employes of Washington's newest hotel, the Mayflower, served up a banquet recently for a party of 17 and provided appetizers of an allegedly pre-Volstead nature, they were unaware they were catering to 17 prohibition and department of justice agents. They became aware of it yesterday, however, when they were brought before United States Commissioner Turnage and charged with violation of the prohibition laws.

The four, Jules Venice, maître de hotel; Dinardo Blazi, assistant chef; John Mendas, bellboy, and Ralph E. Jones, waiter, were released in bonds ranging from $1000 to $5000. Mendas, described by Commissioner Turnage as a "tool," was said to have confessed his part in the affair.

The banquet was arranged, it was declared, when a prohibition agent, registered at the hotel as an "iron and steel man," from San Francisco, asked Venice if he could provide good liquor for his banquet guests. Information filed by the agents said Venice agreed to "fix that all right."

More than five bottles of whiskey and 24 cocktails were served to the agents, they asserted.

U. S. FLEET SAILS FOR SOUTH SEAS AND AUSTRALIA

HONOLULU, July 1.—(A. P.)—Nearly every port of prominence in Australia, New Zealand and Tasmania, as well as all the American South Sea possessions, except Guam, will get a glimpse of some portion of the detachment of the 55 United States naval vessels which left here today for a "friendship" cruise of three months.

The Isles of Tahiti, Tai-o-Hae, Nukuhiva, Marquesas and Calapagos Island will be visited by certain craft. The trip as a whole, will constitute the longest and most extensive maneuvers ever carried out by the American fleet. The journey to Australia is the largest peacetime steaming venture to be made by the United States; the round-the-world squadron of Admiral Evans in 1908 contained only 18 vessels.

The armada will proceed from Honolulu to latitude 38 degrees, 10 minutes, approximately a day's sailing from Australia. Here the fleet will split. One detachment, headed by the Seattle, will proceed to Melbourne, arriving there July 23. The other detachment, led by the California, flagship of Admiral S. S. Robinson, commander in chief of the battle fleet, will go to Sydney.

HEAD OF U. S. DRY FORCES MAY RUN FOR GOV. OF OHIO

WASHINGTON, July 1.—(A. P.)—Roy A. Haynes may soon close four eventful years as prohibition commissioner to contest for the governorship of Ohio. The commissioner is not ready yet to make any formal announcement, but a conference of his supporters will be held here soon to consider the move.

Mr. Haynes, who was said to have been persuaded by President Coolidge to abandon his plans to run for the governorship last November as a prohibition candidate, would seek the republican nomination for the office now held by Governor A. V. Donahay, democrat, in his second term. If he enters the primary, Mr. Haynes will be campaigning at the same time as will Senator Willis, republican, Ohio, if the latter seeks re-election.

The commissioner and the senator are old friends and it is not expected that Mr. Willis will oppose the arrangement.

Commissioner Haynes expects to hold his office until August 1, at least, when new procedure in prohibition enforcement ordered by Assistant Secretary Andrews of the treasury becomes effective.

The new system provides for radical reorganization.

VARIATIONS OF MAYONNAISE [12]

There are many variations of Wesson Oil Mayonnaise. In addition may be listed:

- India Relish Mayonnaise
To one cupful of Wesson Oil Mayonnaise add one or two tablespoonfuls of India Relish and mix. Use with any vegetable, egg, cold meat, or fish salad. India Relish Mayonnaise also makes a delicious sandwich filling, if prepared according to the recipe found on page 15.
- Toasted Nut Mayonnaise
To one cupful of Wesson Oil Mayonnaise add one-quarter cupful of finely chopped toasted almonds, pecans, filberts or pistachio nuts which have been blanched before toasting. Serve with any salad of firm fruit.
- Tartar Sauce
To one cupful of Wesson Oil Mayonnaise add two olives, one gherkin, and one small onion—all chopped fine. Also one tablespoonful chopped parsley. Stir and serve cold with fried or boiled fish or lobster cutlets.
- Dressing
Add one-half cup of whipped cream and sweetened pimento.
- Salad Dressing
Use one cup of Wesson Oil Mayonnaise add two asparagus, lettuce
- Mayonnaise Paste
Use one cup of Wesson Oil Mayonnaise add two parts of paste, softened with one part of oil.

Although salads are good every month of the year, spring and summer are the seasons when nothing is such a boon to the appetite as a cool, crisp, colorful salad. If you would like to have some new recipes for salads and salad dressings, our new booklet, "Salad Dressings," is yours for the asking. Just drop a postal card to the Wesson Oil People, 112 Market Street, San Francisco, Cal.

The State Authorities

To those interested in testimony regarding the absolute safety of funds entrusted to the American building, loan and savings associations, it will be of value to know that every one of the Supervisors and Inspectors of Building-Loan and Savings Associations, in all States where building associations are subject to such supervision and inspection have testified to this safety in their respective states.
