

MEDFORD'S SECY. ATTENDS MEET AT UNIVERSITY

EUGENE, Ore., July 6.—(A. P.)—The fifth annual short course for commercial secretaries started at the University of Oregon this morning. Secretaries representing 150 organizations are expected to attend today and tomorrow, according to E. C. Robinson, dean of the school of business administration.

The group devoted the morning to discussion on protecting the "gullible public" and the automobile tourist problem.

F. O. Hagie of Walla Walla, described the working of the latter business bureau of his city in regard to checking sales of stocks. He also told of a plan worked out with the schools and colleges in that community whereby the annual student publications are put out with the usual advertising from merchants. The saving in the printing bill and equalizing in other ways made it possible for the annuals to be published without the advertising support he outlined.

The tourist movement in Oregon is growing, declared W. A. Hagie of Corvallis and members of the group should devote time and energy to this phase. Adequate automobile camps with standard rates and modern equipment were declared a necessity. Hagie said that a community should also be hospitable at all times to tourists traveling through.

A course in "problems of the secretary" was conducted by Mr. Hagie secretary of the Walla Walla chamber of commerce during the afternoon.

Among the delegates registering today for the course are: Eugene, Charles E. Baker, H. R. Morris, W. G. Ide, Portland; A. Reid, Corvallis; Mrs. Abigail W. Wyatt, Falls City; H. H. Boyd, Medford; J. Antie, Eugene; J. H. Fuller, Ashland; C. S. Fullerton, Astoria; J. C. Grant, Bend.

Tomorrow, Chadwick, secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce will give on self-improvement for the secretary, and the Oregon automobile tax problem will be discussed by J. Dunn, president of the Oregon State Motor association. The meeting will continue all week.

DRAWING VENUE FOR MONKEY TRIAL IN DAYTON, STARTS

DAYTON, Tenn., July 6.—(A. P.)—Twenty-nine special venues were drawn today by the Ohio county court in regular session, for the trial of John T. Scopes, charged with violating the state statute prohibiting the teaching of theories of evolution.

Five of the venues are in the counties of Adams, Anderson, and the list includes a preacher, a physician, a wood worker, and the president of a canning company. The remaining are merchants.

COOKEVILLE, TENN. JULY 6.—(A. P.)

In a telegram to the Associated Press today the Rev. William A. (Billy) Scopes announced that he would be unable to go east in connection with the Scopes evolution trial, but that he intended any case expressed by William Scopes, which is on his way to Dayton, Tenn., for the hearing.

3000 PEOPLE AT COPCO DEDICATION ON KLAMATH RIVER

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., July 6.—Approximately 3,000 people from many points of Southern Oregon and Northern California yesterday attended the dedication of Copco plant number two of the California-Oregon Power company on the Klamath river in northern California.

The plant is the largest of eleven generating plants of the company and has a capacity of 40,000 turbine horsepower.

Following the flag raising and dedication exercises, power company officials were hosts to the crowd at an outdoor luncheon. The afternoon was devoted to an inspection of the plant.

The entire output of the plant has already been sold to a long-time lease to the Pacific Gas and Electric company.

The proper place for a cancer quack, and were routed at the second place.

OIL PROSECUTORS TO ASK RE-TRIAL OF TEAPOT CASE

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 6.—(A. P.)—Federal Judge T. Blake Kennedy today set two o'clock this afternoon as the time for hearing counsel on the court's decree dismissing the government's suit in equity for collection of the Mammoth oil company's lease on the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve.

Before the question of the decree is taken up, however, Owen J. Roberts and Alice Pomerehne, government oil counsel will present a petition to reopen the trial to permit the presentation of additional testimony relating to the Continental Trading company, Ltd., and transactions through which it is alleged that certain liberty bonds found their way from Harry F. Sinclair to former Secretary of the Interior Hall C. H. Henshaw.

Mr. Pomerehne is expected to state that the petition he wants the government would be able to present testimony of Canadian witnesses not available during the trial here last March.

Commander H. C. Stuart, U. S. V., the government's representative in the Teapot Dome controversy, and L. L. Corbett, general manager of the Mammoth Oil company, are here for the hearing.

HILL LINES WILL CONTINUE ADS BOOSTING WEST

SPOKANE, July 6.—Interest in the Pacific Northwest evidenced by inquirers as a result of the joint advertising campaign conducted by the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroads during the last three years, has led to the continuation of the advertising campaign by A. B. Smith, assistant general manager of the Northern Pacific.

Mr. Smith has announced an additional campaign to be run in all the important farm journals of the country, he said. "We are sure that the most interest in agriculture warrants the continuation of our joint advertising."

The Northern Pacific without has received a total of 2,000 inquiries for information about the Pacific Northwest as a result of the advertising campaign and 1,000 inquiries from readers of farm journals also.

The Great Northern will operate 100 special trains to the Pacific Northwest this summer, he said, besides heavy travel on regular trains. The estimated that 250,000 people will visit Yellowstone national park this season.

U. S. CONGRESSMEN TO PROBE POSTAL BOOST

WASHINGTON, July 6.—(A. P.)—Hearings were opened today by a joint congressional committee for exhaustive hearings in various parts of the country on the workings of the new postal rates.

The committee is made up of three members of the senate postoffice committee and three members of the house committee and is headed by Moses, republican, New Hampshire.

It will receive criticisms and suggestions from all places affected.

Hearings will begin in Washington.

Many protests on the new rate have been received, a large number extending the first class rates to be equitable. Attention will be given by the committee to the effect of the rates upon business.

OBITUARY

BRUCE—Kenneth Norman Bruce infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bruce of Central Point passed away Sunday afternoon, July 5, 1925, at 4:30 p. m. at the Purucker Maternity Home, Medford. Funeral services were held this afternoon from the Perl Funeral home and interment made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

FRANCE CHANGES COMMANDERS

Taza has become the center of interest on the Moroccan front. The tribes north of that city, which previously have sided with the French now have rebelled, throwing their support to Abd-el-Krim and thus increasing the danger to Fez from the east.

French official circles, however, express themselves as reassured by the measures being taken to meet this new development.

FEZ, July 6.—The French captured all the arms and munitions of the attacking tribesmen.

These successes, French officials said, have produced an excellent effect on some of the Moroccans whose loyalty to the French have been doubtful of late.

FEZ, French Morocco, July 6.—(A. P.)—The French severely defeated Abd-el-Krim's tribesmen in two engagements yesterday. The Rifians attacked near Ain Matouf and Kiffane. They lost heavily at the first battle and were routed at the second place.

INSTITUTIONS OF STATE SPEND LESS THAN WERE GIVEN

SALLEM, Ore., July 6.—Superintendents of all the state institutions were able to operate their institutions during the first six months of the present year of the first quarter of the biennium within the appropriations granted them by the 1925 legislature. This indicates that all the institutions have a chance to see through the year without cutting in the emergency board to authorize deficiencies.

The reports were made today at the July meeting of the board of control.

A particularly good showing was made by Warren Dalrymple of the state penitentiary who reported that his expenditures for the six months were $850 less than he was given and still remained within the appropriations.

The appropriation granted to the penitentiary by the legislature was $350,000. The per capita expenditure at the prison for the month of June was $21.50 less than at any other time since 1923.

The board of control granted leave to W. J. H. Clark, superintendent of the night school for the blind in Portland, to make a trip east in August in an official capacity, connected with the D. & K. K. K. of the Knights of Pythias, which will pay his expenses of the trip. He will take advantage of the opportunity to visit several institutions similar to the Oregon institution of which he is the head.

Mr. Clark said he expected to enter into a contract with the Portland school board whereby his institution will do all of the piano tuning for the Portland schools.

NO CLUE FOUND TO THE ROBBERY OF SAINT PETERS

ROME, July 6.—(A. P.)—The pope is taking keen interest in the investigation of the robbery of the treasury of St. Peter's Friday night, when thieves escaped with precious objects valued at more than one million lire, but irretrievable because of their significance to the church.

A storm of indignation is found in all circles of Italian life at the audacity of the crime. Ministers of the Interior and Foreign Affairs take personal charge of the police investigation.

The robbery was conducted in a Vatican territory which is not under the jurisdiction of the state and thus the activities of the state authorities are being an unusual reinforcement between the secular and state offices.

The pope is awaiting with anxiety the results of the police investigation.

Although the police have arrested more than twenty persons, it is stated they have not found a tangible clue.

CHILDREN ASLEEP ON RUNNING B'D OF CAR RESCUED

SPOKANE, July 6.—Reuel Ledo, aged 5, and his three-year-old sister, Leah, are safe in the home of the grandmother, Mrs. A. L. Wood, here today after the choice of the running board of their uncle's automobile as a place for a nap yesterday evening had caused no end of a mixup.

Reuel rolled off from his uncle, Elam Wood, had gone off a mile on his way home to Bovilla, Idaho, and passing motorists took him home. He told them his sister also had been on the machine and police sent frantically ahead to stop it.

Soon afterward a service station attendant near the edge of the city telephoned the police he had rescued the boy from the running board of a machine just as it was leaving his place but he had been unable to attract the driver's attention. She had just awakened.

DEBS DIVULGES SOCIALIST PLANS FOR U. S. A. DRIVE

ST. LOUIS, July 6.—(A. P.)—Plans for rebuilding the socialist party in this country to its pre-war strength, unfolded by Eugene V. Debs at the state-wide socialist conference here yesterday, include the locating and construction of permanent headquarters by either St. Louis or Chicago.

The local re-organization launched yesterday makes St. Louis the capital of one out of ten districts in which the socialists have divided the country under their program of reconstruction. The St. Louis district includes Missouri, western Illinois and eastern Iowa.

"In ten years we will get back to our pre-war strength of 150,000 and grow rapidly thereafter until the socialist party is strong enough to realize its ideal," Debs said.

"By the national election of 1928, the socialist party will be a political factor to be reckoned with. It is the first time since the war we have a municipal socialist ticket in the field at Terre Haute, Ind., and we are preparing to put complete socialist tickets into municipal elections everywhere."
