LECTURER HERE TO TAKE PHOTOS OF CRATER LAKE

Walter Layman of New York City, of the Walter Layman travel pictures, arrived by automobile from Portland this morning to visit Crater lake. Mr. Layman is spending the summer in Oregon gathering material for lectures he will give in eastern and middle western states next winter extolling the beauties of the far west to those who have never had the good fortune of seeing them. While here he will take photographs of the lake which he will sell while he presents his lectures to eastern audiences.

Although Mr. Layman has traveled over all the United States and Europe, he says that he has never found a land which impresses him so much as the Oregon country, with its scenery, natural beauty and climate. This winter, he states, he will lecture on the merits of Oregon alone when he commences his lecture tour, which will lead him through many different states in the east.

With him on his trips he has a dog, which it is said is part coyote, and which poses in all photographs he takes. The little animal, which he calls Pocahontas, poses patiently whenever Mr. Layman snaps a picture, but just as soon as she hears the click of the shutter she quickly scampers away.

POULTRYMEN TO MEET AT CORVALLIS

Jackson county poultrymen will have the opportunity to attend the fourth Oregon poultrymen's convention on July 22, 23 and 24, at the Oregon Agricultural college. Camping facilities are available for those who desire to camp, and there will also be accommodations at the dormitories for both men and women, and meals can be secured at low cost. Those wishing to stay at the hotels will find good accommodations at the new Benton hotel.

Professor Lippincott, formerly of Kansas, [illegible] of the poultry department of the University of California and who is recognized as a national authority on poultry, will take part in the program and confer with poultrymen. Dr. W. T. Johnson, one of the best recognized poultry veterinarians in the United States, has accepted a position with the Oregon Agricultural college, and will be present during the conference, and [illegible] poultry diseases that are of interest to all poultrymen. Other subjects which will be included are marketing, culling, caponizing, killing, and in fact all phases of poultry producing.

This is a good opportunity for poultrymen to combine a little pleasure with business and at a low cost take advantage of the conference," [illegible] County Agent C. C. Cate. Detailed programs may be obtained by addressing Poultry Department, Oregon Agricultural college, Corvallis.

PROHI EXPENSES IN COUNTY REDUCED

Prohibition fines collected in Jackson county in June, according to report of the treasurer totalled $296.41. Half of this amount, $148.20, was turned over to the state prohibition fund in accordance with the state law. The other cent was kept by the county.

Prohibition enforcement expenses for the month, according to District Attorney Newt Chaney will total about $30, owing to expenses entailed in precautionary steps.

The expenditures for enforcement in June 1924 under the Sandifer regime were $896.74.

JAMES BELL SELLS NASH HOTEL LEASE

By a deal consummated this morning, the lease and equipment of the Nash hotel, held by James E. Bell, is taken over by J. H. Gossbeck of Roseburg, former landlord of the Roseburg hotel there, and the Grant Hotel in Portland. Gossbeck will take possession today. No consideration involved in the deal was made public.

Small Blaze in Mill District Extinguished

The fire department was called to the end of North Central last evening in the mill district. A large lumber shed sheltering lumber owned by the Tomlin Box factory had caught fire on the north end from sparks issuing out of the large burner a short distance away, and had nearly passed its incipient stage when put under control by mill hands using the factory fire system before the fire department arrived.

No financial loss was suffered from the blaze, save for inconsequential damage to the roof and few boards laying on top of the pile.

KLAMATH LIQUOR CASE COMES UP ON MONDAY NEXT

The petit jury has been called to convene next Monday morning at Jacksonville, to hear the cases of R. Dawson and Nettie Dawson, and B. J. Hodges of Klamath Falls, indicted for violations of the liquor laws. The trial of Mrs. Hodges will be set later. All were arrested in a raid on "The Hut," a wayside store located near Camp Jackson, during the National Guard encampment. It is the first time in 20 years that a session of the petit jury has been called in July. Heretofore the criminal docket has been allowed to lag during the harvest and vacation seasons.

The old jury panel has been recalled with an added venire of eight. The new venire is as follows: N. J. McAllister, S. G. Wright, J. R. Gibson, Edith Fisk Thompson, Benton Bowers, Jr., Uneeta Morgan, [illegible] Stoddard, Chester Applegate, [illegible] Newbry. The old panel is: G. W. Jacobs, [illegible], E. G. Trowbridge, L. S. Brophy, V. S. Canser, Joseph Lester, [illegible] Children, G. R. Satchwell, G. S. Newton, [illegible] Torrey, W. P. Moore, Albert Arnold, W. [illegible] Tucker, L. L. Norcross, [illegible] Eyle, and James S. Orth.

BILLY MONDAY TO VISIT IN CITY

It is rumored that Billy Monday, famous evangelist, has been requested to conduct a series of revival meetings in Medford within the next few weeks, having been in communication for some time past with a committee of Medford citizens regarding the conditions and need for his services here. An infallible way of finding out conditions in any community, states Mr. Monday, is to canvass the citizenry of each city where he contemplates conducting his revival meetings with a view to ascertaining if the men of the city really love their wives.

He states further that it is a waste of time, effort and money to conduct these meetings in a community where the men love their wives. However, it has developed that in many communities there is a doubt as to whether a majority of the married men are really devoted to their wives. Such places, he feels, without any further investigation need his services. In this connection it is thought that with a view of ascertaining if his services are needed here that some secret committee has posted placards and automobile stickers in and adjacent to Medford with the all important question, "Do You Love Your Wife?"

Special Showing Willys-Knight Cars Medford Friday

V. S. Armstrong, Willys-Overland dealer for Jackson county, announces a showing of the new Willys-Knight cars on Friday, July 10, at his show rooms at 123 N. Main street, at 8 p. m.

In addition to the showing of these models, Mr. Armstrong has secured Lee R. Bryant, Willys-Overland factory expert, one of the most entertaining lecturers on internal combustion motors in the automotive industry. He will lecture on the sleeve valve motor and will use to illustrate his talk, complete motors of which sections are cut away showing the working parts.

Mr. Armstrong extends an invitation to all to attend this entertainment and lecture.

The complete showing will include Willys-Knight and [illegible] models, the new Overland and [illegible] models.

B. E. Hyland, who is arranging for the lecture, is in Medford.

COPCO TEAM TO PLAY PHOENIX AT EAGLE PT.

Contrary to popular belief, the Copco ball team will not play Phoenix at Talent next Saturday, as was previously stated. However it has been reported authentically that they will play Phoenix at Eagle Point next Sunday. Upon investigating the unusual chain of circumstances surrounding the game it was found that the Talent diamond, which has been used by the Phoenix team, has grown such a banner crop of hay, grain and weeds that it was thought inadvisable to hold the game there this Sunday. Fortunately Eagle Point stepped forward with the offer of the city diamond, so the game will take place as scheduled except for the substitution of Eagle Point for Talent.

Bowne and Conn will probably be the opening battery for Copco, with Boyd Oliver held in reserve should Bowne be unable to handle the Phoenix sluggers. Phoenix was defeated by the Oren-Oregon team last week and Copco lost to Jacksonville, so it is expected that both teams will be anxious to avenge the defeat and will put up a hard fight to win.

2 More Assassins to Die.

SOFIA, July 9.—(A. P.)—A court martial has sentenced two more men to be hanged and three to prison for shielding the plotters responsible for the Sveti Kral Cathedral bombing in April, which resulted in the death of 160 persons. Six men have been executed for the cathedral outrage.
