GRAIN HARVESTING UNDER FULL BLAST IN SAMS VALLEY

SAMS VALLEY, July 9.—Mrs. Sadie Swenson and daughter of Los Angeles visited last week with Mrs. Swenson's father, J. A. Cook.

Our grain harvesting commenced this week on the Duell & Strang and Hall ranches. Among the farmers there is a promising outlook for a good yield of grain this year.

The Union Sunday school group gathering held here July 28 with a good attendance and an interesting program. The speaking as well as many other numbers of the program were highly commended.

Miss Ruth Wall of Eugene is spending the week at the home of her brother, John Hill.

Most of our citizens spent the day of the Fourth outside the community. Some in Grants Pass but most of them sought the high hills for cool water and cool shade.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steinmetz and young sons, Donald and David, arrived Sunday at the J. A. Cook home from Merced, Cal. Mrs. Steinmetz and children will visit with Mrs. Steinmetz's aunt, Mrs. J. A. Cook, while Mr. Steinmetz attends to some business in Lewiston, Idaho.

Mr. E. A. White spent several days last week visiting with her son Clarence and family at their new home at Lake Creek.

Miss Bertha Fredericks, who makes her home in Medford is spending her vacation with relatives here.

One evening last week a pleasant party was enjoyed at the Edington home when twenty-seven guests met for the occasion of the departure of the Truet family from Gold Hill. The party was a surprise on Mr. Truet who had met with a few others for the purpose of song, recitation and found the house full of guests. Before departure the guests greatly enjoyed a bountiful supply of ice cream.

Mrs. Jack Davis and Miss Irene Holmes of Marshfield visited the early part of the week at the home of Mrs. Davis' sister, Mrs. Geo. Gulovson.

Stephen Wilson recently sold a nutron to Mr. Pickard, the Gold Hill meat market man which he believes has made rather an unusual record. The lamb was taken as a "bummer" from his father's flock of sheep and raised by hand. The fleece sheared this spring weighed 12 lbs. the price of which was at least 50c and the lamb recently sold dressed 60 lbs. and brought $10.80 which with the wool brought the income from the lamb up to $16.80.

Miss Georgiana Gulovson is visiting relatives at the Middlebush home at Trail this week.

One of the most pleasant occasions of the grange yet was enjoyed at the last meeting when 19 new applicants were voted upon and seven new ones initiated. All names were accepted but three applicants were unable to attend.

Our order had the pleasure of enjoying the presence of six members of the Enterprise Grange from Winter who kindly assisted us throughout the evening's work.

The new members are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Koger, Mr. and Mrs. M. Schul, Misses Nora and Donna McDonough and Paul Schulz.

The event was completed with a generous supply of ice cream and cake.

EAGLE P. GRANGE TO GIVE BARBECUE JULY NINETEENTH

EAGLE POINT, Ore., July 10.—The Eagle Point Grange met Tuesday night with the usual business and social meeting. They will be hosts to the other granges of the county at a barbecue on July 19 at the Elks' picnic grounds. Everybody bring a basket of food and join in this good time.

H. W. Ward's sister, Mrs. Evans, and her husband and children are visiting with the Wards. Mr. and Mrs. Acers are also visiting there. Both families are from California.

Miss Hattie Hightford is working in Medford for Mr. Pottinger. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and family of California, new owners of the Meadowbrook farm, have moved on that place. Mr. and Mrs. P. Matlock have moved from that farm to the house occupied by the Henshaws.

Those who motored to Dead Indian Springs July and enjoyed a picnic dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cingade and Lyric, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ashpole and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Pullen and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Weidman and Rudolph John Robertson and children, and Mrs. Lewis Robertson and children.

Many of Eagle Point's citizens attended the various celebrations at Butte Falls, Grants Pass and Klamath Falls, while some took picnic dinners on Rogue river and other inviting spots. The "old swimming hole" down below Tom Cingade's attracted its share of the people, too, as it does every day.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy and Sanford motored to Crescent City over the Fourth and returned safe on Sunday night, as did the young people with Lewis Robertson and his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pearce and family motored to Grants Pass Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McPherson returned home Wednesday from Portland, where they made a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone and small son of Santa Barbara, Cal., are visiting. Mrs. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brown.

William Coy returned home from the beach Wednesday, where he has spent ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson motored to Capeo Sunday to attend the dedication of project No. 2. They report the best of entertainment. The roads are in excellent condition outside of being narrow between Hornbrook and Capeo.

H. W. Henshaw and son, John, left for the construction camp near Mt. Pitt, where they will work for the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Henshaw and Lota expect to join them Monday.

The Misses Alice and Marcia Whaley visited their sister in Butte Falls over the Fourth.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Wilson's sister and sons of Hume, Ill., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McDonald are entertaining their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Donovan, and Dr. and Mrs. Harper of Cambridge, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. O'Brien of Santa Barbara, Cal., are visiting with the Browns.

UNION CREEK NOTES

The Fourth week Sunday School was rather small this week, so many being away for the Fourth. Rev. Mr. Wilson will be present again next Sunday at 10 o'clock.

Wm. McCarty and wife spent the Fourth at Kingsburg Springs visiting G. W. Lance and wife.

Marion Lance and wife spent the Fourth at Prospect. They returned Tuesday.

Charles and Pauline Champlin visited the Shoo children Tuesday.

F. D. Elmann is moving out his cuff and packing it to ship to Pasadena.

Mr. Ella Short and son Harry are very much pleased with their new home in Phoenix. She celebrated the Fourth by getting into the yard for the first time in her wheel chair.

Johnny Donnegan has 17 1/2 year old job and gone to live on his Evans Creek ranch.

The print shop on Fooths Creek is doing considerable business at present.

Leslie Carow was seen driving up the creek in his auto Tuesday.

Many Medford people spent the week-end here. The Strang family, Mr. and Mrs. Swen, Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, Van Gilst, wife and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bollerger being among the number.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoots of Hornbrook and Mr. Peters and family of Hill, Cal., were guests of Mrs. Satchwell July 4th. They drove to the lake while here.

The cottages on the river were full of guests for the week-end. The Beckelheimer delicatessen and the Griess lunch room were both very busy places, caring for the guests over the 4th.

Mr. Smith of the Weaver farm returned to Medford Sunday night after a week's stay at the farm.

Mrs. Angie Engle and daughter, Miss Gertrude, accompanied by Mr. Shepard and Mrs. Wagner from Ashland were calling at the Satchwell studio Monday afternoon.

Many tourists passed the unusual number of deer seen from the road this week.

The weather at this point is ideal, not too warm but warm enough, with cool nights.

Sunday Union Creek was alarmed by the report of a small boy lost from one of the cabins. Volunteers joined the family in a wide search. When found he was two miles down the road and had been picked up by a tourist and was being returned. Frank Amy returned Tuesday from a week's visit in Medford.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul La West and two sons and niece, Miss Margaret West, from Seattle, relatives of Mr. Amy, are visiting him here en route to the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Evanson are established in their summer home. He is superintendent of the government highway work at this point. They have as their guests for the summer Miss Lorraine and Francis Pelech of Port Dodge, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Plummer are also their guests for a few days' visit. Their home is in Seattle.

Mrs. Rose Schiefelin arrived Tuesday for a week's visit as a guest of Mrs. Satchwell at the studio.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burrows were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wissing this week.

The One Safe Policy

Not All "Sales" Are Unworthy, but We Know that MANY OF THEM ARE

The Golden Rule Store, in its 15 years of merchandising, has never advertised or held a "sale." This policy has placed this concern before the buying public for just what it is—an advocate of clean merchandising, not occasionally, but EVERY DAY in the YEAR.

We believe that where a policy is at all questionable as to its character or worthiness the one safe bet is to LEAVE IT ABSOLUTELY ALONE.

Everyone knows that the "sales method," to say the least, is much abused. It is a destroyer of confidence. Knowing this, we always have and always will refuse to engage in this "lure" to gain patronage.

If the merchandise is priced right at the start, the "sale" is not necessary to get business, so we say

The one safe policy for both merchant and consumer is to stay clear of tainted methods
