

300 DELEGATES C. E. CONVENTION, VISIT ASHLAND

ASHLAND, July 12.—Luncheon in Lithia park was the feature of the entertainment given for the C. E. delegates to the number of three hundred, Saturday. The two sections of the train from Portland were over an hour late, yet a drive, which included the old normal grounds, the new site and drives about the city was managed. They were then taken to the park where luncheon was served by the young church people of the city. The young visitors expressed themselves highly pleased with the entertainment provided and voiced their delight in the northwest, the wonderful convention and the city in which it was held.

E. D. Biggs, W. M. Briggs, S. F. Provost, E. Peruzzi, Milford Grubb, James Smith and James W. Dunn are among those attending the C. E. convention in Portland this week. Loveland's orchestra left last night for Portland, where they will play at the convention.

A A-Madden's new Ford car was stolen from where he parked it in Lithia park at the band concert the other night. He had had it filled with gasoline and oil and his wife's coat was in the car, so the thieves could make a quick getaway. Up till Saturday noon nothing had been heard of it.

Mrs. Mary E. Chisholm, aged 45, died Saturday morning at the Community hospital. She had been ill for a number of years. Mrs. Chisholm is survived by her husband, Dr. J. P. Chisholm, and a number of children. Funeral services are held this morning from the Catholic church, with interment in Mountain View cemetery.

The group representing the regular Baptist took possession of the Baptist church Saturday. It will be closed for repairs for several days, following which services will be held each Sunday, the Rev. G. W. Casady of Wichita, Kansas, occupying the pulpit. Services were held yesterday at the I. O. O. F. hall as usual.

The past two weeks Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mathews were guests of relatives and friends in Ashland. They were former residents, but now live in Davisville, California. They left for their home the latter part of the week.

An unusually attractive home wedding occurred Wednesday, July 8, when Miss Alice Johanna Brown and O. W. Callahan were united in marriage. The Rev. P. K. Hammond of Trinity Episcopal church reading the service. Miss Ruth Brown was maid of honor and Ernest Prien supported the groom as best man. The bride was lovely in powder blue and wore a delicate shade of brown in soft crepe. The living room was beautiful in its floral arrangement, a great bank of Shasta dahlias being the bridal party. The wedding breakfast was served immediately following the ceremony, at which covers were laid for fourteen. The flowers used were white Canterbury bells with place cards in wedding bells and the bride's cake, an artistic creation, occupying place of honor as centerpiece. Mrs. Callahan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Brown, has grown to womanhood in our midst, and is one of Ashland's popular girls. Mr. Callahan is well known in San Jose, where they will make their home. A short wedding trip was taken after which Mr. and Mrs. Callahan returned and joined the house party in a number of delightful outings before going to San Jose, California, where they will be at home to their friends at 144 Park avenue. Just the immediate family and the members of the house party were present at the ceremony. The out-of-town guests were: Marceling Brophy of Los Banos; the Misses Alma and Edna Prien, San Francisco; Mr. Ernest Prien San Francisco; Roy Gaskin, Los Banos; Mrs. M. L. Rowland, Portland; Miss Ruth Brown, Los Banos. A host of friends offer the best of good wishes to these two young people.

On Friday the house party and Mr. and Mrs. Callahan visited Diamond and Crater lakes, returning by way of Klamath Falls today. Prior to this Miss Brophy, Miss Prien, Miss Ruth Brown, Miss Gaskin, Mr. Prien and J. Kenneth Brown had spent a day at the Josephine caves. During the stay of the house party there has been a round of gayety arranged for them. They are all leaving shortly for their various homes.

E. H. Smith and C. B. Haney were Grant Pass visitors recently. The visit combined business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKinnis and two children are visitors at the Ingle home with a number of relatives here. They are from Springfield, Oregon. The Victoria falls yesterday viewing them under most favorable conditions. He showed great enthusiasm, declaring it was the most wonderful sight he ever had seen.

PIRATES RETAIN LEAD AS GIANTS LOSE TO CHICAGO

NEW YORK, July 12.—(A. P.)—The Pirates were still leading the National league this morning, notwithstanding a Sabbath defeat by Brooklyn.

Zach Taylor of Brooklyn did his best for his club by facing out a home run in the ninth, to make the score 4 to 3, but meanwhile Chicago upset the Giants in a six-inning rout at the Polo grounds and the Corsairs are still a few points higher up the ladder than New York.

With Chicago one run ahead of the Giants and the Braves leading, Gabby Hartnett's disgust over ruinings of the umpire took the form of a wild heave. Young promptly roused home with the tying run, forcing the game into extra innings. In the eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth, the Cubs threatened but the deciding run did not come until Grisham doubled in the sixteenth. The final score was 9 to 5.

Balancing the twin defects of leading National league contenders, but Washington and Philadelphia triumphed in the American. Winning streaks were shattered by both visitors. St. Louis' Browns fell before an eighth inning rally by the champions 5 to 3, while Eddie Rommel gave the Tigers but a single run as he scattered eight hits to yank the Athletics out of their slump, 8 to 1.

Twenty-one hits were made by Philadelphia. The White Sox blanked the Yankees 5 to 0, and Cleveland smothered the Red Sox 12 to 2.

THIRD SACKER OF SEALS AGAIN IN LEAD OF LEAGUE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—(A. P.)—Frank Bennett, Seattle sportswriter, is again leading Pacific Coast league leaders with an average of .447, unofficial batting including Saturday's games show.

At the trials, James Craig, who pleaded "The Covered Wagon" made "The Goose Hines High," which will be shown on the local theater three days beginning tomorrow night. It is a story of today, dealing with the new generation and its treatment of the laggards who have held over from another period. The story is told on the screen by Constantine Bennett, Myrtle Stedman, George Irving, Beth Johnston, William R. Coe Jr., Edward Piet, Jr., Gertrude Claire, James A. Marcus, Anne Schaefer, Wall Covington and Arville Evans.

"Married Flirts" features Patric Frederick and Conrad Nagel closes at this theater tonight. There is also a splendid cast.

Notice School District No. 29 will receive bids for transporting children from said district to Medford for coming year. Bids to be in the hands of the clerk by July 23rd.

Notice School No. 1 reserves the right to reject any or all bids, address, ELVIRA S. LEARNED, Clerk School Dist. No. 29, Medford, R. F. D. No. 3.

CAMERA MEN AT TENNESSEE TRIAL ACT LIKE MONKEYS

DAYTON, Tenn., July 12.—(A. P.)—A sultry heat permeated the Rice county court room as the second day of the trial of John T. Rooper began today. Electric fans, ticking, ticking, when everybody sweltered, had been installed and played a part in an effort to make the atmosphere conditions more endurable.

Judge Paulson, taking judicial cognizance of the weather had changed his suit of blue woolen to one of linen.

Blue-uniformed Captain Perkins of the Chattanooga police with a menacing expression on his face stood by the judge's bench and waved a fan.

William Jennings Bryan, collarless and without a coat had a tightly filled leather brief case as he moved to the prosecution counsel table. He seemed prepared for an argument.

Benton McMillan of Nashville, former Tennessee governor, entered and began shaking hands all around the room.

Photographers were climbing like monkeys over the seats and benches and snapping their cameras at the occupants of the rail cars. A movie cameraman ground out several colossal feet of Clarence Barron on one side and Mr. Bryan on the other.

The jurymen sat with hands on their chests, taking panoramic views of the expense of faces.

The opening of court was delayed several minutes while the picture taking brigade shot off its ammunition. The auditorium was again crowded to capacity and scores stood in corridors and along the walls.

At the entrance to the court house, boys laden with cushions posted themselves and peddled their wares to prospective spectators. They found few buyers, however. Scores of persons, unable to find seats, returned to the courthouse lawn and grouped themselves about amplifiers.

JUDGE IN DAYTON TRIAL GIVES HIS VIEWS OF DUTY

DAYTON, Tenn., July 12.—(A. P.)—Judge John C. Paulson, presiding at the Rooper trial here today, gave his opinions of the necessary qualifications of a judge in an interview granted to newspaper reporters here.

"In the maintenance of a republican form of government, it is essential that power be distributed into legislative, judicial and executive departments," said the judge.

"The judicial department has no concern as to the motives, wisdom or policy of statutes; therefore it should be absolutely non-political. No person should be elevated to judicial office because of his political affiliation or partisan activities. 'Fitness and temperament had to be paramount in the selection of all judicial officers.

"Speaking more in detail a judge should be industrious, patient, conscientious, courageous and firm. He should be well grounded in the fundamentals of the law and his character should be absolutely superlative.

"In the very nature of things, there can be no such combination as a dishonest individual and an honest judge in the same personality. The standards of dishonesty and those of integrity are too inconsistent and incompatible for the same mind.

"The judge should begin all investigations with an open mind and should never hastily and rashly rush to conclusions.

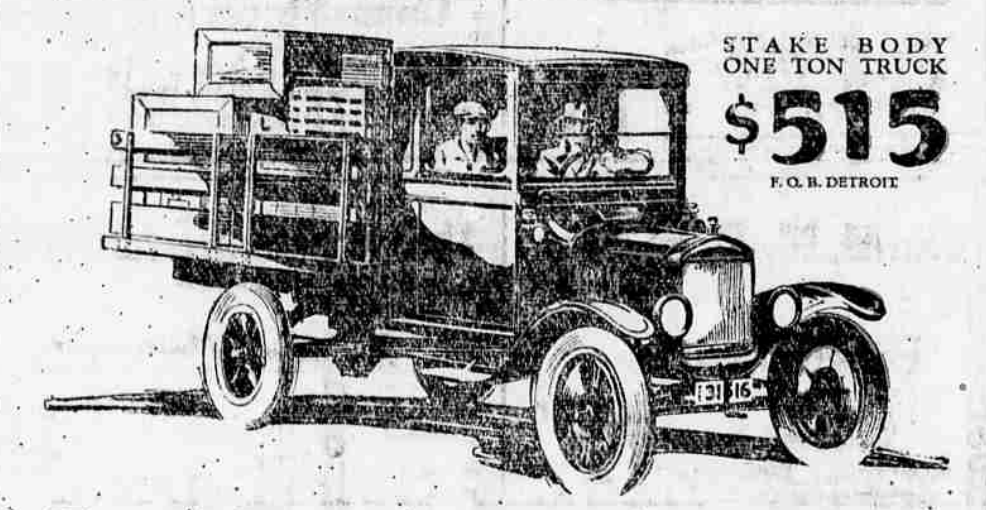

"So long as there is any question of law or fact in doubt, he should diligently inquire for the truth.

"No judge should use the functions of his office for his individual advantage and to the detriment of the public. He should always remember that he is merely a trustee and that the powers and privileges of office do not belong to him and are not subject to personal application."
