LICENSE FIGURES SHOW ONLY 35 DOGS IN COUNTY

According to license reports filed with the state veterinarian, there are only 35 dogs in Jackson county, and there seems to be some discrepancy in figures, as there are that many on Main street, this city, any pleasant afternoon. However, this is a popular dog section, as Douglas county has but nine, Hood River five, Grant six and Sherman three. In the entire state there are only 11,867 dogs. In 1924 there were 233 dogs in this county, according to the license issued. The shortage of dogs is thought to be due largely to the indifference of owners in paying licenses for them. When Chauncey Flory was county clerk he estimated there were 3500 dogs in the county, at the minimum.
