Local and Personal

The shake up in the state game commission by which Captain A. E. Burghduff, state game warden, is returned to private life, is much regretted by all the Medford and Jackson county sportsmen with whom Captain Burghduff is a big favorite. Local sportsmen are wondering whether this shakeup will result in Patrick Daily of Medford and Roy Parr of Ashland, special state game warden and county game warden respectively, in being retired from their positions, and Jackson county sportsmen generally hope that these two officers will be retained.

CATTLE PRICES IN CHICAGO SOARING

CHICAGO, July 15.—(A. P.)—High prices for corn have led to a big shortage of well finished beef steers and to an oversupply of grass-fed cattle. So few desirable matured steers arrived here today that top record prices since 1920 were again smashed, with the market for choice meat animals showing a jump of $1.25 a hundred weight in the last two weeks.

Today's top price for prime cattle was $14.24, a rise of $2.60 since last May.

LOCAL FOREST FIRES NOW UNDER CONTROL

Of the 10 forest fires which were caused by lightning in the Crater National forest during Saturday and Sunday, the fire burning near Needle Rock, some distance south of Woodruff Meadows, is the largest and most dangerous according to Lee P. Brown, forest examiner, who returned from the scene of the fire last evening. This blaze covered only three acres, but was in a very thick stand of timber. Mr. Brown, who was in charge of the firefighting crew, states the fire is entirely under control, more than half the crew leaving last night, two men being left to patrol the burning area until every spark is entirely out.

Every fire of the ten reported could have been serious had it not been for the efficient lookout system which allowed fire fighting crews to reach the blazes before they could become dangerous or be of any size.

JUNK DEALER IS CONVICTED; JURY OUT 20 MINUTES

A jury in the circuit court Tuesday afternoon, returned a verdict of guilty against T. Edy, junk dealer of this city, tried for a statutory offense involving a ten year old Gold Hill girl. Date for passing sentence has not been set. The jury deliberated 20 minutes, and took but one ballot. The defendant was represented by Borden and Gaylord and the state by Deputy District Attorney Moulton.

In the closing minutes of the trial the defense filed a demurrer to the indictment against Edy, based upon highly technical legal and grammatical points. The court overruled the demurrer.

In a memorandum to the demurrer the rhetorical weakness of the indictment was set forth as follows:

"There is no auxiliary verb 'did,' with the verb 'know,' and it is a logical reading to connect with the verb 'know,' the auxiliary verb 'did.' The non-appearance of the auxiliary verb 'did,' with the well-known verb 'know,' causes the indictment to be void for uncertainty.'"

Legally, the demurrer also stated there was "insufficient facts stated to constitute a crime," the "defendant is accused of the commission of more than one crime," and the age of the defendant is not stated in the indictment.

Edy is well known in this city, and a year ago was arrested on a charge of dog poisoning, and acquitted.
