FOR FIRST TIME, 19,950 FT. IN AIR

CORDOVA, Alaska, July 16.—(A.) Three men of the party of six mountain climbers who scaled Mount Logan, whose peak, towering 19,950 feet in the air had heretofore defied ascension, have returned to Cordova. The others have not returned, but are supposed to be drifting down the Chitina river on a raft.

H. F. Lambert of Ottawa, one of those returning, is in a hospital with frozen feet. Two others are Norman H. Reid of Boston and Andrew Taylor packer of McCarthy. They drifted down the Chitina river on a raft, the party dividing and building two rafts for the descent after the river was reached.

Reaching the summit at 8 p. m. on June 23, the party remained there for 25 minutes. During the descent they were overtaken by a blinding snow storm. Unable to reach their camp lower down the mountainside they dug holes in the snow and stayed there until noon the next day. It was during this night that the men suffered frost bitten hands and feet.

Make Your Dining Room
A Room of Beauty and a Joy Forever
On Our Installment Plan, Too

Twenty years ago only the very wealthy could have aspired to the lovely Period suites pictured. TODAY, anyone may have dining room furniture of real distinction.

There's a certain robustness of character, a "homey" atmosphere of stability in this new suite of which you will never weary. It is finished in American walnut in beautiful two-tone effect and comes in such a variety of pieces that you are sure to find the combination you wish. A choice of three tables, including a library-dining table, all of which have folded leaves concealed in top, and three buffets is offered.

The set complete, as pictured above, with four additional dining chairs, is $225. Separate pieces may be purchased at: Dining Table, $39.50; Buffet, $59.50; China Cabinet, $59.50; Chairs, $9.50; Arm Chair, $13.50; Server, $25.50. Instead of the 66-inch buffet shown, a 54-inch buffet can be furnished at $39.50, or a 60-inch buffet at $49.50. Remarkably low prices, these, for high-grade furniture! Just come in and see.
