GERMANS AID RIFFS CLAIM OF FRENCH WHO LACK PLANES

PARIS, July 17.—(A. P.)—Total French casualties so far in the Moroccan war with Abd-El-Krim's Riffians are given by the Petit Journal in a Fax dispatch as 4148. Of these, 707 were killed, 2775 wounded and 666 missing. The Petit Journal's Fax correspondent says Abd-El-Krim has so reduced the French effectiveness in Morocco that they are daily becoming less efficient. French troops, because their numbers are insufficient, are compelled to be in the fighting line constantly, with no rest periods whatever. They are carrying on under terrific heat and the correspondent insists it is imperative they be relieved soon. He demands additional aviation units and says the present French bombing planes in Morocco have a radius of only 18 miles over the enemy lines and that pursuit planes are badly needed. The correspondent declares that German officers are fighting with Abd-El-Krim. One, he says, is named Von Dietrich, a former member of General Von Hindenburg's staff. He advocates the bombardment of Adjir, Abd-El-Krim's headquarters, by the Spanish fleet or by French airplanes, and declares it is necessary for the French to use native methods of warfare against the Riffians—meaning the destruction of property and confiscation of harvests, the penalizing of tribes who do not assist the French and the taking of hostages from tribes whose fidelity wavers. He says Abd-El-Krim took 200 hostages from the Beni Zeronal clan, shot half of them and inflicted a fine of 2,000,000 francs on the tribe in addition to confiscating quantities of its goods. The writer says Marshal Lyautey, French active commander in Morocco, has "seen the necessity of this procedure" and that he is organizing a force to put it into practice.
