

Local and Personal

There seems no end in sight to the present heat wave, which has been steadily rising for several days with maximums of 105.5 yesterday, 102.5 Wednesday and 95.5 on Tuesday, despite the fact that the temperature at 8 a. m. today was six degrees lower than yesterday morning's temperature at the same hour, and the temperature at 1 o'clock this afternoon was 98. The prediction for tomorrow, issued by the San Francisco weather bureau, forecasts only fair weather. Last night was another very warm night, with the result that many citizens did not get their usual amount of sleep.
