

Local and Personal

The Flying Squadron, recently organized by the Crater National Forest service under the charge of Ranger W. L. Jones to fight forest fires when necessary, answered their first call of the season when they were summoned to fight fire in the Umpqua national forest near Diamond lake last Friday. The fire is said to be 100 acres in area, but at the present time is being put under control. The squadron is expected to return tomorrow to their headquarters on the Soda Spring road, where its members are engaged in road building.

Orders taken for angel food and sunshine cake, 75 cents each, 737 W. 14th street. Phone 224-L. 105

Typewriter rentals, overhauling, adjusting. New and second hand, Medford Book Store. 103

Russell (Hester) Coleman who has been enjoying a vacation at home after several years' residence in Honolulu, left last evening on the return trip to that Hawaiian Island metropolis. He will sail from San Francisco for Honolulu next Wednesday.

Fresh salt water salmon, 25c lb. Johnson Produce Co. 104

Party wants to share expenses with some one going to Portland Tuesday. Call Barton, Western Union. 103

More ice cream was sold in this city on Saturday and Sunday than was sold during the July 4th double holiday period. The wholesale manufacturing concerns were kept on the jump, delivering to retailers, and almost ran out of ice cream by 9 o'clock last night.

The Handicraft Shop has received a new line of attractive baby gifts. 107

New and useful gifts for the baby. Handicraft Shop. 107

Fancy creamery butter 47c per lb. Johnson Produce Co. 104

Many Medford people visited the Lake of the Woods yesterday, a number of whom went to that high mountain resort lake Saturday.

Yes, the house, contents and trees were all insured with R. A. Holmes, "The Insurance Man." 102

Have your eyes examined by Dr. De La Rhuze, Eyesight Specialist, 425 Medford Building. 105

Jack Aitken of San Francisco and former well known resident of Medford for years, arrived in the city Sunday from Portland where he attended the Elks' convention last week, for a visit with relatives and friends here until Wednesday or Thursday. While Jack has been living at San Francisco for the past four years and likes it there, he will never get over his love for Medford. While he has been away from home Mrs. Aitken has been enjoying a vacation at Long Beach. Jack says that Medford looks like a million dollars and never looked better.

Special for Friday and Saturday—Supplies for the nursery, including many useful articles. Handicraft Shop. 107

23 piece hand painted Oriental tea set, on sale at $4.95. Japanese Art Store. 105

Kiwanis clubs of Eugene and Bend are planning a joint picnic on the McKenzie highway about half way between the two cities.

Yes, the house, contents and trees were all insured with R. A. Holmes, "The Insurance Man." 102

45 inch pure linen lunch cloths on sale at $1.65. Jap Art Store. 105

W. J. Weaver, proprietor of the Umpqua hotel at Roseburg, and of the Yreka Inn in northern California, was in the city this morning, spending a few hours after having returned from an outing at Diamond lake.

Marcel and bob curl 75c. Tel. 436-R. 523 So. Ivy. 107

If you took it over you will fall for this neat little suburban home, $1281. Terms, Phone 452-R. 941

Among tourists and others from a distance who arrived in Medford yesterday are Mrs. L. V. Smith of Warrenton, N. J., Mrs. U. S. Penner and T. Penner and party of Brantford, Tex., C. P. Clark of Olean N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell of Honolulu, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. West, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Euckner, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Eucher of Reno, Nev.

Fresh salt water salmon, 25c. lb. Johnson Produce Co. 104

$10 reward will be paid to the finder of Talent Irrigation bond coupon number 372, if presented to any bank in Medford. 103

A squad of the local Boy Scouts will return today from the Boy Scouts camp at Lake of the Woods, and other squad of boys from this city will go up to the camp today for their recreation stay there.

Jordan Stout's garage has moved to 30 N. Holly. 103

Women's and children's hobs at the Highway Barber Shop, 10 North Riverside Ave. 107

Will G. Steel, the U. S. commissioner of Crater National park, arrived in the city yesterday, at the park on a short visit, and returned to that location today.

Special for Wednesday—at the Handicraft Shop—stamped runners and pillow tops. Values up to $1.75, your choice 50c. 104

A new suburban house that will appeal to you, $1281. Terms, Phone 452-R. 941

Mr. and Mrs. Will O. Evans and daughter Mary, of Baker, are here after a visit to Crater lake and convention at Grants Pass. Mr. Evans is business manager of the Baker Morning Democrat.

Lustre cream pitchers, sugar bowls and vases on sale at 25c each. Japanese Art Store. 105

Do You Love Your Wife? Prolong her life. Install an electric range—$15.00 down. 104

Among the families who were guests at Merriek's Motor Inn yesterday from a distance were those of R. Macintosh of Saginaw, Mich., Leo Germain of New York City, F. G. Hyder of Kalespell, Vt., B. M. Fairweather of Elizabeth, N. J., C. Bothell of Iowa City, A. G. Stafford of Earlham, Iowa, S. J. Anderson of Chickasha, Okla., Thomas Norris of Jonesboro, Ill., Charles Surtle of Freeland, Mich., and H. H. Milles of Terre Haute Ind.

Special for Wednesday—at the Handicraft Shop—stamped runners and pillow tops. Values up to $1.75, your choice 50c. 104

Many bargains in odds and ends during the July clearance sale at the Japanese Art Store. 105

The weather grew a little cooler over the week end and Sunday had a maximum of 96. This morning's minimum was 53.5 while Sunday morning's minimum was 55. Fair weather and mild temperature expected for Tuesday.

Do You Love Your Wife? Prolong her life. Install an electric range—$15.00 down. 104

I have just what you want, a new suburban home located right. Real buy, $1281. Terms, Phone 452-R. 941

Mrs. Daisy Conroy McGarry, formerly connected with the Heath Drug company in Medford, announces her formal opening of the Lithia Springs Pharmacy, located in Ashland's new hotel. Mrs. McGarry is a registered pharmacist and is a sister of Dr. R. J. Conroy of Medford. Mrs. Fred L. Colvig is assisting her temporarily in her new business venture.

A surprise for the children Wednesday at the Highway Barber Shop. 10 North Riverside Ave. 103

Screen doors at Wallace Woods Lumber Yard, cor. East Main and Genesee. 103

Fifteen hundred head of sheep were drowned and an immense amount of hay destroyed when the Fish lake dam near Halfway went out recently. The lake had risen 17 feet and covered 60 acres.

Get your tree props now at Big Pines Lumber Co. 1190

Old Vay Garage, 20 N. Holly. 103

Russell Conger and wife of Eldora, Iowa, arrived in the city Saturday evening to spend several weeks visiting friends and relatives living in the valley.

Dr. H. P. Coleman has returned from his vacation. 103

Have your trees inspected, Claude or Adam, 10 N. Riverside. 102

George Kunzman, proprietor of the Medford Exchange, returned yesterday from a short business trip to Klamath Falls. En route home he visited the Boy Scout camp at the Lake of the Woods and reports a very clean and orderly camp with about 35 boys present. Yesterday while at the camp Mr. Kunzman took part in the presentation of merit badges to the different scouts who had earned them.

Get your tree props now at Big Pines Lumber Co. 1190

Do You Love Your Wife? Prolong her life. Install an electric range—$15.00 down. 104

Residents of southern California who are registered at local hotels include Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wright of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Black and Mrs. W. White and son of San Diego, Miss Lillian Miffley, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gleason, and Mrs. R. E. Southard of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. A. Skink of Porterville, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Emery of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coshov of Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hendy, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Beck, Mrs. F. B. Rowell, Mrs. C. A. Charlton and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chaney of Los Angeles.

Ladies' and children's work a specialty. Highway Barber Shop. 102

A surprise for the children Wednesday at the Highway Barber Shop. 10 North Riverside Ave. 103

Mrs. Rose Grove left yesterday for her home in Oakland, Calif., after having spent several days visiting her brother William Hecknos of South Riverside.

Marcel and bob curl 75c. Tel. 436-R. 523 So. Ivy. 107

Special summer prices on dry factory mill blocks, Valley Fuel Co. 104

The woman's hat which blew into the street from some passing automobile about 5 P. M. one day last week is still unclaimed at the Hotel Medford cigar stand. 104

Included among out of town Oregonians arriving in the city Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. George D. Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Shepherd of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. White of Salem, Will G. Steel of Crater Lake, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wharton of North Bend, C. V. Lousley and J. J. Simmons of Klamath Falls, E. J. Boos and family of Forest Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Coombs, Everett Harpham and R. L. Finlayson of Eugene.

Dr. H. P. Coleman has returned from his vacation. 103

Before you buy that piano see Launspach. He can save you money. He knows pianos and is reliable. 104

Helen Yockey and Rosalia Keber of the Salem Capital Journal, drove to Medford Sunday, visited Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Tou Velle, at Jacksonville for a few hours, had lunch at Ashland, spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith at Edgewood park and left early Monday morning for Crater lake. They will spend tonight at Klamath Falls and return to Salem via the McKenzie highway.

Large stock Victor records at Palmer Music Store. 104

Hemstitching buttons covered at the Handicraft Shop. 107

The many friends of Fred Heath, who has been confined to his home for several weeks, will be glad to know he is improving.

Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rafferty of Salem, will spend his vacation in southern Oregon, and is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McMahon.

Cedar flume lumber at Big Pines Lumber Co. 1190

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc. 104

M. M. Herman of the Medford Hardware and Sporting Goods store and William Staff of the California Oregon Power company, were among the Medford people who spent Sunday fishing in Rogue river above Prospect. They reported trout fishing as being very good.

Do You Love Your Wife? Prolong her life. Install an electric range—$15.00 down. 104

Miss Claude Kium, who is employed in the Butte Falls office of the Owee Oregon Lumber company, is spending several days in the city with relatives.

Cedar flume lumber at Big Pines Lumber Co. 1190

The rim road at Crater lake has been cleared of snow far enough around from the east so that it is now possible for automobiles to go to Diamond lake by this route. Several crews of men have been working to clear the road for some time and much dynamite was used to blast the deep drifts. The rim road all the way around will not be cleared of snow and open for traffic until the last of the month.

Fresh salt water salmon, 25c lb. Johnson Produce Co. 104

Mrs. E. L. Farrar was among the visitors in the city today transacting business from Central Point. 103

Newcomb says only a short time to order your factory blocks at summer prices. Phone 631. 101

Leland E. Noe who graduated from the Medford high school and later from the University of California in dentistry, successfully passed the state board of examiners both in California and Oregon, and is now practicing in San Francisco. Leland is well known in Medford and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Noe.

Brick ice cream 50c at DeVoe's. 104

Joseph Lyon left this forenoon for his home at Reedsport, after having spent two days in the city, registered at Hotel Holland. Mr. Lyon has been to Diamond lake, arriving there from Roseburg by way of horseback and coming to Medford by way of the stage line.

The Night Hawk, a live wire musical organization from out of town, entertained a crowd of local dance fans at the Fair Grounds pavilion on Saturday night. A good program of the newest dance hits was presented with numerous specialties. The visitors scored such a hit that they have been prevailed upon to appear at the Fair Grounds pavilion in a special return engagement on Wednesday night.

For sand, gravel, sediment, cleaning or lawn work, phone 912-J. Samuel Bateman. 104

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brownley returned Sunday morning from a week's visit in Portland during which they attended the Elks' national convention.

Newcomb says only a short time to order your factory blocks at summer prices. Phone 631. 101

Jackie Wanted to Be a Jackie, But—

Jackie Vandiver of Daysville, Ky., pined for her sweetheart, a cog with the Atlantic fleet. She cut her hair, dressed herself as a man, went to Cincinnati, sought enlistment. All went well until the "recruit" was asked to strip for a physical examination. Tears, amazed recruiting officers, explanations, a reluctant journey back to Daysville.

Archie Conpton, who was injured in an explosion at the Buzzard mine some time ago, was able to leave the Sacred Heart hospital last Saturday after having been a patient there since the time of the accident.

J. C. Cox, a tourist of California, was fined $25 in Judge Taylor's court this morning, on his plea of guilty to a charge of fishing without a license. Deputy State Game Warden P. H. Daily was the complaining officer, apprehending Cox while fishing in Rogue river near Rogue Elk.

Leo Potter, fancy truck gardener of the Willow Springs district, was among the business visitors in the city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gynsant of Madison, Wis., arrived in the city this morning to spend several weeks visiting friends and relatives living in the Applegate district. Mr. and Mrs. Gynsant are touring the Pacific coast with the intention of settling sometime in the near future.

Superintendent C. G. Thomson of Crater Lake National park came down to the city Sunday and left today for the park with a new road construction gang. He reports that the Crater lake attendance is growing constantly, and that the road paving construction work is fast progressing, and that probably by August 1st, the work of laying paving will be begun.

C. Stevens, proprietor of the Nash Taxi, announces that he has discontinued his taxi business indefinitely, due to the need of a rest after having been engaged in the business for several years past. At present he is looking for a purchaser for his equipment and stand.

Washington state visitors in the city registered at local hotels include Mrs. E. R. Corwin and Miss Lila McJunde of Yakima, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Corwin of Wapato, Howard E. Fuller of Everett, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Derikson of Bremerton, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Claycombe of Spokane and Mr. and Mrs. S. Mankeheimer, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Masters and Mrs. M. Vaughn of Seattle.

While driving to the Lake of the Woods one night last week, Mr. Gordon, the Klamath Falls banker, saw three big timber wolves cross the road in front of his car, about a mile this side of the lake on the Klamath road to that resort.

Cedar flume at Big Pines Lumber Co. 1190

Frank H. Bennett of Los Angeles, Calif., was a local visitor today calling on old friends and acquaintances. Mr. Bennett will be remembered as an old Medford high school student and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bennett who still own the Berben apartments of this city.

Staple drugs at DeVoe's. 104

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cate returned last night from their week's vacation at Lake of the Woods. They left their older sons at the lake to further enjoy the Boy Scouts camp there.

Mrs. Louis Sutter of San Francisco was the guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Petch at their home on the Elks' Highway south of Medford.

James C. Grim of Pasadena, Calif., who is a-cornet player with the Elks' band of Pasadena, visited his sister, Mrs. Howard Warner, Saturday, en route home from the Elks' convention in Portland.

Columbia plaster was board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber Yard, cor East Main and Genesee. 103

Californians registered at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McLure, Miss Alice Boldeman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shuffleton and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Keyes, Jr. of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Swartz and family, Misses Lena Kahler and Emmo Reier of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Thille, Misses Sue Arthur and Corn Pattison of Bakersfield, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pope of Laguna Beach, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Meux and family of Fresno, Mrs. Leo Kelley of Fullerton, W. F. Brand and family of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lee Keely of Houliday, and the following of San Francisco: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Flint, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lachann, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Getz, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lomax, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tinnerston, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Giffrey and Miss Eva Landis.

OBITUARY

GENTRY—Charles Gentry passed away last night, July 19, 1925, at a hospital in Salem, Ore., from tuberculosis, which developed after he had an attack of influenza. The deceased was 22 years old at the time of his death. He leaves to mourn his loss two sisters, Mrs. Ross Lund and Mrs. Ben Stone of Grand View, Wash., and six brothers—Will G., of Central Point, Ore.; McKimley of Medford, Ross of Ashland, Ben H. of Yakima, Wash., Dee and Jesse of Grand View, Wash. Mr. Gentry was a member of the local Baptist church and the Rev. Eaton of that church will officiate. The time of service will be announced later as the family here are waiting word from other relatives. The Perl Funeral home have charge of the arrangements.

CASEY—Robert Casey of Ashland, aged 70, died Monday of heart failure in that city. Mr. Casey was born in Texas, came to Klamath Falls in 1885 and moved to Ashland in 1908. He leaves a wife and three children, J. B. Casey of Bonanza, George Noble of Loretta and Mrs. V. H. Gillette of Klamath Falls. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at the Dodge funeral home, B. C. Miller officiating.

Exposing people to contagious diseases and appropriating their property is a mighty poor way to exercise personal liberty.

In $60,000,000 Automotive Deal

John Hertz, taxicab and motor coach transportation king, is capping a sensational business career with a $60,000,000 deal with General Motors Corporation which will give the latter a powerful interest into this phase of the automotive industry. Hertz, the Yellow Cab man, controls the bus lines of Chicago and New York, and is a manufacturer of buses and cabs as well.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR RENT—Modern 5 room house and bath. Call 319 South Newton street. 104

FOR SALE—Work for yourself—Small wood working plant with big future, will sell on account of sickness; splendid location, close in; immediate returns on your investment; new building and machinery; excellent proposition for 2 or 3 partners; plant clear and ready to go. P. O. Box 695, Grants Pass, Ore. 104

LOST—Child's coaster car. Return to 621-Clark. Reward. 103

SPRAYER SPECIAL FOR WEDNESDAY. Auto-Spray No. 22. Guaranteed to Be the Best. 35c Each Cash. One to the Customer. MONARCH SEED & FEED CO. Phone 260. Get Our Feed Prices. 323 E. Main.

FEATURE BILL of the SEASON TOMORROW

ASSOCIATION VAUDEVILLE WESTERN VAUDEVILLE MANAGERS ASSOCIATION

Presenting Music, Song, Novelty and Comedy HEADED BY

ENDS TODAY "THE TALKER" With ANNA NILSSON and LEWIS STONE and OREGONIAN SCREEN NEWS Showing Views of ELKS' LODGE CONVENTION and NORTHWEST EVENTS

DUKE KAMUKU'S MID-PACIFIC BAND in HAWAIIAN and POPULAR MUSIC Featuring The Steel Guitar and Ukulele Lou-ZOELLER & BODWELL—Janet in "SONGS OF THEIR OWN" You've Heard Them On the Phonograph ARTHUR HOWARD & CO. in A Domestic Farce Comedy Entitled "TANGLED TALES" WYNNE LORRAINE Classy Song and Dance Artist in "A NIFTY NOVELTY" A Thriller! THE DIXON-RIGG TRIO in Acrobatic Bicycle Novelty Featuring Their Toe-to-Toe Catch 3 Performances—2:30, 7 and 9 Bargain Matinee—Adults, 35c; Children 10c. Evenings—Adults, 50c; Children, 25c. "Topics of the Day" Mask Bennett Comedy Craterian Orchestra

CHUNT'S CRATERIAN THURSDAY, July 23 Matinee and Night SUPERLATIVE DRAMATIC EVENT of the SEASON

MRS. FISKE THOMAS A. WISE LOTUS ROBB KENNETH THOMSON FRED ERIC GEORGE TAWDE CHAUNCEY OLCOTT JAMES T. POWERS JEAN FORD MARIE CARROLL GERALD ROGERS HERBERT BELLMORE

Have combined for a tour of the United States this season in commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the original production of

"THE RIVALRS"

By RICHARD BRINSLEY SHERIDAN APPEARING UNDER THE MANAGEMENT OF George C. Tyler and Hugh Ford

UNDOUBTEDLY THIS IS A COMBINATION OF THE MOST DISTINGUISHED DRAMATIC ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY, WHO ARE PRESENTED IN A COMEDY THAT HAS CHARMED THE THEATRICAL WORLD FOR A CENTURY AND A HALF. AMERICA MAY NOT AGAIN WITNESS SUCH AN ILLUSTRIOUS AGGREGATION IN MANY YEARS TO COME.

SEATS NOW SELLING Floor, first 18 rows, $3.20; next 5 rows, $2.75; balance, $2.20. Balcony, first 2 rows, $1.65; balance, $1.10. MATINEE PRICES, INCLUDING WAR TAX: First 18 rows, $2.75; next 5 rows, $2.20; balance, $1.65. Balcony, first 2 rows, $1.10; balance, 50c.

Mann's STAMPED PILLOW CASES. Fine quality stamped Pillow Cases; a genuine $1.20 value. Tuesday 95c pair. Watch this space every day. Mann's

Runs for Mayor of Chicago on a Clean-Up Plank

Mrs. Johanna Gregg, school board member, is a Republican candidate for nomination as mayor of Chicago, the second largest city in the United States. She declared her platform will be one to "clean up Chicago." Many persons prominent in all walks of life have endorsed her candidacy.