NEW STORES OPEN IN LITHIA HOTEL BLDG. IN ASHLAND

ASHLAND, July 20.—A barber shop, drug store and confectionary will open for business Monday in two of the new storerooms of the Lithia Springs Hotel building, it is stated. The Bates barber shop and sine parlor will be open and ready for business Monday morning. The complete fixtures for the Haberly confectionary and McGarry drug store have been installed and the latter part of the week was spent in arranging the stock. These two establishments will be conducted in the same room. Mrs. Daisy McGarry operating the drug store and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Heberly having charge of the soda fountain, where light lunches will also be served. Miss Betty Robley of Portland for some time a guest at the Churchman home left yesterday for Crater Lake with the family of Rev. Edwards of Portland. Mrs. Ella Mills has returned from her extended sojourn in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Emory and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hosler have gone to Portland to visit for some time. Mr. Emory will return in a fortnight however to resume his duties in the First National.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lane are entertaining a number of old friends the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cunningham and daughter Mildred, Mrs. J. W. Stone of Hollywood are also guests in the Lane home. They too are former residents of Ashland. The last named leave Sunday to continue their trip to Salem and Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller have been enjoying the visit of old friends during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ballard whose home is now in Santa Cruz, but who were neighbors of the Millers in Sebastopol, Cal. years ago, have been spending some time with them. Sunday they, with the Millers, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowland and Hamilton families. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin of Yakima, also old Sebastopol neighbors, stopped on their way north from a visit in California to see their old friends. Mr. and Mrs. Miller.
E. J. Farlow who was badly injured the Flurth, in falling down the steps leading up to Main street from the ice plant, is gaining slowly. He does not suffer so severely as at first.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweet, with Mrs. Sweet's sister, Mrs. Sweet of Santa Rosa, Calif., arrived the latter part of the week and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Eubanks and of Mrs. Jennie Goodyear. Later they expect to drive on to Seattle where they will visit Mrs. Lennart and daughter Mildred, returning again to Ashland before leaving for their home in the south.
Mr. George Helms spent the week end with his family on Church street. He is employed at Hill, Calif.
The union services at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening were well attended. During the summer months many of the churches unite in the evening service, meeting at the different churches in turn.
Floyd Place left the last of the week for Oakland, Calif., where he will join his parents for a vacation trip through southern California.
Mrs. Barbara McIntyre and sister Agnes McKinney of Ossen, Wis., are guests of Mrs. W. D. Booth and of Mrs. S. L. Allen. The ladies are schoolmates of Mrs. Allen.
Ashland Elks receive fifth place in the parade at the recent convention in Portland and second prize of $50 was won by the orchestra in the jazz band concert held during the convention. St. Paul, Minn., won first place.
Mrs. John Emders and daughter Shirley returned from a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends at Klamath Falls the last of the week.

Rev. S. J. Chaney and family with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace of Chillicothe, Ohio, returned from Rocky Point, where they have spent the past few days fishing. They report a catch of several fish, the largest weighing seven and a half pounds.
Special Program for Vaudeville Tuesday
Duke Kamakua and his Mid-Pacific band is the leading attraction at the Orpheum Jr. vaudeville bill at HUNT Craterian tomorrow, matinee and night. They play the guitars and ukuleles of their native land. They play popular hits, and the haunting melodies of Hawaii.
Lou Zoeller and Janet Bodwell present a cycle of songs. Miss Bodwell is billed as the smallest prima donna in the world, and Zoeller is a song writer of note.
A male impersonator is one of the novelties of the bill, offered by Wayne Lorraine, who imitates both men and women, and keeps the audience guessing on which side of the human family she belongs.
"Tangled Tales" is a sketch about a husband who is always deceiving his wife, presented by Arthur Howard and Co. The skit is fast and snappy. There are three in the company. The Dixon-Rigg trio, acrobats, form a number of thrilling and difficult feats.

There will be the usual photoplay offerings in addition to the vaudeville.
Harry Carey at The Rialto Tonight
"Soft Shoes," Harry Carey's newest dramatic romance, at the Rialto theatre tonight, proves to be a colorful and interesting production.
It treats of Carey as sheriff of a small western town who, after curing an inheritance, decides to see the bright life of the city. He goes to San Francisco and the hectic life leaves him somewhat cold. He decides about to return home when his room is robbed. The burglar proves to be a beautiful girl. At this point Carey becomes involved in a terrific gang war on the Barbary coast. In the end, he is able to bring the girl back to a better life. Lillian Rich has the leading female role while Francis Ford and others are in the supporting cast. One of the past "Go-Getters" comedies is on the bill.
Cook with gas.
