Friend of Bryan's Collapses On News Commoner's Death

DES MOINES, Iowa, July 27.—(A. P.)—Father J. F. Nugent, lifelong friend of William Jennings Bryan and who had many times occupied the same speaking platform with the great commoner, suffered a nervous collapse last night when informed of the death of his friend. Father Nugent, who has been in ill health for some time, was so overcome with grief that friends who conveyed the message to him in his bed feared the shock might cause a serious relapse. He was unable to make a statement.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, July 27.—The closing was strong. Buying orders were distributed over a broad list in the late trading, additional new high records being established by Montgomery Ward, Public Service of New Jersey, Brown Shoe and Underwood Typewriter. Bullish demonstrations in selected rails, motors, public utilities and industrial specialties, more than two dozen of which attained new peak prices for the year, featured today's session.
