

JEALOUS YOUTH, 18, KILLS WOMAN AND 2 MEN IN FURY

RICHMOND, Va., July 29.—His jealousy for Mrs. Vivian "Tomlin Peers, former artist" model, caused Rudolph E. Disse, 18, to kill her and two men and seriously wound another man in a sudden burst of gun play yesterday, the youth confessed to police. Detective Sergeant J. Harvey Burke, who died last night as the third victim, was one of the two men whom Disse said he shot because he was afraid they would frustrate his purpose of killing G. Carter, the other victim, and his supposed rival, after he had shot Mrs. Peers.

Willis Britt, who was seriously wounded, was a stranger to the others and had simply volunteered to take Mrs. Peers, Disse and Burke in his car when they were leaving police court. Mrs. Peers had been arraigned on charges made by Disse and the latter was in court on charges by Carter that he had threatened him. Both cases were continued and as the two left court Burke arrested Disse on a bad check charge. He accompanied them with Britt when Mrs. Peers said she wanted to get some clothes at Disse's home.

Remainder in the car as the others stepped to the sidewalk Disse suddenly whipped out a pistol and without warning shot down the woman and the two men. Rushing in the car to a restaurant owned by Carter, Disse startled a crowd there by bursting through the door and brandishing the revolver.

Before Carter had warning, witnesses said, he was shot through the heart by Disse.

Disse was captured by a traffic policeman.

Army Plane Crashes.
PITTSBURGH, July 29.—(A. P.)—Lieutenant Thomas Cagel, U. S. M. C., aviator, was injured seriously today when his plane crashed near Universal, Pa. The wrecked airplane caught fire and Cagel was burned. Another occupant of the plane escaped with minor hurts.

NIPPON OFFICIALS PAY TRIBUTES TO DEPARTED ENVOY

TOKYO, July 29.—(A. P.)—Official expressions of regret because of the death of Edgar A. Bancroft, American ambassador to Japan, who died here today, were contained in statements from Premier Kato and Foreign Minister Shidehara.

The premier said:
"News of the death of the American ambassador comes as a staggering blow. Since he assumed his duties here he has endeared himself to all of us and has shown himself a true friend of the Japanese people. He worked body and soul for the promotion of the traditional American-Japanese friendship. It is difficult for me to find words to express our regret. Through the death of the ambassador his home country lost a great servant and this country has lost a friend."

The foreign minister said:
"I find it difficult to express myself on the shock and grief that has followed the death of the American ambassador. Only yesterday we receive the cheering news of his improvement and looked forward to his restoration to active duty. During his services here he not only endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact but by his sympathy, enthusiasm and readiness to accept other points of view than his own, but he won respect by the earnestness of his mind and the steadiness of his purpose. He had already made a place distinctively his own in the history of American-Japanese relations and his loss from their service cannot be described fairly as anything but tragic. We mourn him sincerely as a friend and as a devoted servant to our common cause of pacific understanding."

Favor Los Angeles Plan.
WASHINGTON, July 29.—(A. P.)—Approval of the Los Angeles plan for creating a union railroad terminal in the plaza area of that city was indicated today by the interstate commerce commission.

Triple Climax Features Zane Grey Photoplay

"The Light of Western Stars," which made its initial appearance at the Hippo theater yesterday, combines the story telling genius of Zane Grey, and the acting ability of Jack Holt, Noah Beery and Billie Dove.

The picture is a convincing portrayal of the picturesque life, habits and customs of those early empire building days.

Jack Holt plays the square shooting cowboy, who loves to fight and fights to love. Noah Beery makes the outlaw chief he impersonates just as villainous and despicable as the character calls for. Billie Dove invests her role with a naturalness and sincerity that makes her performance a memorable one.

Ingenious efficiency experts have nothing on the kids in "Our Gang" comedy, "Every Man for Himself," when it comes to increasing the income of a business. They have a shoe shining parlor and the number of customers is far from being satisfactory. Consequently, something desperate had to be done and done quickly. It takes all their ingenuity to avoid ending up in the village cooler.

An International News and Peggy Ridley at the organ are attractions on the bill.

Cortez As Toreador At Hunt's Craterian

Beautiful maidens, moonlight nights, the bulging of Algebras and Ricardo Cortez in the role of a handsome bull fighter gives a different touch to "The Spaniard," which comes to the Hunt's Craterian today.

In the title role of Don Pedro, idol of Spain, Cortez, whose rise in the picture world has been meteoric, he is seen as a slashing toreador, the hero of the men of his country, and the lover of the women.

Jetta Goudal, is seen as Dolores Annesley, the heroine, while Noah Beery portrays Gomez, an unfaithful servant. The action unfolds as Don Pedro's eyes meet beautiful Miss Annesley's at a fashionable dinner in London. Little does the girl know that this man is the idol of Spain—a bullfighter—whose position is greatly inferior to hers.

Finally the couple meet again in Spain, where Don Pedro has just administered the coup de grace to a mad-doned bull. The girl refuses to see him and attempts to return to London; Don Pedro's past experience with women inspires him to kidnap her and "tame" her. This he fails to do and returns to the arena where, heart-broken, he loses his nerve. Then comes the thrilling climax.

The music by Raymond Ballard at the giant Wuriltzer and short diversions make up the program.

SPORT BRIEFS

NEW YORK, July 29.—Reports are current here that Young Bob Fitzsimmons, so not former champion, and himself holder of a string of twelve straight knockouts, will be the opponent of the American light heavyweight champion, Gene Tunney, in a bout to be fought in San Francisco in September.

Fitzsimmons knocked out the Chilean Quintin Romero in the third round of a bout at Newark a week ago.

TORONTO, Ont., July 29.—(A. P.)—Once again the Canadian open golf championship, to be decided on the Lamton course here tomorrow and Friday by 72-hole medal play, appears lost to Canada.

Thirty Americans, including the greatest of the professions carrying to many titles that it would be almost impossible to enumerate them are ready with polished irons to seek the title won by Leo Diegel a year ago and Diegel is here to defend it.

Willie MacFarlane, American open champion and Walter Hagen, champion at one time or another holder of about every title in golfdom, appear to hold the center of the stage. There is the youthful Johnny Farrell, always near the top; Gene Sarazen, returned to power by his marvelous play in the American open and the Metropolitan championship which he won, is considered sure to be among the leaders.

Yet Board Appointees.
SALEM, Ore., July 29.—Governor Pierce today appointed Charles H. Seargaves of Oregon City as a member of the state veterinary examining board to succeed J. M. Creamer of Portland, and reappointed on the board Robert E. Hunt of Roseburg, W. C. Lassen of Pendleton and Dr. W. S. Lytle, state veterinarian, of Salem.
