The weekly band concert will be held in the city park tomorrow night, and it is expected that the police will put an end to the running about and shouting of older children, which has spoiled so many park concerts in the past, about which so much complaint has been heard. Hence, parents are urged to keep their children with them and under control.

JONAS SPITZER IS GIVEN STIFF TERM FOR BOOTLEGGING

Jonas Spitzer of the Talent district pleaded guilty this forenoon before County Judge W. J. Hartzell to two charges of possessing and transporting intoxicating liquors. On each charge he was fined $500 and sentenced to six months in jail.

The arrest was made Saturday evening by Chief of Police McNabb of Ashland in that city, assisted by the sheriff's office. Spitzer, so it is said, was just returning from California, where he had loaded on his decrepit Ford touring car a keg of moonshine, crudely concealed by sacks, which were thrown over it. When arrested by McNabb he made no show of resistance, being very docile instead. Spitzer, who has but one leg, had been under the surveillance of the sheriff's office for some time past before his final arrest. He was suspected of being a leading bootlegger of the Talent district for the past year, and only last winter was freed of a similar charge because of lack of sufficient evidence to convict.

His car which was used in transporting the illegal intoxicants, is being confiscated by the due course of law.

The case was pled before County Judge Hartzell because of the absence of Circuit Judge Thomas, who is spending several days in Portland and Willamette valley points.

CAPITOL APE TRIAL PROVES A FIZZLE

WASHINGTON, July 30.—(A. P.)—Washington's evolution suit was withdrawn today by the attorneys of Loren H. Wittner, the government clerk who filed it.

Wittner sued as a taxpayer to prevent payment of salaries to persons responsible for the teaching of scientific subjects in the public schools which he said were in disrespect of the Holy Bible. The government, questioning his right to sue as a taxpayer and raising other objections to his bill of complaint, had filed a motion to dismiss the case which was to have been argued tomorrow.

The lawyers said they would draw up another complaint, more free of objections and probably would name another man with Wittner as a plaintiff.
