ASHLAND'S ANGEL TO BE WELCOMED WITH BRASS BAND

ASHLAND, July 31.—At a joint meeting of the citizenry and the city council called by Mayor O. H. Johnson an appeal at the city hall last night the water situation was gone over rather thoroughly. The purpose of the meeting was to get the situation as it exists before the people. The two propositions receiving consideration were those of a filtering and settling plant and the development of all users, and the development of the Cow Creek project. It is estimated that the latter will cost in the neighborhood of $450,000. Figures were not given on the other. Many took part in the discussion, following the presentation of the matter, but no action was taken. The meeting was simply to acquaint the ones most interested with the situation.

It is understood that Jesse Winburn, New York advertising man and owner of Sap and Salt up Ashland Canyon is expected in Ashland shortly. Bert Moses, a friend received word to that effect and has gone to Portland to join him in returning to Ashland. Mr. Winburn has spent some time abroad since leaving Ashland. He will be welcomed home with a brass band.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Green, president of Albany college, with Mrs. Green and their son Paul are spending some little time in the valley. They have visited the different towns in the valley and have been at Klamath Falls. While at Medford Dr. Green spent some time in going over the Shields library and preparing it for shipment to the college. Sunday he occupied the sermon hour at the Presbyterian church in this city. While here they have been the guests at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fraser Brown, near Phoenix. They have also been entertained at the Manne. Crater lake was visited going from Medford to Klamath Falls, thus seeing both wonderful highways. This is a vacation for them, but while here Dr. Green and Mrs. Green have taken pleasure in telling of the work of Albany college.

On Wednesday, about twenty-five ladies were entertained at tea at the pleasant home of Mrs. Brown, honoring Mrs. Green. A musical program of merit was a feature of the afternoon's entertainment. Mrs. Green also gave a talk outlining the aim and scope of the college. Those having the pleasure of attendance from Ashland were Miss Grace H. Chamberlain, Mrs. O. Winter, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken and Mrs. H. A. Stearns.

The Good Cheer class of the Presbyterian Sunday school were entertained very delightfully Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hays at their home, "Eventide," on Nursery street. There were perhaps twenty present to enjoy the pleasant hospitality of Mrs. Hays, who is a member of the class. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

There is quite an exodus to the Lake of the Woods during this month by those fortunate ones who have built summer cottages there. Many have been there since the road was open to travel. Among those going out Saturday are Mr. and Mrs. M. Foley who have as their guest for a few days, Mrs. Grace E. Andrews.

Mrs. J. R. Luke is very ill at her home on Scenic Drive. Yesterday she was reported as slightly improved and was able to see a few of her friends for a few minutes. Mrs. Luke has been ill for the past three weeks. Her friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Much in the way of important business was attended to at the executive board meeting called by the president, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken of the Civic club yesterday. Work is being done in cleaning up the grounds adjacent and workmen were busy in the basement. It has been decided to have the club house open every Saturday, with Mrs. Mary Wilshire hostess in charge. This will give those who wish to visit the club house, an opportunity. It is also arranged to have the third Thursday of each month held for the health clinic. The use of the club house is theirs for that day.

Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson returned this week from her visit to Portland and vicinity.

Mrs. J. M. Wagner is entertaining Mrs. C. M. Wagner, her little daughter and Mrs. Black of San Francisco. Many pleasant plans are made for their pleasure during their stay.

Plans are being formulated rapidly looking toward the golden anniversary of the Presbyterian church. It is
