H. L. Henderson, a former well known resident of Medford, is critically ill at the Walla Walla, Wash., hospital. His wife, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Prescott, hurried to his bedside in company of her mother and brother Francis. They left Medford Monday evening. Mr. Henderson had made Medford his residence until two years ago, when he left to take a position under the state incorporation department at Salem.

The announcement was made this morning by officials of the Ashland Women's Civic Improvement club that the reception which it had been planned to tender Jesse Winburn, had been called off. It had been planned to hold the reception at the club house, a gift from Mr. Winburn, on Wednesday evening of this week. Mr. Winburn is very appreciative of the plans made for his entertainment, and it was with regret that the plans for the affair had to be given up. He has been through a very strenuous season, and has come to Oregon for rest only, and will spend his time while he is here, quietly at Sap and Salt, his wonderful summer home up Ashland canyon—Ashland Tidings.
