

BAGLEY CANNING COMPANY TO PUT OUT 100,000 CASES

ASHLAND, August 4.—(Special)—Ashland's local plant, the Bagley Canning company is in the midst of a heavy season, according to officials at the cannery. It is expected that 100,000 cases will be put on the market this year as against 40,000 last year. The payroll of $50,000 is a great increase over that of last year. Sixty-five women are employed on the bean pack which is at full swing at present. It is expected that $200,000 will be distributed to the growers and to employes this season. It was stated that the pack was practically sold out now and that business had been turned down because of lack of warehouse space. The plant is running to capacity now, lack of building space, not the machinery the deterrent. Cabbages and cabbages have already been packed. Apples, pears, peaches, and tomatoes to come later. The pack of tomatoes and pears begins about the middle of the month. About 750 tons of tomatoes will be packed and 350 tons of pears, and 150 tons of peaches. One hundred and fifty tons of evergreen blackberries are already contracted for from the Applegate district.

Four events are listed in the tennis tournament to occur August 11, 12 and 13, with the finals and presentation of prizes the thirteenth day of the community picnic, which with the tournament, is sponsored by the chamber of commerce. John Beeson has charge of the tournament and will make all arrangements. The four events are juvenile event, open to boys and girls under fourteen; second event, open to boys and girls, 14 to 16, inclusive; third event, open to boys and girls 16 to 21, inclusive; and the free-for-all open to every one. A meet for the horse shoe fans is also being given by Secretary Fuller. Suitable cups will be provided for the different events and the Lithia Park championship will be competed for in the free-for-all. It is expected that at least fifty players will be signed up when the opening event is played. W. M. Poley, who with his wife and daughter, are spending the month of August at the Lake of the Woods, came in to Ashland on Tuesday to attend a number of committee meetings. Collins Hartly of Phoenix will return with him. Later the Hartly family will join them, as their guests. Mrs. Grace E. Andrews who was their guest at their summer home for a few days, has returned home.

The days of those who sojourn beside the beautiful lake are filled to the brim with delightful doings. Boating for those who wish, little boats, big and middle sized boats, sail, motor or row boats—take your choice. Wading, swimming at any and all times. Bridge and dancing parties, musical evenings interspersed sometimes on the lake, sometimes beside the open campfire and sometimes in the roomy living rooms of the cabins. To say nothing of huckleberrying, which at present is engrossing the attention of every one. The delicious odor of huckleberry pie is wafted to the passer-by on a vagrant breeze from many a cabin. In making the round of the lake one realizes the many cabins and that there could not be so designated that dot the shore line. Since last season, there are a number of new cottages with many in process of erection. Week-ends bring a caravan of autos filled with those who wish to spend a little time in the environs of this gem of beauty shadowed by Mount Pitt and surrounded by the giant sentinels of the forest. The cottages are all occupied, with the exception of very few and those doubtless will be shortly. Saturday, two truckloads of boys returned from the lake, evidently en route to Medford. Whether enjoying the many diversions or sitting by the camp fire, many of them open fireplaces built near cottage or shore, all who dwell beside the lovely lake for a season, count it a delightful experience and will later hold it a cherished memory.

Miss Noreen Anderson is now in charge of the social columns of the Tidings.

Miss Edith Dodge is enjoying a vacation at the lake with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dodge, prior to her entering college a little later.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers of Santa Cruz, California, have spent the past ten days at the Lake of the Woods visiting their relatives, the Nims and Dean families. They expect to return to Ashland Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Rogers was formerly Miss Josephine Saunders, a niece of Mrs. C. W. Nims, and who with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, lived in Ashland for many years. Mr. Saunders was associated with Mr. Nims in the Ideal Grocery. Both Mr. Saunders and John Saunders, his son, live in Santa Cruz also.

The funeral of Mrs. Emma Jane Roberts occurred Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the Dodge funeral chapel. Interment was at Central Point. The Rev. W. Judson Oldfield conducted the services. Mrs. Roberts has lived in Ashland 38 years, and was very well known, not only in Ashland, but in the valley. She is survived by three children, Mrs. V. E. Gail and Mrs. Lulu Van Wagon of Ashland and E. J. Roberts of Medford. There are two grandchildren, Mrs. Merritt Randles of Ashland and Lee Roberts of Medford.

Mrs. W. M. Barber, and daughter Josephine have returned from an extended trip east and south. A number of former Ashland friends were visited. Among those mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Warner who lived here for a number of years. They built the beautiful home on Church street, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schwein. Mr. Warner was in the hardware business.

They, with Mrs. Warner's mother, Mrs. Reid, were prominent in the social and church life of the community.

No accidents have occurred on Main street lately, in which the fronts of business places have been demolished. Sunday afternoon, P. E. Boyle in attempting to stop the Standard Oil company car which he was driving, smashed into the plate glass front of the Scherman Grocery on Main street, with disastrous results. The Bazaar, on North Main street was the victim in the other instance in which A. N. Stroud of the Hatfield Transfer company smashed into the front of the building, destroying the windows and creating considerable havoc. This is the second time within recent months that the Bazaar has had the front windows destroyed in a like manner.

The Ashland Summer School of Art, in closing its second season in Ashland, presents an exhibit of the work accomplished by the students, on Friday afternoon and evening of this week, at the Civic club house. A similar exhibit was held last year at its close, and attracted wide attention. The display was a splendid one showing as it did the work along the different lines and what may be accomplished by intensive work under talented instructors.

It is expected the rooms will be crowded by interested spectators. Many have been here from a distance taking advantage of the opportunity to pursue their studies, California, Idaho, Washington, Oklahoma and eastern states are represented in its students. The session closes the eighth of August and it is hoped that next summer sees the same fine corps of instructors present. They lectured by "Watson Lowe both here and in Medford have been a source of delighted interest to those privileged to hear them and his informative articles in interior decorative art have been those of an authority. It is a regret that the session has closed, and it is hoped that everyone interested will take advantage of the opportunity to visit the club house and enjoy the exhibit placed there.

Mrs. C. W. Chattin and daughter, Wilma, have returned from a sojourn of a fortnight at the Lake of the Woods. The Chattins have a most commodious and convenient summer home there and many friends have enjoyed it with them.

GREEKS ADVANCE, BULGARIA WAITS FOR HOSTILITIES

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Aug. 5.—(A. P.)—The Bulgarian foreign office has denied any movement of forces in retaliation of the despatch of the Greek troops to the Bulgarian frontier because of the assassination recently of M. Nicolaidis, a Greek citizen on Bulgarian territory and because of alleged terroristic acts against Greeks in Bulgaria. The Bulgarian army, however, was declared ready to do its duty if called upon. Official information reaching the foreign office is that two Greek detachments started from Solinka and Cavalla Monday for the Bulgarian frontier. The foreign office spokesman felt that Greece was acting with great precipitancy and he observed that the Bulgarian government was willing and ready to do full justice as it had already done in the case of the killing of Albanians from Serbian territory which caused protests by the Jugo-Slavian government.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON FEELING O. K. AGAIN

NEW YORK, Aug. 6 (A. P.)—Christy Mathewson, pitching idol of years ago, whose battle for health appeared won last spring before he worked too hard as president of the Boston Braves, is "feeling fine" again. "Though his physicians said he might not be able to leave his home at Saranac Lake, New York, in the Adirondacks for several months, they are gratified at the progress he is making. Christy kept on a diet, looks ruddy and healthy. Baseball is still part of his life. The lively ball ought not to handicap pitchers, he says. By proper application they have as good a chance to put something on the ball as did the twirlers of an age ago.

GAVE SON LIQUOR AND CIGARETS TO MAKE HIM TOUGH

CHICO, Calif., Aug. 6.—(A. P.)—C. L. Coker, held in connection with the death of M. T. Teeter, a neighbor, whom he admitted stabbing six times with an ice pick, gave his two-year old son liquor and cigarettes to make a "tough guy" out of him. Testimony to this effect was given by Mrs. Coker at the coroner's inquest yesterday. Questioned by Deputy Coroner Frank M. Nau, Mrs. Coker said: "My husband gave our son liquor to drink and cigarettes to smoke. He told me to raise our girl and he would raise the boy because he wanted to make a roughneck out of him." "The girl is three years old. Coker took the stand and admitted slaying Teeter. "I did it because he tried to take advantage of my wife," he told the judge.

Double Bill at Hunt's Craterian

Pictures of the Lewis and Myan wrestling match, wherein the championship changed, are shown at the Hunt's Craterian this week as a special film feature in conjunction with Jack London's masterpiece, "Adventure." This is one of the best sport films on the screen. Several of the faster episodes of the bout are revealed in slow motion pictures, showing the exciting points of the match. The headlock, the most effective hold of Lewis, and the crotch hold, Myan's favorite grip, is shown. Owing to local interest in wrestling, the pictures are of especial interest.
