

OLD PIONEER OF JACKSONVILLE IS CALLED BY DEATH

William Arthurs, a resident of many sections of the northwest for 65 years, died at his home in Jacksonville, Aug. 6, 1925. In his lifetime he had resided in Idaho, in Walla Walla county, Washington, where he owned 900 acres of wheatland, in Unadilla county, in Linn county, at what is now Shedd, and for 20 years at Brownsville, Ore. Arthurs lived for 23 years in the Walla Walla county.

He arrived at Jacksonville October 7, 1862, with $100 in bills on the State Bank of Missouri. Owing to the Civil war conditions the bills were worth less. He was befriended by Jerry Martin, a friend he had known in the east, and given employment in his blacksmith shop, where he stayed for 18 months.

Arthurs then drove an ox team to Linn county, and a few weeks later went to Boise, Idaho, later in the summer returning to Eugene, Oregon, where he was married on September 11, 1862 to Sarah McCallister.

He then moved to Unadilla county, after a residence of nearly 20 years in the Willamette valley, and then moved to near Walsburg, Washington, where he resided for 23 years. In 1897 he returned to Jacksonville county and purchased a farm on the Little Applegate, and after 11 years, journeyed to Baker county, Oregon, later going to Montana and Idaho.

In 1912 he returned to Jacksonville county, and for the last six years has been a resident of Jacksonville.

William Arthurs was born at Nashville, Tenn., December 4, 1829. At the age of three he moved to Sullivan county, Missouri. When 15 he was bound out to learn the blacksmith trade. In 1860 he started across the plains by ox team, being in charge of the loose cattle with the expedition.

He is survived by his wife, a resident of Jacksonville, a son, Chester Arthurs of Prairie City, Ore., three daughters, Mrs. Olive Shelton of Nyassa, Oregon, Mrs. W. R. Lamb of Sam's Valley, and Mrs. J. H. Masters of Jacksonville. A brother, Joseph Arthurs resides at Leavenworth, Kas.

The funeral services will be held from the Conger Funeral Parlors, Saturday, August 8, at two o'clock in the afternoon, interment in the Medford cemetery.

CHAMBER OF C. PUBLISHES LIST OF ORGANIZATIONS

The "survey and statistical" committee of the Medford Chamber of Commerce are impressed with the immediate need of an authentic directory of the patriotic, political, business, fraternal, social, religious and miscellaneous organizations in Medford. With this thought in mind, they have compiled, as near perfect as available statistics would permit, a directory of this nature. Before sending this prepared material to the press to be compiled in book form, it is their desire that it be as near 100 per cent perfect as possible. From time to time, through these columns, will be printed, these listings as the chamber now has them. Organizations who find they are not correctly, or not listed at all, will help in the cause, as well as promote their own interests, by advising the chamber at once as their particular case may be. Local readers should clip these lists as the series are run and in that way they will have a reasonably correct directory for their own use. Below is the listing on the religious organizations as the chamber's present records show them:

- Adventists, North Riverside, Rev. T. L. Thuemler.
- Apostolic Faith, East Main, Rev. "Blank (?)".
- Baptist, North Central, Rev. F. R. Leach.
- Christian Science, North Oakdale, Mrs. O. McDearmond, reader.
- Christian, South Oakdale, Rev. D. J. Howe.
- Church of the Nazarene, North Central, Rev. C. M. King.
- Episcopal, North Central, Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton.
- First Methodist, West Main, Rev. De Foe.
- Free Methodist, South Ivy, Rev. "Blank (?)".
- Glad Tidings Mission, North Grape, Rev. T. J. Creighton.
- Lutheran-English, West Fourth, Rev. E. J. Johnston.
- Pentecostal Mission, East Main, Rev. E. F. Bingham.
- Presbyterian, West Main, Rev. E. P. Lawrence.
- Roman Catholic, South Oakdale, Rev. F. W. Black.
- Salvation Army, North Bartlett, Captain Allen Pitt.
- South Methodist, South Ivy, Rev. "Blank (?)".

BRITISH CHINESE SERVANTS WALK OUT

PEKING, Aug. 7.—(A. P.)—Sixty Chinese servants at the British legation including several employees of the legation chancery, have gone on strike, their action being considered the result of intimidation by leaders of the student anti-foreign agitation. This is the first indication of the effective spread of the strike as a weapon against the British in Peking.
