The band concert in the city park tonight will begin at 8 o'clock and will last an hour. It will be given as usual by the prize-winning Crater Temple D. O. K. band. The previous park concert was one of the best and most enjoyable ever presented in the city. In large part due to the perfect order maintained by the children and the lack of cars moving about during the concert.

When W. T. Wheat of Fruitdale, left his farm in charge of his son and daughter, 12 and 14, yesterday, the children proved that they were able to take the full responsibility. During the absence of Mr. Wheat, the barn and pump house caught fire and burned down and only the hard work of the two children saved the house. The boy climbed up on the roof and put out the sparks as they fell and the girl took a hop and put out the dry grass around the house as it caught. They worked alone until help arrived from nearby farms—Grants Pass Courier.
