

CHEESE GOES UP AGAIN, BUTTER AND EGGS DOWN

PORTLAND, Aug. 14.—Another advance is shown in the cheese market with all Oregon makes up another cent today. Light production with increasing orders are the bullish factors at this time.

Today local wholesalers are quoting Tillamook triplets at 30 cents with loaf at 31 cents. Mellowest triplets are up to 29 cents with loaf at 30 cents. Other Oregon loaf cheese is firm at the 27 cent level while triplets sell at 25 to 26 cents, according to quality and quantity lots.

Easier tone is shown in the local butter market with standard cubes off 1 1/2 cents on the dairy exchange, being posted at 48 cents. Other bids unchanged.

Further weakness is shown in the local egg market with firsts posted a cent lower on the exchange at 31 cents. Current receipts, too, are weaker at 28 1/2 cents with other grades holding steady.

Not enough country dressed meats are arriving on the street to make a market. Occasionally a fancy calf comes in, sells promptly at 17 cents, with the few choice light hogs offered bringing 20 cents. Demand is brisk for choice stuff.

Poultry continues unsettled with trading moderate. No change in actual prices for the day, although demand is limited.

HARTMAN SYNDICATE ORDERED TO GET BUSY ON ITS LIBEL SUIT

In the suit of the Hartman Syndicate, Inc., of Ashland, against former Governor Oswald West and George A. Black, of Portland, for $100,000 for alleged libel, notice has been filed by the circuit court to "dismiss or proceed."

West and Black, as members of Governor Pierce's stock investigating committee, last winter made a report on the operations of the Hartman Syndicate, Inc., along with several others.

Outside of the filing of the original complaint, no legal action was ever taken, and the court, to clear the docket, issued the latest notice.

EGG FAMINE IN UNITED STATES IS EXPERT'S PROPHECY

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 14.—(A. P.)—Decision to adopt a system of registration and certification was made by the American Poultry Association in convention here.

Provision was made for the standard bred fowls, champion individuals and productive fowls, based upon records made in exhibitions and in egg-laying contests.

A prediction that the United States will face an egg famine was made by L. E. Holtzer, secretary of the Iowa Poultry Breeders' Association. He based his prediction on government figures that indicate that the increase in consumption of poultry products is not being met by breeders and farmers.

The average farm family consumes 150 pounds of eggs a year, which averages about an egg every day for two people, he reported.

State League of Building & Loan to Meet, Medford, Sept.

The state league of Building and Loan and Saving and Loan associations of Oregon will meet in Medford September 12, at the Hotel Medford. In addition to the regular proceedings there will be a banquet in the evening.

There are 35 associations in the state and there will be a large number of delegates present. O. C. Boggs of Medford is president and E. G. Webber of Portland, secretary.

Colleen Moore in Desert Flower

Colleen Moore was never more delightful than she is revealed this week at the Hunt's Craterian in "The Desert Flower."

It presents Miss Moore in the pathetic poignant guise of little Maggie Fortune, step daughter of a brute of a step-father, whose inherent instincts for the better things of life seek to find expression through a baby sister, whom she sends away to enjoy the refinements of a real home and education, while she goes into a mining camp dance hall to provide the wherewithal.

How in this rough environment she yet wins and regains the respect of all, and through her budding love for the errant son of a fine eastern family redeems the recalcitrant rolling stone and extracts her own reward all to reluctantly, is compellingly set forth by the gifted little star.

Baby Peggy at Rialto Theatre

Baby Peggy will be seen at the Rialto theatre today and tomorrow. Supporters are Hobart Bosworth, Irene Rich, Lincoln Stedman, Harry T. Morey and Barbara Tennant.

The story deals with a child saved from a shipwreck by an old sea captain, Jeremiah Judkins, who is the keeper of a lighthouse. Her mother's body, washed ashore lashed to a mast, has clasped in the arms, the tiny infant. Judkins, revives the baby and adopts her. As she grows into childhood she takes the name of Captain January, and becomes a "little mother" around the lighthouse, nursing and cheering the old captain. Villagers hostile to Judkins try to have the child placed in an orphan asylum but fail. Captain January's aunt appears and takes her to Boston to educate. Judkins is pining away through grief for the child, when Captain January suddenly reappears. She had run away from the luxurious Boston home to join her old company.
