Over 60 gallons of huckleberries, which were picked in the Mount Pitt country, were sold at the public market this morning before 8 o'clock. Several loads of peaches, which comprised the entire stock, were also out at the same time. The usual line of home grown produce enjoyed the average good patronage. Marketmaster Runyard states huckleberries picked in the same section will again be on sale next Tuesday.

John Lawson, who had charge of the Southern Oregon Tennis meet at Ashland, desires to correct a statement published relative to the players, and give a full record of credit to the Roseburg entries. Reference to the star players of the local entrants, Sam Brown, Fish and Allen, left the impression they were the stars of the tourney, when, as a matter of fact, there were no stars, and Hunt, Giles, Bruden and Gilchrist of Roseburg played them to a finish, and are equally worthy of praise. Beeson declared.
