

MAYORALTY FIGHT IN NEW YORK CITY GETTING WARMER

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—(A. P.)—With five candidates formally in the field for mayor, the primary scramble is getting hotter and hotter.

The participants in the mayoralty race as shown by the nominating petitions filed last night are:

Democrat—Mayor John F. Hylan, for re-election in his own ticket, supported by William Randolph Hearst.

State Senator James Walker, Tammany designer, supported by Governor Smith.

Republican—Frank D. Waterman, fountain pen manufacturer, "regular" designer of republican leaders; William Bennett and former state secretary, John J. Lyons, "insurgents."

Socialist—The Rev. Norman Thomas.

The independent league, inactive Hearst political organization, came to life yesterday at the Riverside home of the publisher. Resolutions were passed unanimously supporting Mayor Hylan and repudiating the endorsement of the Tammany slate given a few days ago by Deputy Register Michael McCarthy in the name of the league.

Joseph P. Willcomb, Mr. Hearst's secretary, was elected chairman. He banded as "bum" reports that the league would put an independent ticket in the field, but declined to predict what his organization would do if Mayor Hylan was defeated in the primaries September 15. The election is November 3.

Senator Walker has come out with a platform which declares among other things for municipal ownership and operation of transit systems, including buses, retention of the five cent fare and more subways.

Mayor Hylan, running on his record of eight years, has charged that both Walker and the republicans have grabbed the five cent fare issue for political issues only and are obligated to the traction interests. Mr. Waterman has summed up his platform in the words, "subways, schools and safety," the latter referring to more adequate police protection.

KLAMATH FALLS RAILROAD WORKER FOUND MURDERED

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Aug. 18.—Phelipe Navarro, 25, employed in a railroad section crew died in a local hospital this afternoon from knife wounds sustained in a shack at Algona early this morning.

The fight is believed to have culminated from an all-night card game. An ambulance was rushed to Algona at 6:20 this morning. Navarro was found lying unconscious on the floor of the shack, which showed no other evidences of a fight. A deep and jagged knife wound extended from the lower part of his right shoulder down the length of his arm to below his elbow.

Circumstances surrounding the fight and cutting affray are shrouded in mystery. Sheriff Dowling admitted this afternoon that he had made no investigation of the murderous assault.

"I don't intend to do anything until somebody files a complaint," he said.

A. J. Lyle, hospital manager, notified the sheriff of the stabbing affray as soon as he returned to the city with the stricken man. The sheriff admitted that he had been notified but said it was "not official."

So far as is known here or at Algona, his assailant has fled the country as no effort has been made to locate his identity or to apprehend him.

U. OF W. PROFESSOR NAMED PRESIDENT UNIVERSITY OF C.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Max Mason, professor of mathematical physics in the University of Wisconsin, is the new president of the University of Chicago. He will begin his administration October 1.

Selection of Professor Mason, who invented the noted Mason hydrometer for determining and testing submarine mines during the world war, was made by a joint committee of faculty and trustees named after the death of President Ernest Desautel Thurston last May. His election by the trustees was unanimous upon the recommendation of the joint committee and is accepted.

Dr. Mason is 47 years old and a native of Wisconsin. He was educated at the University of Wisconsin and the University of Göttingen.

ASHLAND WATER PROJECT TO COST NEARLY $500,000

ASHLAND, Aug. 19.—After an absence of several days in the Cow creek country, the party under the leadership of City Engineer F. H. Walker and City Water Superintendent Earl Hodder, have returned and will make their report upon their findings at the meeting of the city council. A number of days have been spent taking measurements on the stream flow, checking up on the report made by Stuart McKissick, engineer, who was employed last fall to make a report on the project. When the report was given, McKissick asked that a check be made that mid-summer and mid-winter flows might be recorded. The city has filed upon the water rights, but the Talent Irrigation district has prior rights, so the city can not obtain water unless the district relinquishes some of its rights. With a half mile of tunnel and several miles of pipe line to construct, the project will cost in the neighborhood of $450,000.

Beginning Thursday evening, August 27, at which the Rev. H. A. Carnahan, D. D., former pastor, will preside at a prayer and praise service, and continuing until Sunday evening when the Rev. F. C. Koehler of Spokane, pastor from 1918 until 1923 will give the sermon at the union praise service, the First Presbyterian church of Ashland will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary.

On Friday there will be a basket dinner on the Manse lawn and at 2:30 p. m. fellowship and reminiscence hour, with Wirt M. Wright presiding and in the evening the golden jubilee program with the presentation of church history, greetings from former pastors, representatives of synods, Presbyteries, the Ashland churches and others, the pastor, the Rev. J. C. Mergler, presiding. Sunday morning the Rev. Ferdinand D. Strange, the pastor from 1887-1902, will preside at the communion service. There will be four of the ten former pastors of the church present. Letters have been sent to former pastors and to as many of former members as addresses were known, to be present on this occasion. The Rev. John B. Donaldson, D. D., of Palo Alto, California, will be here. He was pastor in 1877, following Father Williams, who was the first to occupy the pulpit. Six charter members of the local church are still living, and will wear the costumes of fifty years ago.

Those in attendance at the Epworth league institute at Cottage Grove returned yesterday and report a most interesting and helpful session. Fifteen attended from Ashland. The Rev. S. J. Chaney was dean of the institute. The sessions were held at the camp meeting grounds there, which are owned by the M. E. conference, an ideal place for such a gathering. There was a good attendance from the different M. E. churches and many local people enjoyed the meetings with them. Last year the institute was held at Ashland and brought a fine gathering of young people here, with splendid meetings.

Walterson Lowe, one of the faculty of the summer school of art, left for the A. J. Klocker summer home near Trail yesterday afternoon. He expects to leave for the east Monday, with a number of lecture engagements on route. He is giving a benefit for the Belgian ladies milk fund at the Civic club house Friday evening. Readings in palmistry will be the feature of the evening, and considerable interest is felt. A large attendance is expected.

Mrs. Ruhl is hostess for the Presbyterian Missionary society meeting this afternoon. Since the hostess lives on the east side of town, on Liberty street, ways are provided for those who wish to go. The ladies of the congregation are cordially invited to attend. It is an Oriental treat. An excellent program is planned and those in attendance may be assured a pleasant interesting afternoon.

The Rev. F. C. Koehler writes that they will leave Spokane about the 18th, driving down, going to Klamath Falls first to visit with Fred Koehler who is employed there, then coming over to Ashland for the golden jubilee celebration of the Presbyterian church and to visit with the many friends here.

Miss Erta Turner had the misfortune to break her shoulder while picking pears at her home on Sixth street. The accident is a most painful one, but the young lady is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Kenneth McWilliams, her son, Donald, Mrs. George Helms and children, attended the show at Medford Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Billings, after spending a fortnight at Ney Springs near Mt. Shasta, returned Monday evening much benefitted by the trip.

Thomas Hill, the new proprietor of the Plaza market is the purchaser of the residence on Granite street which was sold Saturday evening at auction, an innovation in the disposal of real estate. The house was owned by Jesse Winburn and A. L. Gideon acted as auctioneer. The purchase price was $2400. There was an interested crowd in attendance and Mr. Winburn expressed himself as well pleased with the results of the auction.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Mr. Ira Wilson of Long Beach to Miss Mabel Bly of Missouri. Mr. Wilson was a former principal of Junior high and has many friends who offer congratulations. He is now in charge of the mental testing department for children in Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harvick and son who have been touring southern Oregon are guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Crandall. Mrs. Harvick is a cousin of Mrs. Crandall.

Mr. LaFollette pointed out that mail pilots under normal conditions, have a vision of about thirty miles while flying and that they could easily spot fires that might otherwise not be noticed, before they had gained considerable headway.

ASSOCIATED GASOLINE

MORE MILES TO THE GALLON

C L E A N

Perhaps you have considered cleanness in gasoline as simply freedom from impurities or foreign substances. That is important, certainly. But it isn't the whole story. True cleanness in gasoline means much more than physical cleanness. Associated Gasoline is distilled in such a way as to be given a scientifically correct "chain" or series of "boiling points." Starting with the more volatile parts, these boiling points gradually rise, in unbroken sequence, on up through the heavier or power-producing parts or "fractions." That is why Associated ignites instantly and "burns" or explodes completely, thus yielding all the power there is in each "charge." This is true gasoline cleanness, only suggested by the sparkling clearness of Associated Gasoline. Get "more miles to the gallon" through sustained quality.
