

ENTERTAINERS AT LEGION MEETING ON AUGUST 24TH

The entertainment committee of the Medford Legion has a real program for members of the post and auxiliary for the next meeting.

Joe A. Frazer and Frank E. Lacy, known as the benefit entertainers, will appear here before the members of the American Legion and auxiliary.

Frazer and Lacy are on a state wide tour in the interests of thrift and home ownership, and present two very effective illustrated lectures on saving.

They also are said to present a very clever line of songs, characterizations and impersonations in costume.

Frazer and Lacy have been well received all over the state, having appeared before the Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions club, American Legion and other organizations.

They will appear at the Armory Monday evening, August 24th, at 8:30 p. m. The meeting will be open to the American Legion and Auxiliary and all their friends or anyone who cares to attend.

Commander McElhose is very anxious to have every member present at the meeting of the post and the entertainment reports for several committees will be heard, business meeting will start at 7:20 sharp.

New Screen Beauty Hunt's Craterian

America's newest screen star will be introduced to Medford audiences at Hunt's Craterian tomorrow in "Lost—A Wife."

Greta Nissen, chosen by European artists and beauty experts of this country as the most beautiful foreign actress to adopt the United States as her home, makes her debut.

"Let a Thousand Tons (Menjou) meet and falls in love with the pretty Miss Nissen. Tony had just made a bet that the face of the girl whose back was turned from him was "awful." He took one clear look at her—and paid the thousand dollars.

From this point on there is one complication after another.

Zane Grey's new screen production, "Code of the West," closes at Hunt's Craterian tonight. Unlike Mr. Grey's usual stories, which tell of important events of the early history of the west, this picture shows what happens when a flapper from the wide open places of the east meets a cowboy from the vast open spaces of the west.

Owen Moore, as the young cowboy, who turns out to be a very creditable performer; Constance Bennett, as the flirtatious flapper; Others in the cast are Mabel Ballin, Charles Ogilvie and Davis Butler.

Tom Mix in Western Thriller

Jini Lassiter, the "two gun man," one of the most vivid and impressive figures of fiction, has been doubly immortalized. The Zane Grey hero, who rides so magnificently through the pages of "Riders of the Purple Sage," has lost nothing of his virility in the film play of that name in which Tom Mix portrays the principal role.

This picture will be shown at the Rialto theater tomorrow and Saturday.

"Riders of the Purple Sage" was announced Aug. 8-9 for a showing, but through an error in shipping, and the management having other attractions booked for following dates, it was delayed until tomorrow and Saturday.

Constance Bennett closes at the Rialto tonight in "The Marriage Wheel." This is one of the best pictures Miss Griffith has appeared in.
