

50TH JUBILEE OF ASHLAND CHURCH BEING CELEBRATED

ASHLAND, Aug. 28.—With the opening services Thursday evening the fiftieth golden jubilee celebration of the First Presbyterian church of Ashland is in full swing. Dr. H. A. Carnahan, pastor of the church from 1914 until 1918, led the service and preached an inspiring sermon to a large assembly. There were present, last night three of the former pastors, the Rev. John B. Donaldson, D. D., who was pastor in 1877 and 1878, the Rev. C. F. W. Koehler, the Rev. P. G. Stranace and the Rev. H. A. Carnahan. Dr. Donaldson arrived Friday morning. At that gathering too, were the Reverends Edgar Gray and Reichard, Presbyterian ministers.

Today's basket dinner will be held in the dining room of the church. It being too cool for the picnic feature on the lawn. It is expected there will be a record attendance. A picture of the surviving charter members and the former pastors will be taken this afternoon. Those who have worked in the church for the past half century, and were charter members, are Mrs. Mary Dunn, Mrs. Ann H. Russell, Mrs. Sarah Walker, Mrs. Nancy Applegate, Mrs. Ellen Giddings, Mrs. Sarah Kentner and Mrs. Laura Woodson Howard. The afternoon promises to be a most interesting one for this is the Fellowship and Reminiscence Hour, and is given over to the ones who helped to build up the church.

In the evening service, each visiting former pastor takes part, greetings are heard from synod and presbytery, the early days of the Sunday school are told by G. F. Billings, and the history of the church will be read. There are special numbers of music. The celebration closes Sunday evening.

Three cars were wrecked on the Skikwyas, south of the Summit ranch Wednesday evening, when Oreville L. Jones, Grants Pass; Victor H. Bowen of Oakland, California, and A. J. Kazan of Los Angeles, came together and crashed into the ditch, on the upper side of the road. Had the cars gone over the bank on the lower side of the road way they would have rolled for hundreds of feet. Fortunately none of the passengers were injured, but all cars had to be towed into Ashland. According to the story of Traffic Officer Charles Taylor, Jones was coming north on the highway, Bowen, also travelling north, when at a curve near the Summit ranch Jones attempted to pass Bowen. At the same time Kazan, going south, appeared around the turn. Jones attempted to pass; both the others tried to swerve to avoid a collision, but the three came together with the resultant wreck.

Shortly after school opens, on September 11, there will be a reception given for the teaching force of the Ashland schools, at the Congressional church. The affair takes place Friday evening at 7 o'clock. It is given under the auspices of the Ashland Ministerial association, and a committee has been appointed who will have charge. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to cooperate with the committee in giving a cordial welcome to the teachers for the coming year.

Sam Kozler, secretary of state, will be the speaker at the first Chamber of Commerce luncheon, given September 1. It is announced Secretary Fuller has arranged for a number of forum speakers, the next, Congressman W. C. Hawley, followed by Senator McNary. The forum committee in charge of the weekly forums is composed of V. V. Mills, S. J. Chaney, S. A. Peters, Dr. E. A. Woods, J. B. Saunders, Guy Good and P. K. Hammond.

Next Wednesday night will be the final band concert of the season, the evenings have now become too cool for open air entertainment. The last concert was especially pleasing, but was not so well attended, owing to the weather.

The Vanity Shop has been sold to Miss Ruby McNamara. It is located over Miller's Toggery.

The Thomas Hill family of Talent are moving to Ashland. They will occupy the newly purchased home on Granite street. Mr. Hill is the recent purchaser of the Plaza market, formerly by H. A. Stearns.

DARROW SCORED BY OHIO JUDGE FOR DAYTON PLEA

CLEVELAND, Aug. 27.—(A. P.)—The conduct of Clarence Darrow in the Scopes trial in Dayton, Tenn., was pointed to today by Carrington T. Marshall, chief justice of the Ohio supreme court, "as an example of the unethical practitioner which should bring upon him the condemnation of all self-respecting members of the bench and bar."

The chief justice's criticism was made in an address to some 200 law students sworn in as attorneys here. "The law of that case was plain and simple," he said. "Neither the indictment nor the statute under which the indictment was framed contained any mention of evolution, neither did they in the remotest degree involve or necessarily provoke any discussion of the theory of evolution."

"The Tennessee statute provides that it shall be unlawful for any teacher in any of the public schools of the state to teach any theory that denied the story of the Divine creation of man or to teach that man has descended from a lower order of animals. That the forbidden doctrines were so taught was freely admitted by the defendant. No defense was therefore open except that of the constitutional validity of the law itself."

"And yet Darrow sought to lull, beguile and bluff the judge into admitting expert evidence on the soundness of the theory of evolution."
