

MEDFORD, OREGON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1925

NO. 136

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY

ROBBERS BUSY IN TALENT DISTRICT, STORES RANSACKED

TALENT, Aug. 27. — (Special) — There seems to be an epidemic of robbery in the smaller towns. A Phoenix store was broken into recently, last Saturday night the Hibbard store and Wednesday night the pool hall was broken into.

Talent school will open Monday, September 7, for enrollment and assignments of lessons. All new students should bring credentials the first day. Principal E. E. Evans will be at his office in school building all day Saturday to confer with students.

Miss Lucile Holdridge spent Friday at the Crossing ranch near Central Point with her friend, Leah Parker, who will leave soon to attend school in the east.

The Dean Memorial Association of Wagner Creek and Talent held a picnic in Ashland park Sunday, August 23 which was well attended.

E. E. Evans has received a card, announcing the marriage of his sister, Ruby, to Henry Lincke in Detroit, Mich., Aug. 15. Miss Ruby visited her father in Talent three years ago this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Turnbaugh returned Saturday from a three-day outing by motor. They camped in the mountains north of Grants Pass. Mrs. W. J. Martin, who is visiting them, cared for her mother, Mrs. Bowman, during their absence.

Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Nevel of Prineville, who are touring the valley called on Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Evans Thursday of last week. Mrs. Lily Davis of Chico, Calif., who formerly lived on Wagner creek, and her daughter, Mrs. Eva Davis Walton and infant son of San Jose, Calif., are in Talent, visiting old friends this week. Mrs. Davis has been in the valley all the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barnes and children of Phoenix were visitors Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. E. E. Evans.

Local items of this column should be handed to the local correspondent not later than Wednesday evening.

Friends all over the valley will be glad to know that Mrs. Elmer Kincaid, who underwent a serious operation several weeks ago, is getting along finely, and will soon be convalescent. Mrs. A. H. Walker is the attending nurse.

Mr. Ralph Bowman of Malin, who with his wife and infant daughter, Emma Lucy, are visiting relatives in Talent, has received the appointment of postmaster in Malin. He will take up his new duties about September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Oden and children who have been visiting friends in the valley the past week, left Sunday morning for their home in Los Angeles. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Oden of Hill, Calif., who will visit in Los Angeles until September 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Newberry and daughters, Violet and Ida of Boise Valley, Idaho, arrived last Friday for an extended visit at the home of E. T. Newberry.

Mr. Axel Amundson spent Sunday in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Edith Brant of Myrtle Point who has been visiting her father, Mr. Marion Tryer, returned Saturday. While here she looked after storing her household goods. Mr. Brant is plastering the new high school building at Myrtle Point.

Mr. D. W. Engles and Mr. Paul and their families from Medford have moved into the Nye place on the highway, formerly known as the L. Chydler home.

Mrs. Pearl Foster has returned from Grants Pass and is again occupying her own home.

Mr. and Mrs. Asel Beckwith have moved into northern California.

Woman's Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. W. A. Stratton in Valley View Thursday, September 3 at 2:30 with Mrs. Jennie Lawrence as leader. Everyone is invited.

Mr. Robert Purvis who has lived on Wagner creek a good many years passed away quite unexpectedly last Monday evening. He was taken to the Community hospital in Medford last Saturday afternoon where he expected to undergo an operation. He was a great sufferer, and leaves many friends and relatives in the valley to mourn his loss. Funeral was held in Ashland Wednesday.

Mrs. Alice Willets of Klamath Falls has arrived for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Katherine Alford, who is not as well as usual.

Regular meeting of Ladies' Community club is called for next Wednesday, September 2, at the club rooms. A good attendance is desired, for there are many things of interest needing attention.

Construction has commenced on the home of W. S. Eaton and Mr. W. L. Lewis on the highway south of Talent.

Professor and Mrs. Johnston who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Earl Newberry have returned to their home in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Witherow and family spent the week end at Cover Lake.

The school house grounds are looking extra fine just now. The lawn is green and velvety and the canna beds are in the height of their glory. It will keep your wife to take a walk past the school grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow Stratton, Frank and Jean Stratton and Charlie Long, Jr., left at 3 a. m. Sunday morning for Crater Lake, returning by Fort Klamath and Klamath Falls in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gettling and children of Boise, Idaho, have rented the Cook bungalow on Wagner street. The Gettings lived in Talent for a while about a year ago, and have returned on account of the poor health of Mrs. Gettling's mother, Mrs. Williams, who lives near Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clinton have moved into housekeeping rooms up stairs at Earl Witherow's on the highway. Mrs. Clinton's mother, Mrs. Jennings and children, have moved into rooms on the first floor. The families formerly lived in Talent.

but for several months have resided at Bonanza.

Mrs. Bowman, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Turnbaugh, is very seriously ill. Her son, Ed Bowman, and his wife of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman of Medford, came Tuesday to be with her.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Lucy T. Wedding, who formerly taught in Talent high will teach in Topeka, Kansas, this year.

Ray Rapp underwent an operation for removal of adenoids and tonsils in Phoenix the past week. Dr. Malmgren and Dr. Woods of Ashland performed the operation. Ray is doing nicely.

The George Carter family have gone to Huckleberry mountain after berries.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Holdridge and Lucile had as their dinner guests Thursday, August 26, Mrs. Jennie

Lawrence and their daughters, Alice and Edith and their guest Gladys White-Browne.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bannister were Crater Lake visitors over the week-end.

The Talent Huckleberry club will meet at the home of Mrs. George Galbraith on Bagley ranch Friday, September 4 at 2 p. m.

F. L. Holdridge and family had a short outing trip to Union Creek last week-end.

The Wimer school house on Saturday night, and from all reports there was a lively time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Kelly returned the last of the week from their motor trip to the coast. They report a nice trip.

Buddie Odin and wife of Evans valley have gone to the huckleberry patch for a few days outing.

Miss Bernice Clugston underwent an operation at Grants Pass Tuesday. Miss Clugston has been suffering with appendicitis.

Men are at work remodeling the Riverside Community club house. The floor space is to be made much longer, making it into a modern dance hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dingler spent the day Sunday at the Earl Scott home.

Fred Horton, who was operated on about a week ago, is getting along extra well, we are glad to report.

ROGUE RIVER

By Mrs. E. W. Scott.

Mr. Howell and family, who have been residing at the Thrush ranch, have gone to California to reside. There was a school meeting held at the Wimer school house on Saturday night, and from all reports there was a lively time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Kelly returned the last of the week from their motor trip to the coast. They report a nice trip.

Buddie Odin and wife of Evans valley have gone to the huckleberry patch for a few days outing.

Miss Bernice Clugston underwent an operation at Grants Pass Tuesday. Miss Clugston has been suffering with appendicitis.

Men are at work remodeling the Riverside Community club house. The floor space is to be made much longer, making it into a modern dance hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dingler spent the day Sunday at the Earl Scott home.

Fred Horton, who was operated on about a week ago, is getting along extra well, we are glad to report.

He is resting easier than at any time since he was injured.

Robert Clugston is home this week from Duris on account of his daughter's illness.

The Rogue River school will open Monday, September 7.

Mrs. Martha Seaman and Mrs. Beadie Burkhardt and little Betty Jean spent Sunday afternoon and evening at the Wiley Carter ranch.

Mrs. Carcy has returned from a two months visit at Newport and other northern points.

J. T. Bailey, who runs the Sanitary meat market, reports a fine business and that a little later he will have more of a variety of meat.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Strahan of Rock Point and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strahan and family attended the show at Grants Pass Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenwood were Sunday callers at the Scott home. Mr. Greenwood expects soon to erect a house and other improvements on his land on Evans creek.

Mr. Rock, who recently purchased five acres on Fine street, has lumber on the ground for a new house.

L. C. Itsho is carrying his arm in a sling. The cause is a large abscess on the elbow.

Ovella Dingler and Ralph Will were home over Sunday from near Glendale where they are employed. Mrs. Will and Miss Mabel Wukerman returned with them for a visit.

Frank and Paul Strahan have returned to Talent after a few days spent here with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burkhardt were visitors at the Del Rio orchards Wednesday.

E. S. Tars Desert Elect. AUCKLAND, Aug. 26.—American tars must like New Zealand. Nineteen of them were missing when the fleet sailed.

DESIGNER PATTERNS

The new fall styles as depicted in the Fall Designer are not only most charming, but easy to make.

RUSSELL'S

PHONE 31

TELEPHONE ORDERS

Our Phone 31 is at your service every hour of the day, and our individual attention to your orders is assured.

New Silks and in

The demand for "satin faced" silks is greater than ever and we are just opening for Saturday display every color demanded for fall in a 40-inch crepe back satin with a very high luster, a pure dye all silk fabric, that we are going to feature at the very low price per yard—

$3.50.

New Woolen Dress Goods

With the tang of fall in the air the thoughts turn to wool materials again and we are very anxious to have you see the pretty new woolens we have out for those desiring to make their own clothes.

See Them Saturday.

New Fall Fashions

Fashion decrees the use of Fur in all manner of ways for the New Fall Coats

Gorgeous fur collars, cuffs, bands, goedetts and full panels all are used in profusion. The materials are varied, with the genuine "needle points" leading. The two coats pictured are in the genuine "needle point," one with gorgeous fox collar and cuffs, the other with muskrat cuff bands and shawl collar continuing on one side the full length of the coat. The price—$89.50—and it's remarkably low for such coats.

If you appreciate real coat values we know you will be interested in our exceptionally strong show—$25 to $75 of popular priced coats at.....

Wonderful New Dresses Just Arrived

Smartest styles, most demanded fabrics, most wanted colors such as cracklehead blue, pansy and cookoo, all are represented in this special display and we will appreciate the opportunity to show you at..... $19.75

School Time for the Miss of 8 to 17 years, often meant that you need to select in a hurry some of the needed wardrobe to start off the school year just right. We have anticipated your needs this year with the most wonderful line of coats and school dresses, which will be featured on Saturday. The coats are in most becoming styles, all fur trimmed and you will be agreeably surprised at the prices—

$15—$25

Blankets from the Oregon City Woolen Mills

Oregon made from the finest of Oregon wool and the beautiful colorings cannot be equalled it seems. Many new patterns that will appeal to those desiring pretty new bed coverings this fall. There are two qualities and weights here now to make your selection from Saturday at..... $10 and $12.50

Lunch Cloths for Saturday at 50c

Just 100 of those "Cleaned in a Jiffy" lunch cloths in six different patterns. The designs are all new and several two color effects are shown this time. The last time we put these on sale all were sold out by 2 o'clock, so better come early. No telephone orders..... 50c

TOWELS — TOWELS A Saturday Sale at 39c

Specially purchased and passing on the saving to you for Saturday. An "athletic ribbed towel" that should appeal to everyone desiring a real high-grade towel. This towel is worth 60c, so lay in a supply at this price..... 39c

Men Will Appreciate the Values in the New Fall Suits. 100% Wool

The 100% all virgin wool of our Cortley and Kirschbaum suits are making a great appeal to the "thoughtful" men buyers. Of course, this means more wear and, of course, 100% virgin wool keeps the fit and shape much better than processed woolens.

Price is not obtained in our garments with the sacrifice of "good quality," but price is obtained by purchasing these suits from the largest makers of popular priced suits in the world today. All these things as stated above will be better appreciated in you permit us to show you the $25 to $45 suit we selected just for you at prices from.....

Flannel Trousers, $5.95

Young men who want good serviceable separate trousers for school will find these exceptional values at $5.95

New Fall Shirts

With the arrival of our "Geo. P. Ide" shirts for men we are showing all the newest things for fall wear.

Boys — Young Men Your Suit

can look just like Dad's this fall. The suits with two pair long pants and vest for all ages of boys are just the thing. The prices are very low, too.

Bigger and Better Than Ever, Jackson County Fair, September 16-19.