Lion Club Roars

On Wednesday noon last the club held their regular weekly luncheon meeting at the Holland Hotel. The guests present included Mr. Bristow of the Pacific State Insurance company of Portland and C. A. Cook. Mr. Cook is in charge of Boy Scout activities in most of the counties of southern Oregon and says the Lions an interesting talk about the Boy Scout summer camp at Lake of the Woods last July. He said that during the summer more than 60 boys climbed to the top of Mt. Pitt and that several mountain climbing records were broken as a result. Lion President Judy stated that the new signs which the Lions club are to have at the north, east and south entrances to Medford were ready and that they would be put up shortly.
