

PROGRAM FOR ODD FELLOWS MEETING IS MADE PUBLIC

The one hundred and first annual session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows will be held in Portland September 21-25. The program for the occasion has just been completed and is now in the hands of the printer. It will be a souvenir booklet of the Pacific Northwest, containing pictures of all the leaders of the various branches in the order.

On September 19, preceding the opening of Sovereign Grand Lodge there will be an excursion on the S. P. & S. railroad to the shores of the Pacific ocean. The members of the order in Clatsop county are providing a clam bake and seafood banquet for the thousand or more delegates who are expected to take this trip. The trip will be free to all officers and members of S. G. L. General Military Council officers and members of the Association of Rebekah assemblies, grand secretaries and grand stewards, and members of the I. O. O. F. Fraternal Press association. All of these organizations of Odd Fellowship will hold sessions in Portland during Sovereign Grand Lodge week.

On the Sunday of September 20, special services will be held for the visitors in the First Baptist church. This will be followed by a reception in the afternoon at the Odd Fellows Home, 32nd and Holgate streets, given by the Rebekah assembly of Oregon to all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

The regular sessions of the various branches of the order will be held in the new Odd Fellows temple, corner 10th and Salmon streets, beginning on the morning of September 21. The evening sessions, general receptions, etc., will be held in the City Auditorium, while there will be several banquets held in the dining rooms of Hotel Multnomah which is the official headquarters for Sovereign Grand Lodge officers.

Much preparation is being made by all the lodges in Oregon, as well as states for the grand parade which takes place on Wednesday, September 23. The line of march and plan of organization for this big parade has been established. It is expected that at least 40,000 members of the order will participate in this parade, and every lodge within a radius of 100 miles of Portland is organizing for exhibition in the line of march. Many of the counties of Oregon are organizing full county units. Tillamook county, with a membership of over 600, is expecting to place a float, brass band, and at least 400 members in their section. Yamhill county has over 900 members of the various branches of Odd Fellowship. They will also have a band, float, and sections of organized marchers. The chairman of their committee reports that fully half of the membership will be present on that day. Early in the arrangement Marion county organized the various lodges of that section for participation in the big parade. Astoria will be on hand with her municipal band, and those who have seen them in parade during the past, know that they will make a good showing. Pendleton will be down with a big delegation from Umatilla county, while the 7000 members of the order in Portland are expected to be in the line of parade almost to a man.

The parade will form on 14th and Morrison streets and the streets running north and west from this intersection. The time of starting will be 2 o'clock, and the line of march is as follows:

The parade will march from 14th and Morrison streets east on Morrison to 12th, north on 12th to Alder, east on Alder to Broadway, north on Broadway to Pine, east on Pine to 6th, south on 6th to Morrison, east on Morrison to 5th, north on 5th to Pine, east on Pine to 4th, south on 4th to Taylor, west on Taylor to 10th, south on 10th to Madison, east on Madison to 6th, disbanding to the east and south as directed by the marshals.

The sections are arranged to be led by Chief of Police L. V. Jenkins, Mayor George L. Baker, Walter M. Hoyer, governor of Oregon, and the general committee of arrangements and Oregon Grand Lodge officer. Following this will be the Patriarchal Militant, one of the finest caparisoned body of organized marchers in the world. In times past there have been as many as 3000 plumed members of this branch of Odd Fellowship in the line of march at Sovereign Grand Lodge week there will be the older members of the order in uniform. It is expected that every fifty year member will ride in this section. After this comes the main body of the parade, including all of Multnomah county and various sections from Canada, the eastern, southern, central and western states. The state of Washington and also Idaho will each form a separate section in the parade. The various bands, floats, and other special features will be in line with their various sections.

CHURCH JUBILEE CALLS OUT MANY TALKS OF LONG AGO

ASHLAND, Aug. 29.—More than 150 people, members and visiting pastors, were seated at the tables gracing with their burden of good things, Thursday noon at the Presbyterian church. Tables, bright with gay blossoms, and with good cheer and kindly fellowship manifest in happy faces, laughter and friendly words. Until two o'clock, guests lingered at table or in visit, when a picture was taken of visiting pastors, the seven charter members in quaint old costumes, and of the group as a whole.

At 2:30 everyone reassembled for the "Fellowship and Reimbursement Hour," with Wirt M. Wright presiding. The first called upon was Mrs. Ann H. Russell, who, wearing the dainty garb of the long ago, ascended the pulpit stairs and gave a talk, telling many things in the uncertain history of the church, some pathetic, some amusing, and all deeply interesting, picturing the early struggles that those who came later, would hardly have dared to face. Excerpts from an account of plans for an entertainment of that day were read from a copy of the Tidings of 1877. She told of the Sunday school started by a Mrs. Haworth, at Emerald Run, in the north part of town now, and enclosing a poem written by E. P. Campbell, commemorative of the incidents of the building of the early church in the trees," by Mrs. Koehler, after which Miss Florence Allen sang by request of Mrs. Russell, "The Garden."

The Rev. J. B. Donaldson talked of his coming and incidents of his early ministry, as did the Rev. F. D. Strang, both telling of their early experiences and happiness in the work in the community. Mrs. Mary M. Dunn added much to the story of those early days by telling of the sacrifices and self-denial the members endured in raising the money to make the start for the church. Dr. Carnahan and Dr. Koehler both spoke of their pastorates very feelingly. Of the charter members, Mrs. Sarah Walker, Mrs. Kenton Giddings and Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Applegate gave brief greetings, with the exception of Mrs. Walker, who told of her marriage by Father Williams and of the incident of that wedding journey. Mr. George Mathes remembered an incident connected with the laying of the cornerstone of the church when but a little lad. It was a very beautiful and happy hour.

Supper was served for guests that remained between services, and the following program was given in the evening:

3 FIRES IN CITY RESULT IN LOSS OF 1 DWELLING

The destruction of one dwelling, a slight fire at a local cannery, and a small blaze at a bakery, caused a loss estimated at over $1500 in the city yesterday.

A fire caused by an explosion of a kerosene stove destroyed the five-room dwelling of C. G. Hunt a quarter of a mile out of the city limits yesterday afternoon at 5:30. Its value was placed at $1500, covered by insurance. Neighbors who gathered managed to save a greater part of the furniture with the aid of E. Brown, Claude Steven and Dosey Glavin, who had rushed to the scene in the Dodge chemical car, as the house was too far distant from any available fire hydrant to use the Stutz pumper.

A fire at 11:30 last night, caused from sparks on the roof of the Rogue River Valley Cannery factory was extinguished while still in an incipient stage.

Two electric wires which had become short-circuited and overloaded, causing the insulation to burn, caused the department to rush to the Peerless bakery yesterday afternoon, but the situation was remedied by an electrician.

TRIS SPEAKER IS LEADING COBB IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—(A. P.)—The eyes of Tris Speaker, seeking the American league batting honors today are showing their old time judgment, which made the Cleveland pilot the champion over Ty Cobb in 1916.

Speaker is blazing the trail with an average of .391, with Cobb 31 points behind. Al Simmons of the Athletics and Harry Rice of the Browns are tied for third place with .378. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Bob Meusel of the Yankees, furnished the fireworks among the home run clouters by smashing two in one game and going into a tie with Ken Williams of the Browns, who has 25.

In base stealing Johnny Mostil of the White Sox holds his 27, far in advance of rivals.

Other leading batters: Heilmann, Detroit, .365; Slater, St. Louis, .362; Wingo, Detroit, .359; Lamm, Philadelphia, .354; Collins, Chicago, .347; Cochran, Philadelphia, .345; J. Sewell, Cleveland, .343.

Jack Fournier of the Dodgers, has the outstanding figure among National League batters this week. Nine of his 15 hits were for extra bases. Four were circuit blows, three triples and two doubles. He has 21 homers. Rogers Hornsby of the Cardinals remains in the lead with .384; five points ahead of his teammate, Jimmy Bottomley. The Cardinal leader has a slim chance of exceeding his 1924 total of 42 homers. He has 33 to date.

Hazen Cuyler of the Pirates crept one base closer to his team mate, Max Carey, for base stealing honors. Max falling to increase his 26 thefts while Hazen brought his total to 28.

Other leading hitters: Harper, Philadelphia, .365; Fournier, Brooklyn, .362; Blades, St. Louis, .354; Barron, Boston, .349; J. Wilson, Philadelphia, .348; Wrightstone, Philadelphia, .347; Wheat, Brooklyn, .347; Cuyler, Pittsburgh, .347; Stock, Brooklyn, .345; Cox, Brooklyn, .345.

GEORGE VON ELM SHOOTS A 77 ON CHAMPION COURSE

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 29.—(A. P.)—The great and the near great of the golf world are "tuning up" and exploring the course at the Oakmount Country club where the national amateur championship will be decided next week.

Francis Ouimet and Dave Herron, former national amateur champions, as well as a number of others have praised the links as exceedingly fast. Many strokes have been lost on the greens, they say, while many have been added in traps and the rough.

"Warming up" rounds ruled today, as yesterday. Herron has made the course in 84, Ouimet's card for his initial test shows 81, and Al Wade of Boston, shows 74. The runner up in the western open, Russell Martin of Chicago, has 75, and George Von Elm of Los Angeles, 77.

Others here to get the "feel" of things before Monday, when the tournament opens, are Jesse P. Guilford and Fred J. Wright of Boston. Guilford shot an 87 in practice, and Wright's card shows 84.

Among others on hand today are Charles "Chick" Evans of Chicago, William E. Herrick of New York, who finished second in the recent public links meet, and D. Clark Corkran of Philadelphia.

BILL SHORT IS BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY UNDER HEAVY BONDS

At hearings held yesterday before Justice of the Peace J. L. Roe at Jacksonville, Bill Short, alias Shannon, Agnes Read and brother Roland, who were arrested Wednesday in the Applegate country in connection with a premature moonshine raid, were bound over to the grand jury.

Short, who faces three charges, was bound over with bail set at $10,000, $700 of which is for assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, $2500 for the possession of an unregistered still, and $500 for transportation of liquor. The bond for the boy and girl was set at $500 each, also for transportation. An additional charge may be lodged against Read later for setting up and operating a still.

Rawles Moore, counsel for the defendant on the assault charge, contended that Short had not planned to shoot.

After the hearing was over, Agnes Read, who claims to be 19, and her brother were very light-hearted over the affair, asking if it were necessary to register and if a choice of rooms could be had at the county jail. Their brother is staying with them, but no charge has been placed against her.

Short's wife, who formerly lived in Medford, was not present at the hearing, but remained instead at the ranch in the Applegate country with her husband's uncle.

The raid Wednesday was the second time local officers were given opportunity to deal with guns in the hands of bootleggers while attempting to register. The first case occurred during the national guard encampment, when the "But," a small stand on the Crater Lake highway, was raided and several captures made.

CALL GENARO BOUT OFF CLUB IS CLOSED

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—(A. P.)—Cancellation of the ten round bout here next Wednesday night between Frankie Genaro, American flyweight champion, whom Phil Ladarys defeated in a ten round fight last Saturday night and Frankie Grandetto, Portland boxer, was announced today by Jack Root, manager of the Olympic auditorium.

A ten round go between George Rivers, San Francisco bantamweight and Billy Bonillas, Bakerfield, will be substituted for the Genaro-Grandetto contest, Root said.

The Olympic auditorium was padlocked by deputy sheriffs last Thursday following the filing by a cement contractor of a $92,000 mechanic's lien against the property.

Give Woodrow Wilson Film Sunday Night

The Woodrow Wilson Film Memorial will be presented Sunday evening at eight o'clock, in the First Methodist church, the Methodist church (south) joining in union services for the occasion.

The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial consists of six reels, showing the "real Wilson" the purpose of which is fostered by the Woodrow Wilson Memorial society, "to keep forever alive among his people, for whom he sacrificed himself."

The pictures are heralded as highly instructive and inspiring, and have been viewed by thousands.
