WALTER JOHNSON HERO OF VICTORY OVER ATHLETICS

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(A. P.)—World's series signs beckoned more plainly to Washington and Pittsburg today.

With the Pirates plowing steadily ahead in the National league to an advantage of eight full games over the Giants the Washington Senators paralleled the pace yesterday by striking a body blow at the tumbling Athletics in the American league, 7 to 3.

The hard clouting, confident Senators were supported by steady pitching of the veteran, Walter Johnson. Although he gave the visitors ten hits, he was almost invincible at crucial periods. At the bat he led the hitting with a pair of doubles and a single. Another veteran, Roger Peckinpaugh, accounted for four runs with a timely double in the third inning. The victory, Washington's fourth in a row, placed the champions four and one-half games in the lead and added a seventh straight defeat to Philadelphia's losing streak. The two teams play a second game today, with a four game series to come at Philadelphia next week.

Pittsburg posted its fifth straight victory, beating the Phillies, 10 to 3, with a landslide of seventeen hits. Aldridge and Moore made home runs. Today the Pirates are back home after a four in which they took twelve of their fourteen games with Brooklyn, New York, Boston and Philadelphia.

After peering away for several weeks at the door from the cellar, the Boston Braves bounced out with a loud explosion, which carried them all the way to the sixth landing. The victory was a slab triumph for Ranton over Alexander, the former collegian. Gautreau figuring prominently in a 3 to 0 shutout with a brace of timely singles.

Philadelphia and Chicago were both poised in the climb of the Hub outfit.

With Babe Ruth looking on from Colonel Ruppert's box, the Yankees noed out the Red Sox in an American league pitching duel between Shawkey and Ehmke, 2 to 1. Only four hits were gathered by the New Yorkers, but one of them a homer by Bob Meusel, accomplished as much as six singles and three doubles could have for Boston.

RABBIT MARANVILLE FACES DISCHARGE AS CUB MANAGER

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(A. P.)—Chicago's Herald and Examiner says Walter (Rabbit) Maranville, manager of the Chicago Nationals, has been summoned by President William Veeck to explain certain actions reported unofficially to the club executive.

Mr. Veeck has stated he would say nothing until Maranville has conferred with him personally. But, the newspaper says, the Cub pilot seems a likely candidate for the role of "in. ad."

There had been rumors, says the Herald and Examiner, that during Maranville's convalescing from a broken ankle he did not always act as one in his condition should.

This and stories of a conflict with a house detective in Boston during the early hours of Monday and his ejection from the bench and out of the park yesterday for questioning a decision of an umpire appear due for airing at the conference with President Veeck.

All of which, the newspaper deduces, gives rise to belief that the Cubs may have another manager next season.

CONNIE MACK HAS MORE WOE, UNION BOYCOTTS TEAM

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(A. P.)—As a part of a campaign by the American Federation of Labor to bring "economic pressure" against the Philadelphia American league baseball club, all union men in the national capital were ordered today by their officers to stay away from the Washington-Philadelphia game here.

The Washington central labor union announced that local union men who attended would be fined $5 to $25.

The order resulted from a charge that the Philadelphia club employed non-union labor in construction of its stadium in Philadelphia, in violation of an agreement made in 1919 with the American Federation of Labor.

The federation has advised union men in all other American league cities to make similar protests.

In order to emphasize that it did not wish the Washington club to suffer the local central union requested union members to attend two games in which Washington plays for every game they refused to attend because of participation by Philadelphia.

MAYOR HILAN AND GOVERNOR SMITH IN ROUGH AND TUMBLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(A. P.)—Tammany's family quarrel, as Governor Smith styled the fight for the democratic nomination for mayor, continued here.

Governor Smith and Mayor Hylan, whom the governor is opposing in behalf of State Senator Walker, have clashed once more in caustic statements. There are also no verbal bouquets but quite a few sharp exchanges by three candidates for the republican nomination for mayor.

The mayor last night, with references to Benedict Arnold, accused the governor of conspiracy to increase fares and of a boast that he "would put Hylan in the ash can."

Governor Smith accused the mayor of false statements about what happened at the state democratic convention in Syracuse in 1922. The mayor had quoted the governor as saying when asked not to oppose Mr. Hearst's nomination for United States senator: "What would Mrs. Vanderbilt and Mrs. Harriman say if I should acquiesce?" to which the governor replied in a statement: "Mayor Hylan never saw me during the convention."

DIRIGIBLE READY FOR 5 DAY TRIP OVER 11 STATES

LAKEHURST, N. J., Sept. 2.—(A. P.)—The Shenandoah was at her mooring mast today waiting to begin late in the afternoon a five day trip covering eleven eastern and mid-west states.

The tentative schedule called for departure at 4 p. m. and arrival back at the naval air station late Sunday night or Monday morning after moving through the skies above New Jersey, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan.

The Shenandoah will try to complete the flight upon which the Los Angeles embarked several months ago. One feature of the trip will be the mooring of the giant craft at a mast recently erected in Detroit for dirigibles by Henry Ford.

At a speed of thirty miles an hour, the Shenandoah will fly from Lakehurst to Philadelphia, Wheeling, W. Va., Zanesville, Ohio, Dayton, Indianapolis, Lafayette, Ind., Springfield, Ill., and Scott Field Illinois.

MISS EDERLE HAS A SMALL CHANCE

BOULOGNE, Sept. 2.—(A. P.)—Gertrude Ederle's hope of another try at the English channel this year is rather faint.

She has been postponing her start from day to day in the face of weather conditions so unfavorable that even the channel steamers have been delayed in their crossing.

Today the weather seemed to be moderating, but the sea was still running high and the wind was getting stronger.

There appeared no prospect of a start tonight and little chance of getting away tomorrow unless the weather unexpectedly changes for the better.

Those familiar with the channel believe the American star is doomed to disappointment and that her attempt will have to go over until 1926.

Honest at Any Rate

FRESNO, Calif.—William R. Wilcox, 22, who posed as a traffic officer and arrested a young woman for the purpose of raising her on an automobile ride, told the court, when he had been apprehended, that all evidence against him was true and that he wanted to be on his way to prison before night.

"She's better than she used to be"

—starts easier, climbs hills better and gives less trouble all around.

"And I believe the answer is this new Zerolene 'F' for Fords I've been using. It costs less than the oil I'd been using, but it actually seems to lubricate better."

Zerolene "F" for Fords has been on the market a little over a year—and already the majority of Pacific Coast Ford owners swear by it. It fulfills the most important requirement of a Ford lubricant—it gets to all the parts requiring lubrication—especially the wrist-pin bearings and upper half of the cylinder walls.

Zerolene "F" for Fords is made by the Standard Oil Company's patented vacuum process. It deposits a minimum of carbon, and because it lubricates better it enables the engine to develop a noticeable increase of power over and above what Ford owners have been accustomed to expect.

A Ford is an A-1 transportation investment. Protect your investment by proper lubrication.
