

COUNTY HEALTH BANQUET GIVEN VISITING DOCTORS

Approximately 200 guests were entertained when the Jackson County Health association were hosts at a supper given in honor of visiting members of the Oregon State Medical society and their wives last evening at 6:30 in the banquet room of the First Baptist church on North Central avenue.

Dr. W. W. P. Holt acted as toastmaster for the evening and welcomed the visiting doctors, who are attending the fifty-first annual session of the society held here this year. In a few well chosen words, Dr. C. J. Smith of Portland, president of the Oregon Public Health league, responded to the welcome tendered.

Dr. Walter H. Brown of Salem, recently of Ohio, where he has just completed a five year child welfare demonstration, which he is now lecturing in Marion county, gave a short after dinner speech concerning the welfare of the modern child. He cited the fact that present day children could be compared to cattle in the way of being reared, as stock in some cases is given more attention to health matters by owners than their own children, but which condition is now changing, as children are receiving an equal attention in regard to their health in the present and future. Dr. Brown's speech was enthusiastically applauded.

Dr. C. J. Smith then arose to thank the county health association upon their hospitality of tendering the banquet, and went on to voice words of praise in connection with the association's progressive spirit. He added that he admired the county as a whole for its progressive-ness, as a result of which, he said, he believed the whole state benefited because of a road-building policy the county had inaugurated before other parts of the state thought of doing same.

Dr. Holt commented favorably upon Dr. Smith's brief speech of appreciation, then announced the banquet was over and that it would be followed by the public meeting in the Elks Temple, where the entire assemblage then went. A feature of the banquet was the delicious steamed served and the floral decorations provided.

GIRLS' CONFERENCE OPENS IN MEDFORD LAST OF THE WEEK

Plans are rapidly maturing for the entertainment here in Medford, of the Southern Oregon Older Girls' Conference. It is probable that Northern California will be represented also by delegates from some of their towns. The counties of Cook, Curry, Josephine, Douglas, Klamath, and Jackson will be represented by delegates from their numerous towns and cities. These young people will be out of the high schools and will represent some of the finest of the young life of church and school and city among the girlhood of the southern part of the state.

It will be the privilege of every one in Medford whether on a committee or not to do all in their power to make the stay of these girls and their chaperones just as enjoyable and profitable as possible.

Oregon girls have made a good record elsewhere. The Oregon delegation of five girls captured the state shield, a valuable trophy offered at the national conference of Older Girls at Geneva Glen, Colorado. This trophy was given to the state whose delegation registered the highest efficiency. This shield will be brought to the Southern Oregon conference to go with others to the next national conference to help defend and bring back the shield again.

Delegates will arrive Friday and will be met at all trains and assigned to their places of entertainment for food and breakfast by the housing committee of which Mrs. A. W. Walker is chairman. Mrs. Grigsby is efficiently handling the local arrangements for the conference in general. A banquet is being planned for Saturday evening for all delegates, both local and from out of the city. On Sunday night there will be a mass meeting of delegates and churches in the Methodist church to hear the most interesting illustrated lecture "The Bridge of the Gods," by Mrs. Ferguson, the efficient religious educational worker of Hood River county.

Plans are also under way to take the girls on a trip to Crater Lake Monday and return the same day if the weather is favorable. The Chamber of Commerce is giving most cordial and valuable assistance in every way possible, helping especially in making possible the banquet and the Crater Lake trip.

The meetings will begin on Friday evening with registration and welcome of guests and will continue all day Saturday. On Sunday there will be a 6:30 a. m. prayer and devotional service—the delegates will then scatter to the various churches for their regular services, the day closing with a great service in the Methodist church.

All services will be in the Baptist church except the banquet and the Sunday night meeting.

SPEED RECORD TO CRATER L. BROKEN BY GIRLS' ESCORT

To travel approximately 315 miles in less than nine hours is an accomplishment credited to a local motorist, whose name is withheld for fear of motor cop action.

According to indirect information, the trip was made from Roseburg to Crater Lake and return via Medford, then to Hornbrook, Calif., between the hours of 9:35 a. m. and 6:30 p. m.

This motorist, it is said, was at Roseburg when called to Portland by telegram. Desiring to avoid night traveling, he boarded the train, leaving his car at that city. When returning from the state metropolis, he ate at the table in the dining car already occupied by three ladies, school teachers from the east, who had been touring the Pacific northwest.

Becoming interested in the conversation carried on by the ladies in regard to Oregon scenery, he suggested that they see Crater Lake. When informed that they would be unable to, as they were due in San Francisco the next morning to catch a steamer bound for Honolulu, he made the assertion that he would be able to take them to the lake and return in time to reboard the same train 150 miles south.

The party of four alighted at Roseburg, boarded the man's waiting car at 9:35 a. m., arrived in Medford at noon, arrived at Crater Lake at 2:35, left the lake at 2:50, arrived at Med-

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE SUCCEEDING

The Salvation Army campaign is now launched in Medford, and local officials say the people are plunging into the spirit of it, and reaching out a helping hand in a good, cheerful way. The campaign leaders feel assured the people will see them through and get the full quota for Jackson county.

Captain Gay, the local officer, with his wife, are doing all in their power to aid all who are worthy. They will appreciate help and will be glad for any to come to the quarters reporting cases or calling them by phone.

Fire Losses Here Decrease.
During the month of August fourteen fire alarms were turned into the fire department, which fires aggregated a loss of approximately $160 within the city, excluding fire losses occurring out of the city limits.

Of the fourteen fires only one was a grass fire, the others being of a miscellaneous nature, which included automobile, closet, junk yard, and roof fires.

During August of 1924, $600 damage was caused by six fires, showing a decrease of several hundred dollars for this year.
