

8 INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED BY GRAND JURY

Eight true bills were returned yesterday by the grand jury when in session at Jacksonville, relative to offenses in connection with the prohibition and other state laws.

dicted on three charges with bail set at approximately $9000, $5000 of which was for assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to kill, $1000 for transportation of liquor and $3000 for setting up and operating a distillery. Joe Palmer, indicted for setting up and operating a distillery and keeping a still in his possession, bail $3000 on each charge. Denny Shannon, at large, setting up and operating a distillery and keeping a still in his possession, $3000 bail on each charge. D. H. Stonebreaker, Jack Durando and H. C. Conway, possession of a still and setting up and operating a distillery. Bail set at $3000 each. Howard D. Dorman, Gold Hill, charged with ransacking a trunk at the local S. P. baggage office, was indicted with $500 as bond. Later he returned and pleaded guilty to the charge. His sentence has been set for September 14. Willis A. Scott of Applegate, indicted for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, bail set at $1000. The above prisoners will make their plea September 14, and on their plea of not guilty will be held over to the fall term of circuit court. Agnes Reade, 19, and Garland Reade, 16, pleaded guilty to the charges of possessing and transporting liquor. They were fined $500 on each charge. They were arrested some time ago in connection with the premature raid made on the Shannon ranch by Sheriff Jennings and Federal Officer Clatus McCredie. No non-true bills were returned by the jury at yesterday's session. Killed By Bed Spring. LOS ANGELES—A bed spring he was adjusting fell on Charles Miller and when help arrived he was dead. His head was thrust through one corner of the spring and the taut wire coils still maintained their death grip on his throat. Window Cleaner Injured. PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 4.—Don Gies, a window cleaner, fell from a third story window ledge in an office building here this afternoon, suffering a broken arm and serious bruises.

$3,000,000 TIMBER DEAL IS CLOSED

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 4.—Sale of timber holdings and railway owned by A. S. Kerry of Seattle, in the region south of the Columbia river, northwesterly from Portland, to the Peninsula Lumber company of Portland, was completed yesterday. The deal involves about $3,000,000. The timber transferred is said to amount to approximately one billion feet of high quality fir and other species, situated in Columbia, Clatsop, Washington and Tillamook counties, close to the extensive holdings of the Oregon-American Timber company. The railway, known as the Columbia and Scholten line, extends southerly from the Columbia river at Kerry station, 70 miles from Portland, 33 miles southerly into the heavily timbered area. The railway's equipment includes nine locomotives, 24 freight and logging cars and six passenger cars. Spanish Transport Is Safe. MELILLA, Spanish Morocco, Sept. 4.—(A. P.)—The Spanish transport Espana No. 5 is safely at anchor in this harbor.

GOLD RUSH FOLLOWS DISCOVERY OF GOLD

LEWISTON, Idaho, Sept. 4.—A gold rush was on today on Slate creek, near Grangeville, following the announcement here yesterday by George Thompson, an old time miner, that he had discovered croppings of quartz on a sidehill in that vicinity. More than 100 persons staked claims today within a radius of five miles of Thompson's claim.
