president, San Francisco; Arthur S. Bent, Los Angeles; O. M. Clark, Portland; Everett G. Griggs, Tacoma; Lafayette Hanchett, Salt Lake City; Dwight B. Hear, Phoenix; and Ralph Merrill, Fresno.

This division held a very successful mid-year meeting at Los Angeles last December, when matters of great importance to western business were discussed. The next western convention will be held in Seattle December 7th and 8th.

Mr. Clagstone expects to meet with the business men of southern Oregon and northern California on his coming visit and will bring before them many matters connected with the organization of business, local, national and international. He is well qualified to discuss this question from the point of view of western business as he has spent most of his life on the Pacific coast and the inter-mountain country.

Mr. Clagstone will report on the annual convention of the national chamber which was held in Washington, D. C., on May 20-22 inclusive; on the Merchant Marine conference held in the west in September; on the meeting on the border at Douglas, Arizona, of Western Chambers of Commerce with those of Mexico, and will also outline plans in connection with the next western divisional meeting at Seattle. He will also speak briefly on the accomplishments of the International Chamber of Commerce, in connection with the Dawes plan and recent developments in Europe. Mr. Clagstone will talk at 11:00 a. m. in the Merchants Bldg. at the Jackson County Fair Grounds, Saturday, September 19th.

ASHLAND TEACHERS GIVEN RECEPTION BY SCHOOL BOARD

ASHLAND, Sept. 9.—Hundreds of Ashland citizens were waiting the arrival of the train as it pulled in, bringing its distinguished passenger, Charles Gates Dawes, vice president of the United States, who in the 20 minutes at his disposal, spoke to the interested and sympathetic audience on the abuses prevalent in the senate, under existing rules, investigating conditions as they exist and said he considered it his duty to present the facts to the people and let an awakened public opinion insist on a reform. "Speak to your senators through your primaries," said the vice president, "that they may express the will of the people." Smiling, he closed with a cheery word to those near, greeting some who pressed forward for the personal greeting.

Irving E. Vining introduced the vice president, and flowers and fruits were presented to him. Rounds of applause were given many of his statements. The reception tendered by the board of education and their wives to the teachers of the Ashland schools Monday night was a very delightful function, given at the Lithia Springs hotel. An informal program was presented, during which Miss Gladys Morton sang, accompanied by Miss Aileen Shepherd, a duet was given by Mrs. G. H. McGee and Miss Eva Foley, with Miss Gertrude Brown at the piano, Miss Laura Best played a piano solo, and a vocal solo was given by Miss Florence Allen. Miss Eva Foley accompanied. A very happy form of entertainment, introduced the strangers and afforded much amusement during the evening, which closed in the serving of delicious cakes and ice cream. The affair was a very pleasant introduction for Ashland's teaching force and an augury, it is hoped, of many delightful experiences during the coming year.

Another very happy affair occurred Tuesday evening, when perhaps 25 friends of Miss Florence Allen surprised her at the home of Miss Eva Foley, where she, with her mother, Mrs. Geneva Allen, and the Misses Edna Goheen and Gertrude Haan were dinner guests of Miss Foley, and her mother, Mrs. Josephine Foley at their pleasant home on B street. About eight o'clock the surprise guests arrived, uttering a surprise and walking in unannounced. The effect was all that could be desired, the complimented guest having had no inkling of what was planned. Story, song and reminiscence visit and the presentation of tiny gifts each with an especial significance sped the evening. Miss Allen was the popular principal at Hawthorne for a number of years, and lends her voice not only in the Presbyterian choir of which she has been a member for years, but in entertainment and social function. She leaves shortly for Visalia where she teaches the coming year.

A family reunion and birthday dinner, in which the natal anniversary of E. E. Miller was celebrated at the pretty bungalow home of the Millers on Church street occurred Monday. Covers were laid for fifteen at the dinner which was a veritable feast, with delicious chicken pie, the piece de resistance. Those who were assembled were Mr. and Mrs. Miller, host and hostess; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowland, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hamilton and Luella, John, Harold, Clyde, Lillian and Bobby Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Nelson, daughter Virginia, and Miss Kitty Nelson from Sebastopol, Calif., who arrived recently for a visit at the parental home. The last named guests will visit points of interest in the valley, enjoying the Crater Lake trip while here. This reunion was by way of a triple celebration, there being two other birthdays commemorated at the same time, those of Mrs. Miller and Mr. Gowland. The California visitors came by the coast route and will return over the Pacific highway.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Chaney enjoyed a visit early in the week of Lyall Bolton and Milton Bolton, both of Eugene, who spent the holidays here. The young men are brothers of Mrs. Chaney.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet Friday of this week, with Mrs. S. J. Chaney as hostess. There is an excellent program prepared and it is expected there will be a good attendance.

Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant is quite indisposed, and has been for some little time. Her friends hope for a decided improvement soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peck and children Winifred and Jimmie, arrived the first of the week to spend a month's vacation. They will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Spencer in Medford and at the Kenneth McWilliams home in Ashland. They were guests on arrival of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Simpson, Mrs. Peck is a sister of Mrs. Spencer and Mr. McWilliams, F. G. McWilliams, Mrs. Peck's father, lives with his daughter Mrs. Spencer, so it will be a family reunion. Charles McWilliams was over from Klamath Falls the first of the week for a little visit at the Spencer home.

NEW SCHEME TO BE TRIED THIS YEAR AT FAIR

A new scheme which requires the co-operation of the women of the county is to be tried this year at the county fair. The classes of cooked foods which include bread, rolls, cake, cookies, doughnuts, pie, and assorted candies are to be open each day for entries. The exhibits will be judged each day, and prizes awarded. The first day of the fair, Wednesday, September 16, the money listed in the premium book will be given, and on the following days, merchandise of equal value. The local merchants and wholesalers have been most generous in their contributions. After the races, each day, the food may either be claimed by the owner, or sold at auction, eighty per cent of the sale price going to the exhibitor, and twenty per cent to the fair association to be used for prizes in the department.

This plan offers several advantages over that employed in former years. First, the food is fresh each day, and therefore makes a nicer appearing exhibit. Second, instead of having the cakes and pies all dried up, and hardly worth taking home at the end of the fair, they may go home or be sold while they are still fresh and appetizing. This does away with the wastefulness of the former system. There have always been women who say "What shall I give my family for supper if I stay to the races as I want to." The answer in a most attractive form can be found every afternoon at the women's building after the races. Famous auctioneers of Jackson county will vie with each other to bring the largest prices for the prize foods.

This plan will materially increase the number of entries in this department, as women may bake on the day most convenient for her. Ambitious women can bring in food each of these days.

Those Floors of Yours! RUBBER CEMENT FLOOR PAINT

EVERY home-keeping, home-loving woman has, sometime, wondered: "How can I have soft-wood floors that are as inviting as hardwood—clean and bright—and easy to keep that way? I mean bed room floors, halls, closets, bath rooms, in fact, all the busy 'up-stairs' places."

A properly painted surface is the answer. Such a surface must be as indifferent to soap suds and water, and as willing to part with soil and stains, as a well-placed—with almost cement-like resistance to scuffing shoes, pounding heels and sliding, scraping furniture.

Rubber Cement Floor Paint provides soft-wood interior floors with the surface that satisfies your most exacting ideas of good home-keeping. Easy to apply, it dries over night, forming a bright, porcelain-like surface in any one of several attractive colors. Made by FULLER—the result of 76 years' experience.

Ask your Dealer. And don't forget to write for our free book, "Color Harmony in the Home." It is your guide when painting floors, walls and woodwork. Illustrated in color and suggests color schemes.
